Pain Narratives in Greco-Roman Writings ,2023-07-03 Why is it so difficult to talk about pain As we do today the Greeks and Romans struggled to communicate their pain this required a rich and subtle vocabulary which had to be developed over time Pain Narratives traces the development of this language in literary philosophical and medical texts from across antiquity poets physicians and philosophers contributed to an ever growing lexicon to articulate their own and others feelings The essays within this volume uncover the expanding Greco Roman vocabulary of pain analyse the medical discussions on pain symptoms and explore the religious reinterpretations of pain concepts in late antiquity The Authenticity of the Gospels Peter L P Simpson,2019-04-16 That the Gospels are the writings of their traditional Apostolic authors was long held to be settled truth It was also long held that Matthew was first and as early as the 40sAD followed by Mark and Luke and lastly by John and that all were written before about 70AD These views have been doubted or denied by New Testament scholars from about the end of the 18thCentury The dominant view is that the Gospels were not written by eyewitnesses though they depend on material that may go back to eyewitnesses Mark is said to have been written first and not much before 70AD Matthew and Luke are later and depend on Mark and some unknown sources John is last follows an independent tradition and could be as late as 100AD The reason for this change of views is the so called historical critical method which claims to be scientific and up to date in literary criticism and the detection of different temporal layers in written texts The method also assumes that reports of miracles and other supernatural phenomena are not historical but later inventions added for religious purposes This book shows that the historical critical method is not historical or critical or even a method For the method assumes but cannot prove that supernatural happenings are unhistorical it ignores the historical evidence about the origin and authorship of the Gospels its literary criticism is unimaginative and its application of it to questions of dating arbitrary There is no reason to accept its results as well founded or even believable The traditional dating and authorship of the Gospels is the only account that makes sense Nevertheless elements of the historical critical method have a legitimate use if they are applied fairly and taken along with the historical evidence and the fact well established by eyewitnesses of supernatural realities When these elements are so used they can be shown to give plausible and defensible accounts of the origin in particular of the Gospels of Mark and Luke which along with Matthew show signs of dependence and overlap If the historical evidence is taken seriously and if literary criticism is applied fairly a plausible account can be given of the origin in particular of the Gospel of Mark of how it arose from the preaching of Peter relative to the older Gospel of Matthew and to the newer Gospel of Luke sponsored by the Apostle Paul This alternative account of the origins of Mark and Luke is a fine example of how historical evidence and literary criticism can be used to explain otherwise puzzling phenomena This account is perhaps not the only one to save all the phenomena But it shows how the traditional authorship and dating of the Gospels contrary to the historical critical method make excellent sense of all the phenomena literary historical and rational The traditional view about the Gospels is the only sensible view to adopt The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1908 The English Catalogue of Books [annual] ,1909 Vols 1898 include a directory of publishers Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1908 The English Catalogue of Books ... Sampson Low,1909 Herodoti Historiae Herodotus,2015 In this new edition of Herodotus Histories Nigel Wilson has revised the original Oxford Classical Text by the Danish scholar C Hude published in 1906 and last revised in 1927 As well as incorporating much of the valuable work on the text that has been conducted since the original edition in particular that of J Enoch Powell and Paul Maas Wilson has taken into account new readings from over 80 papyri In addition clarity in the apparatus criticus has been improved by the collation of two previously neglected medieval manuscripts which belong to the so called Roman family A number of passages remain puzzling and Wilson proposes new solutions and provides plausible emendations wherever possible The editor has also written a commentary volume Herodotea to accompany this edition in which he explains many of the editorial decisions he made while revising this key classical text The Publisher ,1908 British Books ,1908 Brill' s Companion to the Reception of Homer from the Hellenistic Age to Late Antiquity Christina-Panagiota Manolea,2021-12-06 Brill s Companion to the Reception of Homer from the Hellenistic Age to Late Antiquity presents a comprehensive account of the afterlife of the Homeric corpus Twenty chapters written by a range of experts in the field show how Homeric poems were transmitted disseminated adopted analysed admired or even criticized across diverse intellectual environments from the late 4th century BCE to the 5th century CE The volume explores the impact of Homer on Hellenistic prose and poetry the Second Sophistic the Stoics some Christian writers and the major Neoplatonists showing how the Greek paideia continued to flourish in new contexts The Cambridge University Calendar University of Cambridge,1908 Race and Ethnicity in the Classical World ,2013-09-15 By offering fluent accurate translations of extracts and fragments from a wide assortment of ancient texts this volume allows a comprehensive overview of ancient Greek and Roman concepts of otherness as well as Greek and Roman views of non Greeks and non Romans A general introduction thorough annotation maps a select bibliography and an index are also included Afghanistan Dispossessed Razia Sultanova,2023-01-24 A focused history of women and popular culture in Afghanistan from the Soviet invasion to 9 11 to the Taliban s takeover How does normal social cultural religious life survive in constant turmoil How can the people flourish These basic questions are examined and answered by Razia Sultanova s academic analysis and deep fieldwork with extensive eyewitness and personal contacts and conversations with a wide variety of Afghan men and women She looks at basic questions of gender identity nation tradition history popular culture and especially the role of music classical popular modern and contemporary as a vital element for survival And all is over shadowed by the Taliban with on going threat of terror and repression especially for women and girls Here is a classical story of a people's struggle for everyday normality and preservation of cherished traditions in a war-torn society Colors and Textures of Roman North Africa Elizabeth A. Clark, Zachary B. Smith, 2023-09-08 This book serves two purposes first it celebrates the career of the late Maureen Tilley second it provides a state-of-the-field look at some of the latest scholarship on Christian North Africa in late antiquity The chapters written by both senior scholars and the next generation of North African researchers fills gaps in some of our understandings of the colorful people places and disputes that arose in the unique environment of Christian North Africa The book centers around Augustine Donatist studies and North African biblical interpretation representing Tilley's major areas of interest while also ensuring coverage of Tertullian a major figure in the North African church and one of Tilley's hobbyhorses and the pilgrimages to North Africa and other places It contributes to the field's by providing new scholarship from some of the biggest names in Christian North Africa studies Patout Burns Robin Jensen Bill Tabbernee Anthony Dupont and Allan Fitzgerald and in Patristic early Christian studies writ large Blake Leyerle and Geoffrey Dunn while demonstrating the new trajectories of Christian North Africa research from early career Alden Bass and emerging Colum Dever scholars The editors were Tilley's dissertation director the late Liz Clark and one of her last mentees Zach Smith so the entire collection has a meta view of academic genealogy knowledge flowing from Tilley's mentor through colleagues and mentees and down through and to the next generation who carry on those legacies

The Materiality of Text - Placement, Perception, and Presence of Inscribed Texts in Classical Antiquity, 2018-10-22 Written by an international cast of experts The Materiality of Text showcases a wide range of innovative methodologies from ancient history literary studies epigraphy and art history and provides a multi-disciplinary perspective on the physicality of writing in antiquity The contributions focus on epigraphic texts in order to gauge questions of their placement presence and perception starting with an analysis of the forms of writing and its perception as an act of physical and cultural intervention the volume moves on to consider the texts ubiquity and strategic positioning within epigraphic literary and architectural spaces The contributors rethink modern assumptions about the processes of writing and reading and establish novel ways of thinking about the physical forms of ancient texts
