Heritage Tourism In Southeast Asia:

Heritage Tourism in Southeast Asia Michael Hitchcock, Victor T. King, Mike Parnwell, 2010-10-31 Published in Europe by NIAS Press Nordic Institute of Asian Studies T p verso Heritage Tourism V. Dao Truong, David W. Knight, 2025-09-11 This book provides an overview of research and best practices associated with heritage tourism with a particular focus on Vietnam in conversation with heritage tourism in other Asian contexts These include Iran in the Middle East Sri Lanka in South Asia Japan and China in East Asia Thailand in Southeast Asia and Brunei and the Philippines in the South Pacific By delving into crucial questions and challenges relating to cultural innovation preservation and authenticity it offers key lessons for policy making and theorisation which not only contribute to understanding and improving heritage tourism in Vietnam specifically and in Asia more broadly but also inform efforts to preserve and regenerate both natural and cultural heritage on a global scale It is relevant to researchers and student communities working within areas of heritage sustainability tourism geography and in Asian studies Tourism in South-East Asia Michael Hitchcock, Victor T. King, Michael J.G. Parnwell, 2018-10-26 South East Asia has developed rapidly as a tourist destination but what are the effects of this growth upon the peoples of the region How far is it possible to control the impact of tourism whilst also supporting the industry s role in the region s development This book first published in 1993 attempts to answer these questions by providing a critical analysis of the nature of tourism as it has developed in the area It questions commonly held assumptions about tourism both from a western perspective and from the point of view of policy makers in the region It explores central issues such as the impact of tourism on the environment culture and the economy placing it within an historical and political context in order to assess the implications of current developments The contributors use case studies from a variety of countries on such aspects as the sex industry dream holidays and rural handicrafts assessing tourist perceptions both domestic and international and policy decisions By taking a long term perspective it should provoke thought on the ways to develop sustainable tourism for the future Tourism and Monarchy in Southeast Asia Ploysri Porananond, 2016-09-23 Monarchies around the world play a significant role in tourism development and the tourist experience Debates about the level of finance required to support monarchies often refer to the positive tourist attraction provided by royal pageantry palaces temples and churches architecture museum collections and historical legacies Up to now the literature on tourism and monarchy has been primarily devoted to the history and experiences of Western Europe particularly the United Kingdom There has been little attention devoted to the relationship between monarchy and tourism development in Southeast Asia and this is the first collection of essays to address this neglected field of study The need to shift the focus from European to Asian royalty is important not only to begin to fill gaps in the literature on monarchy and tourism outside Europe but also to avoid the increasing criticism of tourism studies that its major perspectives orientations and paradigms have been based on an overly Eurocentric preoccupation Case studies are taken from Thailand Laos Myanmar Vietnam Malaysia Indonesia Brunei

