During the past decade, the use of the Internet has increased dramatically. The Internet has become a major source of information for many people, and it has also become a major source of entertainment. The Internet has changed the way we live, work, and play. It has made it easier for us to communicate with each other, to find information, and to do many things that we could not do before. The Internet has also made it easier for us to do things that we did not want to do. For example, we can now shop online, which means that we do not have to go to a store. We can also watch movies online, which means that we do not have to go to a movie theater. The Internet has made our lives easier in many ways, but it has also made our lives more complicated. We now have to deal with a lot of information, and we have to learn how to use the Internet. We also have to be careful of what we do online, because there are many dangers. The Internet is a double-edged sword, and we need to know how to use it properly.

Synthetic chemical fertilizers are common, but they are not the only way to get plants to grow. In fact, many gardeners prefer to use natural fertilizers, such as compost, manure, and fish emulsion. These fertilizers are made from natural materials and are often more effective than synthetic fertilizers. They also provide a wide range of nutrients to the plants, including nitrogen, phosphorus, and potassium. In addition, natural fertilizers are often more environmentally friendly than synthetic fertilizers, as they do not contain harmful chemicals. However, natural fertilizers can be more expensive and may require more frequent application. Overall, natural fertilizers are a good option for gardeners who want to use environmentally friendly products and provide their plants with a wide range of nutrients.

Soldiers and Students Rob Kroes, 2023-08-18 Soldiers and Students 1975 adopts an original approach to the confrontation of deprived and possessing parties under conditions of scarcity With reference to the course of conflict the actions of the competing parties are shown to be interlinked yet the difference between their strategies are clearly defined Right wing radicalism is treated through a study of military intervention in domestic politics left wing radicalism through analysis of student radicalism The case studies are centred on recent Dutch history but the theoretical perspective underlying the argument is essentially comparative Thus Dutch military responses to the decolonisation of Indonesia serve to illustrate the strategies of a military apparatus on the brink of politicisation radicalism among Dutch students in the sixties offers the empirical reference for the analysis of left wing radicalism

Fragments of the Holocaust David Duindam, 2025-10-01 Why do we attach so much value to sites of Holocaust memory if all we ever encounter are fragments of a past that can never be fully comprehended David Duindam examines how the Hollandsche Schouwburg a former theater in Amsterdam used for the registration and deportation of nearly 50 000 Jews fell into disrepair after World War II before it became the first Holocaust memorial museum of the Netherlands Fragments of the Holocaust The Amsterdam Hollandsche Schouwburg as a Site of Memory combines a detailed historical study of the postwar period of this site with a critical analysis of its contemporary presentation by placing it within international debates concerning memory emotionally fraught heritage and museum studies A case is made for the continued importance of the Hollandsche Schouwburg and other comparable sites arguing that these will remain important in the future as indexical fragments where new generations can engage with the memory of the Holocaust on a personal and affective level The Mathematical Coloring Book Alexander Soifer, 2008-10-13 This is a unique type of book at least I have never encountered a book of this kind The best description of it I can give is that it is a mystery novel developing on three levels and imbued with both educational and philosophical moral issues If this summary description does not help understanding the particular character and allure of the book possibly a more detailed explanation will be found useful One of the primary goals of the author is to interest readers in particular young mathematicians or possibly pre mathematicians in the fascinating world of elegant and easily understandable problems for which no particular mathematical knowledge is necessary but which are very far from being easily solved In fact the prototype of such problems is the following If each point of the plane is to be given a color how many colors do we need if every two points at unit distance are to receive distinct colors More than half a century ago it was established that the least number of colors needed for such a coloring is either 4 or 5 or 6 or 7 Well which is it Despite efforts by a legion of very bright people many of whom developed whole branches of mathematics and solved problems that seemed much harder not a single advance towards the answer has been made This mystery and scores of other similarly simple questions form one level of mysteries explored In doing this the author presents a whole lot of attractive results in an engaging way and with increasing level of depth No Bicycle, No Bus, No Job Patrick Bek, 2025-10-01 For working people the cost of getting to work in terms of time and expense is a crucial aspect of daily life In the twentieth century people's opportunity to travel increased This did not however apply to everyone The absence of affordable housing near job locations combined with the lack of safe efficient and affordable mobility options aggravated social exclusion for some No Bicycle No Bus No Job details how power relations have historically enabled or restricted workers mobility in twentieth century Netherlands Blue collar workers industrial employers and the state shaped workers everyday commute in a changing playing field of uneven power relations that shifted from paternalism to neo liberalism Studies Presented at Varna International Sociological Association Conference 1970 ,1971 Dutch Neorealism, Cinema, and the Politics of Painting, 1927-1945 Stephanie Lebas Huber, 2024-08-12 This study offers a radically new perspective on Dutch Neorealism one that emphasizes the role of film as an apparatus the effects of which when emulated in painting can reproduce the affective experience of film watching More of a tendency than a tightly defined style or ism Neorealism is the Dutch variant of Magic Realism an uncanny mode of figurative painting identified with Neue Sachlichkeit in Germany and Novecento in Italy Best represented by the Dutch artists Pyke Koch Carel Willink Charley Toorop Raoul Hynckes Dick Ket and Wim Schuhmacher Neorealism as demonstrated in this book depicted societal disintegration and allegories of looming disaster in reaction to the rise of totalitarian regimes and eventually the Nazi Occupation of The Netherlands The degree to which these artists exhibited either revolutionary or reactionary sentiments usually corresponding with their political affiliation is one of the central problematics explored in this text The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history World War II history and film studies The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Search for New Guinea's Boundaries Paul W. Van der Veur,2012-12-06 The paucity of published material on the borders of New Guinea and the international significance of the Irian boundary led me to bring together the information I had gathered over the past few years Ideally a book of this kind should cover the subject in its total historical and geographical context The aim of this work is more modest it intends merely to throw some light on the birth and development of New Guinea s boundaries With this purpose in mind after an introductory chapter attention is given to the historical events leading up to the parti tion of New Guinea among three European powers In subsequent chapters the development of the boundaries between the various parts of the island is discussed It is realized that this approach may tend to convey the impression that each particular border is in some way unique This however is not intended and it is hoped that the reader will recognize some of the common underlying themes and problems which are given attention in the introductory and concluding chapters It was intended originally to present in a brief appendix those docu ments which define the borders It soon appeared desirable to include also the unpublished records of more recent border conferences and relevant correspondence leading up to the actual treaties exchange of notes Orders in Council or as the case might be lack of action

