(Re)mapping the Latina/o Literary Landscape Cristina Herrera, Larissa M. Mercado-López, 2016-08-10 This book broadens the scope of Latina o criticism to include both widely read and understudied nineteenth through twenty first century fictional works that engage in critical discussions of gender race sexuality and identity The essays in this collection do not simply seek inclusion for the texts they critically discuss but suggest that we more thoughtfully consider the utility of mapping whether we are mapping land borders time migration or connections and disconnections across time and space Using new and rigorous methodological approaches to reading Latina o literature contributors reveal a varied and textured landscape challenging us to reconsider the process and influence of literary production across borders