Darussalam and Singapore Tourism and Cultural Heritage in Southeast Asia Malcolm Bradford, Ean Lee, 2004 Essays from papers presented at seminars and conferences on tourism and cultural heritage Heritage and Cultural Heritage Tourism Pei-Lin Yu, Thanik Lertcharnrit, George S. Smith, 2023-11-14 This book presents the state of the art on cultural heritage and tourism globally Divided into four themes of historical and economic contexts building resilient societies de colonization community and placemaking and empowerment and social capital the book analyses the relevance of heritage and includes case studies in sustainable cultural heritage It offers vital context and guidance for those working in heritage management and also presents emerging cultural heritage challenges and opportunities The volume presents a research agenda for understanding the role of heritage in identity ecology health and well being and its application to heritage tourism It discusses the need for partnerships between tourism and cultural heritage management and the need to establish better information sharing for establishing joint research initiatives The central importance of sharing and incorporating Indigenous and or local voices in order to expand tourists understanding of cultural heritage runs throughout the volume The book highlights on the ground tools and guidance for cultural heritage resource managers and includes a discussion on emerging and convergent challenges such as the impacts of COVID 19 and climate disasters featuring heritage and tourism from across the globe with emphasis on the dynamic situation in East and SE Asia A concluding chapter summarizes themes and trends and future directions for this area of research with a focus on theoretical contributions This book is of interest to heritage scholars and practitioners Cultural Heritage and Tourism in the Developing World Dallen J. Timothy, Gyan P. Nyaupane, 2009-05-18 This is the first book of its kind to synthesize global and regional issues challenges and practices related to cultural heritage and tourism specifically in less developed nations Interconnected Worlds: Tourism in Southeast Asia K.C. Ho, 2001-07-05 Examines the political discourse behind tourism presenting some questions regarding the tensions associated with the interconnections This title focuses on deterritorialisation and the development of fresh regionalisms paying specific attention to collaborative efforts in tourism development Tourism and Development in Southeast Asia Claudia Dolezal, Alexander Trupp, Huong T. Bui, 2020-03-24 This book analyses the role tourism plays for sustainable development in Southeast Asia It seeks to assess tourism's impact on residents and localities across the region by critically debating and offering new understandings of its dynamics on the global and local levels Offering a myriad of case studies from a range of different countries in the region this book is interdisciplinary in nature thereby presenting a comprehensive overview of tourism's current and future role in development Divided into four parts it discusses the nexus of tourism and development at both the regional and national levels with a focus on theoretical and methodological foundations protected areas local communities and broader issues of governance Contributors from within and outside of Southeast Asia raise awareness of the local challenges including issues of ownership or unequal power relations and celebrate best practice examples where tourism can be regarded as making a positive difference to residents' life The first edited volume to examine comprehensive analysis of tourism in Southeast Asia as both an economic and social phenomenon through the lens of development this book will be useful to students and scholars of tourism development Southeast Asian culture and society and Asian Studies more generally Heritage Tourism V. Dao Truong, David W. Knight, 2025-07-01 This book provides an overview of research and best practices associated with heritage tourism with a particular focus on Vietnam in conversation with heritage tourism in other Asian contexts These include Iran in the Middle East Sri Lanka in South Asia Japan and China in East Asia Thailand in Southeast Asia and Brunei and the Philippines in the South Pacific By delving into crucial questions and challenges relating to cultural innovation preservation and authenticity it offers key lessons for policy making and theorisation which not only contribute to understanding and improving heritage tourism in Vietnam specifically and in Asia more broadly but also inform efforts to preserve and regenerate both natural and cultural heritage on a global scale It is relevant to researchers and student communities working within areas of heritage sustainability tourism geography and in Asian studies Cultural and Heritage Tourism Acqwon Fuller, 2018-06-11 Today tourism has become one of the largest and fastest growing industries accounting for nearly 700 million people travelling all over the world and spending more than 7.4 trillion US dollars Besides promoting people to people contacts ethnic and cultural understanding mutual appreciation and co operation and thereby promoting peace tourism provides unlimited opportunities for employment generation social and economic upliftment of the people and contributing to the economies of the nations Cultural heritage tourism has a number of objectives that must be met within the context of sustainable development such as the conservation of cultural resources accurate interpretation of resources authentic visitors experience and the stimulation of the earned revenues of cultural resources Tourism is an important issue at world heritage sites Most managers at natural sites regard it as a key issue Important features of world heritage tourism are local protection conservation and restoration Such a tourism also requires special training management skills Different visitor management strategies interpretation and site promotional activities have to be organised Culture and heritage have also become major forces in economic and urban revitalisation As cultural tourism becomes an increasingly important factor for tourist destinations involved in developing their cultural capital in order to attract more international visitors there is value in assessing how cultural and heritage tourists can be better understood and serviced through marketing planning and programming with local and regional communities This book also provides readers with global charters developed for promoting cultural tourism and for preserving heritage sites Focus lies on ICOSM and WHC World Heritage Sites identified and conserved around the world have been listed and the initiatives to preserve cultural sites and conserve heritage sites Rethinking Asian Tourism Victor T. King, Ploysri

