Het Land Onder De Zon Het Indonesie Van Nu:

Journalism and Politics in Indonesia David T. Hill, 2010-01-21 This book weaves a history of the Indonesian press and of Indonesia's post independence history through the life story of Mochtar Lubis one of Indonesia's best known newspaper editors authors and cultural figures with a national regional and international prominence he retained from the early 1950s until his death in 2004 Het land onder de zon Mochtar Lubis, Marianne Hehuat, Han Hehuat, 1981 Verslag van de reis die een Indonesische journalist in 1980 door zijn land maakte Two Tales of the East Indies E. M. Beekman, 1983 For centuries women who have lived in inhospitable regions have displayed enormous courage resourcefulness self sufficiency and determination in their daily lives The Last House in the World is an autobiographical novel based on the author's life on the island of Buru in the Moluccas Beb Vuyk lived in a very remote area in a house so isolated that it seemed at the edge of the world Vuyk is particularly effective in describing the loneliness of frontier existence for women and the emotional cost of daily confrontations with what in more civilized areas would be considered extraordinary events and dangers Ultimately although the protagonist feels physically and emotionally constrained by her regenerative powers i.e. the ability to conceive and nurture life it is these very powers that enable her to be victorious in life's most awesome confrontation the struggle with death The author of many fictional stories Vuyk published her first novel Thousand Islands in 1937 Writing from personal experience H.J. Friedericy provides in The Counselor a rare glimpse of life in the outlying districts an existence that was quite different from that on Java Friedericy entered the colonial service in the Dutch East Indies at the age of twenty one and held a number of administrative positions All his writings concern southern Celebes where he was stationed during the first years of his career Written in 1958 The Counselor is Friedericy's last work of fiction It recalls life on Celebes during the 1920s when the Dutch were struggling to impose what they considered an enlightened colonial administration on the remnants of a feudal system they had nearly destroyed The novel is written in a style of detached curiosity and portrays the relationship of a young Dutch government official with an older and wiser administrator the Counselor of the title The story describes the numerous events and crises that confront the younger man in the course of his duties Review of Indonesian and Malaysian Affairs, 1987 Text/politics in Island Southeast Asia D. M. Roskies, David M. E. Roskies, 1993 How does the language of poetry conspire with the language of power This question is at the heart of this volume which deals with Indonesia and the Philippines in the early modern and post 1945 periods These two nations have been shaped by the forces of nationalism revolution and metropolitan hegemony Whether written in Malay Tagalog English or Dutch the writings coming from them carry the contradictions of their time and place in the milieu of race and class The contributors examine the literature and politics of Indonesia and Philippines from the point of view of contemporary thinking Their examinations include the responses of indigenous writers to censorship and to their marginalization and cooption by colonial and neocolonial states They investigate the rhetoric of spectacle in the Philippines of Ferdinand Marcos the function of pasyon in

Tagalog religious narrative the writings of Pramoedya Ananta Toer in Indonesia and the memoirs of a Javanese aristocrat This book will be of interest to colonial historians and to students and scholars of non Western and comparative literature
