Home With Fun Home With Fun:

Fun Home Alison Bechdel, 2007 A fresh and brilliantly told memoir from a cult favorite comic artist marked by gothic twists a family funeral home sexual angst and great books This breakout book by Alison Bechdel is a darkly funny family tale pitch perfectly illustrated with Bechdel's sweetly gothic drawings Like Marjane Satrapi's Persepolis it's a story exhilaratingly suited to graphic memoir form Meet Alison's father a historic preservation expert and obsessive restorer of the family's Victorian home a third generation funeral home director a high school English teacher an icily distant parent and a closeted homosexual who as it turns out is involved with his male students and a family babysitter Through narrative that is alternately heartbreaking and fiercely funny we are drawn into a daughter's complex yearning for her father And yet apart from assigned stints dusting caskets at the family owned fun home as Alison and her brothers call it the relationship achieves its most intimate expression through the shared code of books When Alison comes out as homosexual herself in late adolescence the denouement is swift graphic and redemptive

Arresting Development Christopher Pizzino, 2016-09-06 Mainstream narratives of the graphic novel's development describe the form's coming of age its maturation from pulp infancy to literary adulthood In Arresting Development Christopher Pizzino questions these established narratives arguing that the medium's history of censorship and marginalization endures in the minds of its present day readers and crucially its authors Comics and their writers remain burdened by the stigma of literary illegitimacy and the struggles for status that marked their earlier history Many graphic novelists are intensely aware of both the medium's troubled past and their own tenuous status in contemporary culture Arresting Development presents case studies of four key works Frank Miller's Batman: The Dark Knight Returns Alison Bechdel's Fun Home Charles Burns's Black Hole and Gilbert Hernandez's Love and Rockets exploring how their authors engage the problem of comics cultural standing Pizzino illuminates the separation of high and low culture art and pulp and sophisticated appreciation and vulgar consumption as continual influences that determine the limits of literature the status of readers and the value of the very act of reading The Graphic Lives of Fathers Mihaela Precup, 2020-02-21 This book explores the representation of fatherhood in contemporary North American autobiographical comics that depict paternal conduct from the post war period up to the present It offers equal space to autobiographical comics penned by daughters who represent their fathers complicated and often disappointing behavior and to works by male cartoonists who depict and usually celebrate their own experiences as fathers This book asks questions about how the desire to forgive or be forgiven can compromise the authors ethics or dictate style considers the ownership of life stories whose subjects cannot or do not agree to be represented and investigates the pervasive and complicated effects of dominant masculinities By close reading these cartoonists complex strategies of self representation this volume also places photography and archival work alongside the problematic legacy of self deprecation carried on from underground comics and shows how the vocabulary of graphic narration can work with other media and at the intersection of various genres and modes to produce a valuable scrutiny of