Porananond, 2014-10-16 Rethinking Asian Tourism addresses some of the latest developments in on going tourism research in Southeast Asia and the wider Asia region encompassing in geographical terms Thailand Vietnam Indonesia the Philippines Malaysia Hong Kong Japan and Korea It examines many of the emerging as well as established themes and issues in Asian tourism and promotes the development of critical scholarship within Asia to overcome Anglo Western ethnocentrism in tourism studies of the region There is some attention to such familiar concepts as authenticity commoditisation culture heritage and hosts and guests but more especially to the diversification of phenomena which traditionally would not have been included within the parameters of tourism studies retirees and long stays gastronomy family based leisure popular culture and local branding Above all the book addresses and develops a conceptual understanding from a multidisciplinary perspective of the character experiences encounters perceptions and motivations of local national and intra regional tourism rather than basing concepts perspectives emphases and analyses on Western Asian interactions and on transformations in the West In this respect it encourages a shift in emphasis towards Asianising our understanding of Asian tourism This is one of the first volumes on Asian tourism written primarily by Asians and as such provides them with the opportunity to express their concerns interests and priorities rather than depending on the analyses and interpretations of those from outside the region It also enables a deconstruction of the field of tourism studies acknowledging that it is an open ended shifting fluid and complex category of encounters and events generated by the processes of physical mobility

Industrial Heritage Tourism Philip Feifan Xie, 2015-06-02 This book examines the complex interplay between industrial heritage and tourism It serves to stimulate meaningful dialogue about the socioeconomic values of industrial sites and the use of tourism for the growth of the creative economy and to better understand how the collective social memory and local identity connected to these sites have been shaped by different social groups over time The volume presents a conceptual framework underpinned by case studies drawn from Asia North America Australasia and Europe and advocates the creation of mixed use spaces and stakeholder collaboration to develop tourism at industrial heritage sites These theoretical and practical perspectives will be of use to researchers and students of heritage tourism urban and regional planning and tourism marketing

Routledge Handbook of Heritage in Asia Patrick Daly, Tim Winter, 2012-03-29 This Handbook is the first major volume to examine the conservation of Asia's culture and nature in relation to the wider social political and economic forces shaping the region today Throughout Asia rapid economic and social change means the region's heritage is at once under threat and undergoing a revival as never before As societies look forward competing forces ensure they re visit the past and the inherited with the conservation of nature and culture now driven by the broader agendas of identity politics tradition revival rapid development environmentalism and sustainability In response to these new and important trends the twenty three accessible chapters here go beyond sector specific analyses to examine heritage in inter disciplinary and critically engaged terms encompassing the natural and the cultural the tangible and intangible Emerging environmentalisms urban planning identity politics conflict memorialization tourism and biodiversity are among the topics covered here This path breaking volume will be of particular interest to students and scholars working in the fields of heritage tourism archaeology Asian studies geography anthropology development sociology and cultural and postcolonial studies

book offers new approaches and insights into the relationships between heritage tourism and notions of modernity identity building and sustainable development in China It demonstrates that the role of the state politics institutional arrangements and tradition have a considerable impact on perceptions of these notions The volume contributes to current debates on tradition and modernity the study of heritage tourism the negotiated power between stakeholders in tourism planning and policy making and the study of China s society The approach and findings of the book are of value to those interested in the continuities and changes in Chinese society and to graduate students and researchers in tourism cultural studies and China studies

