Herinneringen Autobiografie:

Controlling Time and Shaping the Self, 2011-06-22 This book explores new questions and approaches to the rise of autobiographical writing since the early modern period What motivated more and more men and women to write records of their private life How could private writing grow into a bestselling genre How was this rapidly expanding genre influenced by new ideas about history that emerged around 1800 How do we explain the paradox of the apparent privacy of publicity in many autobiographies Such questions are addressed with reference to well known autobiographies and an abundance of newfound works by persons hitherto unknown not only from Europe but also the Near East and Japan This volume features new views of the complex field of historical autobiography studies and is the first to put the genre in a global perspective

The Dutch Rediscover the Dutch-Africans (1847-1900) Andrew Burnett, 2022-07-25 Were the Dutch Africans in southern Africa a brother nation to the Dutch or did they simply represent a lost colony Connecting primary sources in Dutch and Afrikaans this work tells the story of the Dutch stamverwantschap kinship movement between 1847 and 1900 The white Dutch Africans were imagined to be the bridgehead to a broader Dutch identity a second Netherlands in the south This study explores how the 19th century Dutch identified with and idealised a pastoral community operating within a racially segregated society on the edge of European civilisation When the stamverwantschap dream collided with British military and economic power the belief that race language and religion could sustain a broader Dutch identity proved to be an illusion

A Classified Bibliography of the History of Dutch Medicine 1900-1974 G.A. Lindeboom, 2012-12-06 I In some periods of the past Netherlands medicine has played a major role in the evolution of European medicine today its history still enjoys much interest even at the other side of the Ocean In this bibliography it has been my endeavour to compile references for all that has been written on the history of Dutch medicine in our country and elsewhere in our age The main concern of this work is with the medicine of the Northern Netherlands However before the end of the sixteenth century the Northern and Southern Netherlands were not yet divided into two separate countries they were still politically one and for the greater part spoke the same Flemish language So before their separation the present day Belgium and Netherlands also had a common medical history Therefore many entries have been included which bear on early and sometimes later Flemish medicine but it has not been the intention to strive for completeness in this respect

A History of Science in the Netherlands Klaas van Berkel, Albert van Helden, L.C. Palm, 2023-07-03 In the 400 years of its modern history the Netherlands has produced a distinguished array of eminent mathematicians scientists and medical researchers including many Nobel prize winners and other internationally recognised figures from Stevin Snel and Huygens in the 17th century to Lorentz Kammerlingh Onnes Buys Ballot De Vries de Sitter and Oort in the 19th and 20th centuries Yet it has often been noted that the history of science in the Netherlands is underrepresented in the international literature The handbook A History of Science in The Netherlands aims to correct this situation by providing a chronological and thematic survey of the field from the 16th century to the present essays on selected aspects of science in the Netherlands and reference biographies of about 65 important Dutch scientists Written by more than 10 experts from Europe and North America the handbook is the standard English language reference work for the field Acta Historiae Neerlandicae W. Prevenier,R. van Uytven,J. J. Poelhekke,J. R. Bruijn,J. C. Boogman,J. A. Bornewasser,J. G. Hegeman,Alice C. Carter,W. Blockmans,W. Brulez,R. van Eenoo,2012-12-06 The editors of the seventh volume of Acta Historiae Neerlandicae have followed the same lines as those adopted for its predecessor Studies have again been selected which throw light on the history of the Low Countries the choice again being directed to subjects likely to be of interest to foreign scholars lacking knowledge of the Dutch language For this reason articles fairly general in scope have been chosen studies of local interest or concerned with matters of detail have not been included In this volume a wide diversity of topics is treated Included are studies in the economic and social history of the later Middle Ages and on subjects in the fields of the sixteenth and early half of the eighteenth centuries There are two articles on the nineteenth century Dutch statesman Thorbecke 1972 was the anniversary of his death And there are also contributions on the homeland of Erasmus and on Dutch reactions to the publication of Darwin s Origins of Species Also included are surveys of recent historical publications in the Netherlands and of those from Belgian historians that appeared in Dutch A group of English historians working under the guidance of Professor Swart of University College London has surveyed the former this article being edited by Mrs Alice Carter of the London School of Economics The task of the late Professor Dhondt of the University of Ghent in connection with the survey of the Belgian contributions written in Dutch has been taken over by W Atlantic Automobilm Gijs Mom,2014-12 Offering a sweeping transatlantic perspective this book explains the current obsession with automobiles by delving deep into the motives of early car users It provides a synthesis of our knowledge about the emergence and persistence of the car using a broad range of material including novels poems films and songs Childhood, Memory and Autobiography in Holland R. Dekker,2019-06-12 Between the 17th and 19th centuries auto biographers and diarists invented new ways to write about childhood and children At the same time pedagogical ideas about child rearing changed This book looks at the connection between these developments Egodocuments can bring the past alive and allow us to sketch six intimate portraits The second part of the book concentrates on the changes Childhood became more highly valued as a phase of life Children were taken more seriously This is shown in chapters on child s play punishment wet nursing and independence Around 1800 in diaries parents more openly grieved about the loss of a child which indicates both a change of literary conventions and changes in the way emotions were felt and expressed Finally autobiographers wrote more and differently about their early years and developed new memory strategies Autobiographical texts are discussed within a wider cultural setting using paintings poetry pedagogical tracts and novels This book makes clear how changes in autobiographical style the concept of childhood and the working of human memory are connected Herinneringen dromen gedachten Carl Gustav Jung,1991 Zelfportret van de Zwitserse psychiater en psycholoog 1875 1961 zoals dat oprijst uit zijn
