Het Leidse Prentenkabinet J. Bolten, Rijksuniversiteit te Leiden. Prentenkabinet, 1994 Geschiedenis van het Leidse Prentenkabinet met speciale aandacht voor verwerving en karakter van de belangrijkste verzamelingen prenten tekeningen en foto's Art LoVers: Celebrating Elisabeth de Bièvre and John Onians in Words and Pictures Gyöngyvér Horváth, Isabelle Onians, 2025-07-03 This double Festschrift honors art historians Elisabeth de Bièvre and John Onians on their 55th wedding anniversary It features personal and professional tributes artworks and scholarly articles highlighting their innovative contributions to World Art Studies geography of art and neuroarthistory The Ashgate Research Companion to Dutch Art of the Seventeenth Century Wayne Franits, 2017-07-05 Despite the tremendous number of studies produced annually in the field of Dutch art over the last 30 years or so and the strong contemporary market for works by Dutch masters of the period as well as the public's ongoing fascination with some of its most beloved painters until now there has been no comprehensive study assessing the state of research in the field As the first study of its kind this book is a useful resource for scholars and advanced students of seventeenth century Dutch art and also serves as a springboard for further research Its 19 chapters divided into three sections and written by a team of internationally renowned art historians address a wide variety of topics ranging from those that might be considered traditional to others that have only drawn scholarly attention comparatively recently Collecting China Jan van Campen, 2022-03-14 During a relatively short period from around 1765 to 1780 the Dutch lawyer Jean Theodore Royer 1737-1807 was intensely engaged in the study of Chinese culture Befriended VOC officials and their Chinese relations in Canton collected Chinese objects for him and helped him with his greatest ambition the composition of a Chinese dictionary The objects were given a home in his museum on the Herengracht in The Hague Better than travel journals they gave a picture of life in China in Royer's time Because the selection was largely made by modest Chinese traders the collection does not so much give a picture of the material culture of the Chinese elite but rather that of the ambitious upwardly mobile world of small traders and craftsmen These are mostly ephemeral objects that have rarely been preserved but they came to The Hague thanks to Royer and his Chinese contacts A bequest from his widow then ensured that the collection ended up in two Dutch museums Museum Volkenkunde in Leiden and the Rijksmuseum in Amsterdam where the objects are still present today De Haagse jurist Jean Theodore Royer (1737-1807) en zijn verzameling Chinese voorwerpen Jan van Campen, 2000 Art in Reproduction Robert Verhoogt, 2007 This illuminating study examines the cultural meaning of artistic reproduction in a refreshingly new context through its consideration of how three artists managed the reproduction of their work In His Milieu Amy Golahny, Mia Mochizuki, Lisa Vergara, 2025-10-01 Collected in memory of the Vermeer scholar and Yale economist J Michael Montias these essays take into account the latest trends in the field and provide new data on a wide range of topics in Netherlandish art Themes include the reception of paintings and architecture art collecting as interpreted through inventories and other documents that reveal modes of display relationships between patrons and painters recently found or attributed works of art artists as teachers and the art market Taken together these focused studies offer fresh perspectives on the historical appreciation and evaluation of art Drawing upon J M Montias contribution to art history these 32 essays present new analyses attributions and documents on Netherlandish art and material culture including the work of Vermeer Rubens Rembrandt van Eyck and others by internationally known scholars of art history and the economics of art