Confronting Memories of World War II Daniel Chirot, Gi-Wook Shin, Daniel Sneider, 2014-04-01 The legacy of the Second World War has been like the war itself an international phenomenon In both Europe and Asia common questions of criminality guilt and collaboration have intersected with history and politics on the local level to shape the way that wartime experience has been memorialized reinterpreted and used By directly comparing European and Asian legacies Confronting Memories of World War II provides unique insight into the way that World War II continues to influence contemporary attitudes and politics on a global scale The collection brings together experts from a variety of disciplines and perspectives to explore the often overlooked commonalities between European and Asian handling of memories and reflections about guilt These commonalities suggest new understandings of the war s legacy and the continuing impact of historical trauma

Battleground Western Europe Beatrice de Graaf, Ben de Jong, Wies Platje, 2007 This book throws light on a lesser known aspect of the history of Western Europe and looks at Germany and the Netherlands as the terrain on which some crucial intelligence battles were fought throughout the last century Beatrice de Graaf is a historian and assistant professor at the Center for Terrorism and Counterterrorism at Leiden University in the Hague the Netherlands Ben de Jong is a historian and lecturer at the Department of Russian and East European studies at the University of Amsterdam the Netherlands Wies Platje is a retired lieutenant commander of the Royal Dutch Navy with a long career in the Netherlands Navy Intelligence Service

Sax Expat Con Chapman, 2025-04-15 Don Byas 1913 1972 may be lesser known than the counterparts he played with Count Basie Duke Ellington and Dizzy Gillespie among others but he was an enigma He never stayed with a band for long and eventually went solo partly to make more money and partly due to his inability to work with bandleaders Often drinking to excess alcohol fueled his sometimes erratic behavior on and off the bandstand He went through at least thirteen different groups in fifteen years of professional play before leaving for Europe in 1946 Despite his fractious personality in Europe he found peace and contentment as a family man in the Netherlands where he lived out his days with his second wife and their four children He learned at least seven languages during his years in Europe and on traveling to a new country could pick up a few phrases in short order soon speaking to the locals and even composing songs in their native tongue In Sax Expat Don Byas author Con Chapman argues that Byas s relative obscurity arises from his choice to live in Europe where he missed out on recording opportunities and exposure in the US that would have made him renowned and wealthier His numerous achievements including his solo on Count Basie s Harvard Blues which is a model of restrained invention his interpretation of the sentimental movie theme Laura and his duets with bassist Slam Stewart were included in the Smithsonian Collection of Classic Jazz and secured Byas s place in jazz history This biography brings to life an amazing jazz story

The Fighter of Auschwitz Erik Brouwer, 2023-08-17 A SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLER He had the dream again last night He taps the gloves of his unbeaten Polish opponent There are rumours that the loser will be sent to the gas chamber In 1943 the Dutch champion boxer Leen Sanders was sent to Auschwitz His wife and children were put to death while he was sent to the left with the others who were fit enough for labour Recognised by an SS officer he was earmarked for a privileged post in the kitchens in exchange for weekly boxing matches for the entertainment of the Nazi guards From there he enacted his resistance to their limitless cruelty With great risk and danger to his own life Leen stole concealed and smuggled food and clothing from SS nursing units for years to alleviate the unbearable suffering of the prisoners in need He also regularly supplied extra food to the Dutch women in Dr Mengele s experiment Block 10 To his fellow Jews in the camp he acted as a rescuer leader and role model defending them even on their bitter death march to Dachau towards the end of the war A story of astonishing resilience and compassion The Fighter of Auschwitz is a testament to the endurance of humanity in the face of extraordinary evil
