The Hero's Mortal Walls William F. Woods, 2024-01-04 The heroes of early narrative are the faces of an older world In constant retellings their stories hold the memory like members of an extended family Gilgamesh Odysseus Beowulf Gawain Roland Yvain Genji in their colorful often exaggerated ways they show how the people of their own time and place liked to know themselves The heroes embody their identity and reflect their culture Because their world was difficult and dangerous every hero needed defensive strengths This book analyzes seven iconic heroes and compares each champion to a walled town or castle hardened against an outer threat These defenses are the mortal walls of their identity their strengths against the world as well as their dealings within it and are exemplified in their actions as warriors distinct rhetoric complex relationships with women and devotion to the divine By delving into some of early narrative s most renowned heroes the book reveals the pieces of their inner selves that even they cannot keep outside the walls but must finally accept with firm humility      Fictions of Desire Stephen Snyder, 2000-05-01 Stephen Snyder examines Kafka's fiction in terms of narrative strategy placing him squarely within some of the most important currents of literary modernism at the nexus of Naturalism and the largely antithetical development of the modernist reflexive novel      A Forbidden Desire Robyn Donald, 2011-07-15 A scorching seduction Jacinta knew as soon as Paul McAlpine opened his front door that she shouldn't stay Gerard had warned her not to fall for Paul his cousin during her visit to Waitapu New Zealand But she already had ten months ago She'd kept her distance then determined not to give into the compelling attraction she'd felt for this man Now she faced spending a long hot summer in Paul's company How on earth was she going to deny their mutual sizzling desire      From Phenomenology to Thought, Errancy, and Desire Babette Babich, 1995-10-31 For both continental and analytic styles of philosophy the thought of Martin Heidegger must be counted as one of the most important influences in contemporary philosophy In this book essays by internationally noted scholars ranging from David B Allison to Slavoj Žižek honour the interpretive contributions of William J Richardson's pathbreaking Heidegger Through Phenomenology to Thought The essays move from traditional phenomenology to the idea of essential another thinking the questions of translation and existential expressions of the turn of Heidegger's thought the intersection of politics and language the philosophic significance of Jacques Lacan and several essays on science and technology All show the influence of Richardson's first study A valuable emphasis appears in Richardson's interpretation of Heidegger's conception of die Irre interpreted as Errancy set in its current locus in a discussion of Heidegger's debacle with the political in his involvement with National Socialism      Women, Desire, and Power in Italian Cinema M. Cottino-Jones, 2010-02-15 Women Desire and Power in Italian Cinema offers for the first time in Italian Cinema criticism a contextual study of the representation of women in twentieth century Italian films Marga Cottino Jones argues that the ways women are depicted on screen reflects a subconscious sexual conservatism typical of an Italian society rooted within a patriarchal ideology The book then follows the slow but constant process of social awareness in the Italian society through women in film especially after the 1950s Comprehensive in scope this book analyzes the films of internationally known male and female directors such as Antonioni Fellini Rossellini Visconti Bertolucci Benigni Cavani Wertmüller Comencini and Archibugi Special consideration is given to the actresses and actors that have become the icons of Italian femininity and masculinity such as Sofia Loren Gina Lollobrigida Silvana Mangano Gian Carlo Giannini Marcello Mastroianni and Alberto Sordi      Journeys of Desire Alastair

