Presents a comprehensive guide for parents, teachers, and youth workers to help them understand and address the issues that influence the behaviors, values, and attitudes of young people in their care. Blitz Kids Sean Longden, 2012-03-01. From the dangers of London streets during the Blitz to working on the high seas in the Merchant Navy during the Atlantic Convoy, children were on the frontline of battle during the Second World War. In Sean Longden's gripping retelling of the conflict, he explores how the war impacted upon a whole generation who lost their innocence at home and abroad, on the battlefield and the home front. Through extensive interviews and research, Longden uncovers previously untold stories of heroism and courage: the eleven-year-old boy who was sunk on the SS Benares and left in frozen water for two days; the teenage Girl Guide awarded the George Medal for bravery; the merchant seaman sunk three times by the age of seventeen; the fourteen-year-old who signed up for the army three times before finally seeing action in the Normandy campaign; the fourteen-year-old Boy Bugler of the Royal Marines on active service onboard battleships, as well as the harrowing experiences of the boy who survived the Bethnal Green Tube Disaster, the horrors of being a child captive in the German POW camps. Blitz Kids will change forever the way one sees the relationship between the Second World War and the generation our grandparents and great grandparents who bravely faced the challenge of Nazism. Allowing them to tell their stories in their own words, Sean Longden brings both the horrors and the humour of young lives lived in troubled times. The book includes stories of: The seventeen-year-old boy who signed up 4 times before he made it onto the beaches at Normandy; The Girl Guide who saved a family during the blitz; The teenage merchant seaman who was sunk three times; What it was like to be a teenage POW after the disasters of Dunkirk. Praise for Sean Longden: A rising name in military history, able to uncover the missing stories of the Second World War. The Guardian. A tenacious sleuth of Second World War secrets. Andrew Roberts. At times you have to stop and remind yourself that you're reading history and not an 007 thriller. The Soldier. First-class history from a first-class historian. Military Illustrated. Fascinating. Financial Times. Packing Light Allison Fallon, 2013-08-26. Carrying baggage you don't need. When I was in college, I figured my life would come together around graduation. I'd meet a guy, have a beautiful wedding, and we'd buy a nice little house, not necessarily with a picket fence but with whatever kind of fence we wanted. Whatever we decided, I would be happy. When I got out of college and my life didn't look like that, I floundered trying to get the life I had always dreamed of through career, travel, and relationships. But none of them satisfied me as I hoped. Like many twentysomethings, I tried to discover the life of my dreams, but instead, I just kept accumulating baggage: school loans, electronics I couldn't afford, hurt from broken relationships, and unmet expectations for what life was supposed to be like Just when I had given up all hope of finding the life I d always dreamed about I decided to take a trip to all fifty states because when you go on a trip you can t take your baggage What I found was that packing light wasn t as easy as I thought it would be This is the story of my trip and learning to live life with less baggage Scary Monsters and Bright Ideas Robyn Williams,2000 Australia s best known science broadcaster Robyn Williams takes readers on a whirlwind tour of the key scientific issues facing Australia at the beginning of the twenty first century fears about genetically modified foods the low level of science debate in the media and science s failure to attract young Australians
