Heroic Measures Vintage Contemporaries:

The Life and Letters of John Donne, Dean of St. Paul's Edmund Gosse, 1899 The Life and Letters of John Donne Edmund Gosse, 1899 Mapping The Faerie Queene Wayne Erickson, 2013-10-28 This book analyzes the Faerie Queene's setting examining Spenser's quest structures and his ideas about epic romance and history. Critics almost invariably treat Spenser's Faeryland as coextensive with the world of the poem but this is not the case rather Faeryland is part of an epic cosmos reaching from heaven and the abode of the classical deities to demonic underground realms. Spenser situates Faeryland within a specific spatial and temporal terrestrial geography in which locations outside Faeryland represent various heroic settings in political history. The politico-historical world built around Faeryland is ripe for analysis by contemporary historicist critics. Spenser uses political geography in conjunction with the time inclusive medium of Faeryland to coordinate several transhistorical quests that create a pattern of temporal mediations among sixth century British 16th century English and biblical and prophetic versions of history. He juxtaposes chronicle history empirical historiography and cultural myth while manipulating genre to create a world capable of accommodating his grand romantic epic design. In mapping the world of The Faerie Queene the book provides a widened context for Spenser's quest structures a significant contribution to the study of the poem's relation to history and a new perspective from which to view Spenser's debts to classical epic Italian romantic epic and his native medieval inheritance. Index Bibliography The Life and Letters of John Donne, Vol I Edmund Gosse, 2019-01-28 These two volumes comprise a biography of John Donne Dean of St Paul's and metaphysical poet. New York City is on high alert a gasoline truck is stuck in the Midtown tunnel and the driver has fled. Through panic and gridlock Alex and Ruth must transport their beloved old dachshund whose back legs are suddenly paralyzed to the animal hospital using a cutting board as a stretcher. But this is also the weekend when Alex and Ruth must sell the apartment in which they have lived for most of their adult lives. Over the course of forty eight hours as the mystery of the missing truck driver terrorizes the city and the dachshund's life hangs in the balance the bidding war over their apartment becomes a barometer for collective hope and despair. Told in shifting points of view Alex's Ruth's and the little dog's Heroic Measures is a moving