Phillips, Ginette Vincendeau, 2019-07-25 A comprehensive guide to European actors in American film this book brings together 15 chapters with A Z entries on over 900 individuals It includes case studies of prominent individuals and phenomena associated with the emigres such as the stereotyping of European actresses in bad women roles and the irony of Jewish actors playing Nazis Brightest Heaven of Invention Peter J. Leithart, 1996 Shakespeare was as Caesar says of Cassius a great observer able to see and depict patterns of events and character He understood how politics is shaped by the clash of men with various colorings of self interest and idealism how violence breeds violence how fragile human beings create masks and disguises for protection how schemers do the same for advancement how love can grow out of hate and hate out of love Dare anyone say that these insights are irrelevant to living in the real world For many in an older generation the Bible and the Collected Shakespeare were the two indispensable books and thus their sense of life and history was shaped by the best and best told stories And they were the wiser for it Literature abstracts from the complex events of life just as we all do in everyday life and can reveal patterns that are like the patterns of events in the real world Studying literature can give us sensitivity to those patterns This sensitivity to the rhythm of life is closely connected with what the Bible calls wisdom Domestic Allegories of Political Desire Claudia Tate, 1992 This study aims to uncover the political significance of black women's domestic fiction in the post Reconstruction period The author's cultural analysis draws upon a range of texts including works by Harriet Wilson Pauline Hopkins Katherine Tillman and Zora Neale Merry Murderers Zsófia Anna Toth, 2011-07-12 This book explores the different trends and the various changes in the representational history of femmes fatales within twentieth century American culture While providing precedents discussing the Western cultural history of this iconic female figure as well as presenting the cultural and theoretical debates surrounding her the major focus lies in Maurine Dallas Watkins's story entitled Chicago and how its diachronic and transmedial revivals contributed to this debate and what kind of an interpretation it provided of the lethal woman Through a cultural historical literary and cinematic excavation this book argues that the story of Chicago produces a unique kind of deathly woman figure the farcical femme fatale by combining the traditionally tragic aspects with comic modes of discourse and representation In addition to the theorization of the femme fatale within Western culture the discussion of the comic as well as various comic genres and comic strategies of representation Mikhail Bakhtin's theory of the carnival and the carnivalesque is discussed in great detail with an emphasis on scapegoating as well as Judith Butler's concept of gender performativity and Joan Riviere's womanly masquerade in order to understand how the farcical femmes fatales of Chicago manage to get away with their sins and crimes Additionally the Vice of sixteenth century drama as well as the figure of the homme fatale are also taken under scrutiny since it is argued that in the various versions of Chicago we encounter farcical femmes fatales who are the minions of a modernized Vice figure and all their comic grotesque performances and masquerades take place in the heterotopic space of the carnival While also examining their historical and cultural contexts the different versions of Chicago are investigated one by one starting from the original Chicago Tribune articles and ending in the 2002 film adaptation This book reveals what strategies can be employed to justify the modification of the traditionally tragic scenario of the femme fatale It is a scholarly work that is informative thorough as well as entertaining Tragedy and Otherness Nicholas Ray,2009 This book presents a new account of the complex relationship between psychoanalytic theory and the key tragic dramas by Sophocles and Shakespeare in which it has often sought exemplars and prototypes Examining the close historical and theoretical connections between Freud s interpretative appeal to tragic drama and his professed abandonment of the seduction hypothesis in 1897 the author explores the ways in which otherness has subsequently been simplified out of both psychoanalytic theory and the dramatic texts it endeavours to comprehend Drawing on Jean Laplanche s critical reformulation of the seduction theory the book offers close rereadings of Oedipus Tyrannus Julius Caesar and Hamlet in order to outline an approach to tragedy which takes account of the constitutive priority of the other in the itinerary of the tragic subject By reopening the theme of seduction in relation to these key literary dramas the book aims to generate a better understanding both of the function which psychoanalysis has called upon tragedy to perform and the radical modes of otherness within tragedy for which psychoanalysis has hitherto remained unable to account Harlequin Desire

Desire and Consent in Representations of Adolescent Sexuality with Adults Maureen Turim,Diane Waldman,2023-10-02 This book presents an innovative comparative view of how the issue of adolescent sexuality and consent is differently treated in various media Analyzing teenage sexual encounters with adults across a variety of media including films television novels and podcasts the volume takes a positive stance on the expression of teenage sexuality while remaining sensitive to the power of adults to abuse and manipulate The anthology treats these representations as negotiations between conflicting forces desire sexual self knowledge unequal power and the law the latter both actual legal statutes and internalized law in the philosophical and psychoanalytic sense Questions of unequal power inherent in such relations are theorized The authors examine variations of this configuration of sexual relations between teenagers and adults from different perspectives to consider how various forms of expression rework it formally These essays are attuned to both

Race and the Subject of Masculinities Harry Stecopoulos, Michael Uebel, 1997 Although in recent years scholars have explored the cultural construction of masculinity they have largely ignored the ways in which masculinity intersects with other categories of identity particularly those of race and ethnicity The essays in Race and the Subject of Masculinities address this concern and focus on the social construction of masculinity black white ethnic gay and straight in terms of the often complex and dynamic relationships among these inseparable categories Discussing a wide range of subjects including the inherent homoeroticism of martial arts cinema the relationship between working class ideologies and Elvis impersonators the emergence of a gay black masculine aesthetic in the works of James Van der Zee and Robert Mapplethorpe and the comedy of Richard Pryor Race and the Subject of Masculinities provides a variety of opportunities for thinking about how race sexuality and manhood are reinforced and reconstituted in today's society Editors Harry Stecopoulos and Michael Uebel have gathered together essays that make clear how the formation of masculine identity is never as obvious as it might seem to be Examining personas as varied as Eddie Murphy Bruce Lee Tarzan Malcolm X and Andre the Giant these essays draw on feminist critique and queer theory to demonstrate how cross identification through performance and spectatorship among men of different races and cultural backgrounds has served to redefine masculinity in contemporary culture By taking seriously the role of race in the making of men Race and the Subject of Masculinities offers an important challenge to the new studies of masculinity Contributors Herman Beavers Jonathan Dollimore Richard Dyer Robin D G Kelly Christopher Looby Leerom Medovoi Eric Lott Deborah E McDowell Jos E Mu oz Harry Stecopoulos Yvonne Tasker Michael Uebel Gayle Wald Robyn Wiegman
