Herky Jerky Kevin Kearney:

Herky Jerky Kevin Kearney, 2015-11-25 Who's going to come to your rescue after you've been shot, robbed of 80,000 and left to cure like jerky in the Mojave Desert? If you're hapless surfer and rookie real estate agent Danny Collins, your only hope is Carla Pereira, a mystery woman fresh out of prison and the owner of the car you borrowed to run the little errand that's gotten you into such big trouble. Intrigued by the possibility of a payday of her own, Carla concocts a risky plan to rip off Danny's assailant, DeWayne Oakes, a violent bodybuilder and wannabe male dancer who won't find Carla as easy to handle as Danny. Fast-paced and wickedly funny, Herky Jerky is a killer thrill ride across a California landscape peopled by a zany cast of dreamers and schemers all trying to disprove the notion that crime doesn't pay.

Countdown to Z-Day Kevin Kearney, 2017-10-10 When Nico and Tony Connoles are paid a surprise late night visit at their seaside fish market by a drop-dead gorgeous stranger named Gina Quattro and two thugs from the Maladago crime family, they get a surprise that stuns them. And it isn't the stiff that the mobsters hustle into the back of the fish market for the Connoles to dispose of; the brothers have performed that little favor at least a dozen times over the years. What staggers them is the gangsters' demand that they come up with 100,000, which the Maladagos claim the boys owe them for shorting them on the cut of profits they're supposed to pay each month. And they have five days to do it. The ultimatum sets in motion a caper plot that follows the clueless brothers as they plan a daring robbery of the cash counting room of a struggling beachside amusement park during a Zombie Invasion promotion, the Z Day of the title. Anyone coming to the park made up as a zombie that day will receive tickets for three free rides. A parallel plot follows the relationship between Andrew Bagley, a mildly autistic 20-year-old who roams the park's midway as the Smiles Ambassador and his protector Chuy Galvan, a tough guy with a soft heart. The two plot threads intersect late on Z Day when a gang of robbers made up like the hundreds of sham zombies surging through the amusement park break into the counting room, steal the weekend's receipts, and take a young female security guard hostage. The only one standing between the gang and a getaway is a pudgy 20-year-old park mascot.