Contemporary Issues in Cultural Heritage Tourism Jamie Kaminski,Angela M Benson,David Arnold,2013-12-13 The perceived quality of a destination s cultural offering has long been a significant factor in determining tourist choices of destination More recently the need to present touristic offerings that include cultural experiences and heritage has become widely recognised that this aspect of the tourism experience is an important differentiator of destinations as well as being amongst the most manageable This has also led to an increase in the management of such experiences through special exhibitions events and festivals as well as through ensuring more routine and controlled access to heritage sites Reflecting the increasing application of cultural heritage as a driver for tourism and development this book provides for the first time a cohesive volume on the subject that is theoretically rich practically applied and empirically grounded Written by expert scholars and practitioners in the field the book covers a broad range of theoretical perspectives of cultural heritage tourism regeneration policy stakeholders marketing socio economic development impacts sustainability volunteering and ICT It takes a broad view integrating international examples of sites monuments as well as intangible cultural heritage motor vehicle heritage events and modern art museums This significant book furthers knowledge of the theory and application of tourism within the context of cultural heritage and will be of interest to students researchers and practitioners in a range of disciplines

Navigating Polyvocal Heritage in a Postcolonial Cultural Landscape Joëlla van Donkersgoed,2025-09-30 This book explores the complex histories and heritage of the Banda Islands in Indonesia By interweaving oral traditions with colonial and archaeological records it examines polyvocality in heritage interpretation and the central role of communities in shaping their cultural landscapes The book provides a polyvocal approach to heritage studies blending historical narratives cultural landscape analysis and postcolonial critique It provides insights into the resilience of Bandanese traditions the challenges of heritage management and strategies for inclusive conservation Through the case study of Fort Nassau on the Banda Islands the book delivers a nuanced framework for understanding and preserving the complex polyvocal realities of postcolonial cultural landscapes Navigating Polyvocal Heritage in a Postcolonial Cultural Landscape will be of value to researchers and students in history archaeology heritage studies area studies and postcolonial studies It is also relevant to heritage professionals policymakers and institutions involved in cultural heritage management and conservation particularly those interested in working with community based heritage approaches

Hospitality and Tourism Norzuwana

Sumarjan,Zahari Mohd Salehuddin Mohd,Radzi Salleh Mohd,Mohi Zurinawati,Hanafiah Mohd Hafiz Mohd,Bakhtiar Mohd Faez Saiful,Zainal Artinah,Saiful Bakhtiar,Mohd Hafiz,Mohd Hanafiah,2013-11-18 Hospitality and Tourism Synergizing creativity and innovation in research contains 116 accepted papers from the International Hospitality and Tourism Postgraduate Conference 2013 Shah Alam Malaysia 2 3 September 2013 The book presents trends and practical ideas in the area of hospitality and tourism and is divided into the sections below Cultural Heritage and Tourism Dallen J. Timothy,2020-12-03 Cultural heritage is one of the most important tourism resources in the world This book provides a comprehensive theoretical overview and applied knowledge of the issues practices current debates concepts and management concerns associated with cultural heritage based tourism The second edition has been updated to include timely and emerging topics such as geopolitics conflict solidarity tourism overtourism and climate change It also expands on important areas such as environmental change technology social media heritage economics Indigenous knowledge and co created experiences This edition includes up to date data statistics references case material figures and pedagogical tools It remains an important and accessible text for undergraduate and postgraduate students of cultural and heritage tourism cultural resource management and museum management World Heritage, Tourism and Identity Laurent Bourdeau,Maria Gravari-Barbas,2016-03-09 The remarkable success of the 1972 UNESCO Convention Concerning the Protection of World Cultural and Natural Heritage is borne out by the fact that nearly 1 000 properties have now been designated as possessing Outstanding Universal Value and recognition given to the imperative for their protection However the remarkable success of the Convention is not without its challenges and a key issue for many Sites relates to the touristic legacies of inscription For many sites inscription on the World Heritage List acts as a promotional device and the management challenge is one of protection conservation and dealing with increased numbers of tourists For other sites designation has not brought anticipated expansion in tourist numbers and associated investments What is clear is that tourism is now a central concern to the wide array of stakeholders involved with World Heritage Sites
