Research Second Edition presents a comprehensive interdisciplinary overview of the field of qualitative research. Divided into eight parts, the forty chapters address key topics in the field such as approaches to qualitative research, philosophical perspectives, narrative inquiry, field research and interview methods, text arts, based and internet methods, analysis and interpretation of findings, and representation and evaluation. The handbook is intended for students of all levels, faculty and researchers across the disciplines, and the contributors represent some of the most influential and innovative researchers as well as emerging scholars. This handbook provides a broad introduction to the field of qualitative research to those with little to no background in the subject while providing substantive contributions to the field that will be of interest to even the most experienced researchers. It serves as a user-friendly teaching tool suitable for a range of undergraduate or graduate courses as well as individuals working on their thesis or other research projects. With a focus on methodological instruction, the incorporation of real-world examples and practical applications, and ample coverage of writing and representation, this volume offers everything readers need to undertake their own qualitative studies.

Qualitative Methods in Social Work Research Deborah K. Padgett, 2016-05-25. Qualitative Methods in Social Work Research provides accessible how-to instruction for carrying out rigorous qualitative research. Deborah K. Padgett's thoroughly revised Third Edition offers a comprehensive introduction to qualitative methods based on six major approaches: ethnography, grounded theory, case study, narrative, phenomenological, and participatory action research. Readers will appreciate the book's ease of use, friendly writing style, and helpful cases, examples that combine attention to methodological rigor with pragmatic concerns for real-world relevance.

The SAGE Handbook of Qualitative Methods in Health Research Ivy Bourgeault, Robert Dingwall, Ray de Vries, 2010-08-19.
