Echoes of a Voice James W. Sire, 2014-04-21 Early evening a young boy alone on his pony on the rim of the Nebraska Sandhills Three darkening thunderclouds rising higher and higher on the horizon An electric atmosphere a quickening light cooling breeze A slight shiver and the boy wonders Am I being pursued by the Father the Son and the Holy Ghost These sudden unbidden unexpected strange experiences We all have them What are they Mere plucking on the emotional strings of our material selves Or do they have a deeper meaning Do they signal the Presence of something other maybe some Other maybe some one Other some thing or some one above below beyond our normal waking consciousness James W Sire has studied a massive number of these accounts He pairs them with his own experiences and turns to scientists philosophers and theologians for explanation These experiences he concludes are signals of transcendence or what N T Wright calls echoes of a voice the voice of Jesus calling us to follow him into God s new world This book is an account of the author s journey to this conclusion

Cross-Language Relations in Composition Bruce Horner, Min-Zhan Lu, Paul Kei Matsuda, 2010-05-09 Cross Language Relations in Composition brings together the foremost scholars in the fields of composition second language writing education and literacy studies to address the limitations of the tacit English only policy prevalent in composition pedagogy and research and to suggest changes for the benefit of writing students and instructors throughout the United States Recognizing the growing linguistic diversity of students and faculty the ongoing changes in the English language as a result of globalization and the increasingly blurred categories of native foreign and second language English speakers editors Bruce Horner Min Zhan Lu and Paul Kei Matsuda have compiled a groundbreaking anthology of essays that contest the dominance of English monolingualism in the study and teaching of composition and encourage the pursuit of approaches that embrace multilingualism and cross language writing as the norm for teaching and research The nine chapters comprising part 1 of the collection focus on the origins of the English only bias dominating U S composition classes and present alternative methods of teaching and research that challenge this monolingualism In part 2 nine composition teachers and scholars representing a variety of theoretical institutional and professional perspectives propose new compelling and concrete ways to understand and teach composition to students of a global plural English a language evolving in a multilingual world Drawing on recent theoretical work on genre complexity performance and identity as well as postcolonialism Cross Language Relations in Composition offers a radically new approach to composition teaching and research one that will prove invaluable to all who teach writing in today s multilingual college classroom The Publishers Weekly, 1905

Globalization and the Post-Creole Imagination Patricia Marie Northover, Michaeline Crichlow, 2009-07-07 An interdisciplinary argument that the concept of cultural creolization must be expanded to encompass cultural productions by vulnerable populations living in situations of modern power inequalities anywhere in the world American Book Publishing Record, 2005

Ways of Curating Hans Ulrich Obrist, 2014-03-27 Drawing on his own experiences and inspirations from staging his first exhibition in his tiny Zurich kitchen in 1986 to encounters and conversations with artists exhibition makers and thinkers alive and dead Hans Ulrich Obrist s Ways of Curating looks to inspire all those engaged in the creation of culture Moving from meetings with the artists who have inspired him including Gerhard Richter and Gilbert and George to the creation of the first public museums in the 18th century recounting the practice of inspirational figures such as

Diaghilev and Walter Hopps skipping between exhibitions his own and others continents and centuries Ways of Curating argues that curation is far from a static practice Driven by curiosity at its best it allows us to create the future Cultural Grammars of Nation, Diaspora, and Indigeneity in Canada Christine Kim, Sophie McCall, Melina Baum Singer, 2012-05-09 Cultural Grammars of Nation Diaspora and Indigeneity in Canada considers how the terms of critical debate in literary and cultural studies in Canada have shifted with respect to race nation and difference In asking how Indigenous and diasporic interventions have remapped these debates the contributors argue that a new cultural grammar is at work and attempt to sketch out some of the ways it operates The essays reference pivotal moments in Canadian literary and cultural history and speak to ongoing debates about Canadian nationalism postcolonialism migrancy and transnationalism Topics covered include the Asian race riots in Vancouver in 1907 the cultural memory of internment and dispersal of Japanese Canadians in the 1940s the politics of migrant labour and the domestic labour scheme in the 1960s and the trial of Robert Pickton in Vancouver in 2007 The contributors are particularly interested in how diaspora and indigeneity continue to contribute to this critical reconfiguration and in how conversations about diaspora and indigeneity in the Canadian context have themselves been transformed Cultural Grammars is an attempt to address both the interconnections and the schisms between these multiply fractured critical terms as well as the larger conceptual shifts that have occurred in response to national and postnational arguments The Americas Kimberly J. Morse, 2022-08-23 This two volume encyclopedia profiles the contemporary culture and society of every country in the Americas from Canada and the United States to the islands of the Caribbean and the many countries of Latin America From delicacies to dances this encyclopedia introduces readers to cultures and customs of all of the countries of the Americas explaining what makes each country unique while also demonstrating what ties the cultures and peoples together The Americas profiles the 40 nations and territories that make up North America Central America the Caribbean and South America including British U S Dutch and French territories Each country profile takes an in depth look at such contemporary topics as religion lifestyle and leisure cuisine gender roles dress festivals music visual arts and architecture among many others while also providing contextual information on history politics and economics Readers will be able to draw cross cultural comparisons such as between gender roles in Mexico and those in Brazil Coverage on every country in the region provides readers with a useful compendium of cultural information ideal for anyone interested in geography social studies global studies and anthropology Non-Western Identity Byron G. Adams, Fons J. R. van de Vijver, 2022-02-02 Identity is a construct strongly rooted and still predominantly studied in Western or WEIRD Western educated industrialized rich and democratic contexts e g North American and Western European Only recently has there been more of a conscious effort to study identity in non Western or non WEIRD contexts This edited volume investigates identity from primarily a non Western perspective by studying non Western contexts and non Western minority or immigrant groups living in Western contexts The contributions a examine different aspects of identity e g personal identity social identity online identity as either independent or interrelated constructs b consider the associations of these constructs with aspects of intergroup relations acculturative processes and or psychological well being c document the advancement in research on identity in underrepresented groups contexts and regions such as Africa Asia Eastern Europe the Middle East and South America and d evaluate different approaches to the study of identity and the implications thereof This book is intended for cultural or cross cultural academics practitioners educators social workers postgraduate students undergraduate students and scholars interested in studying identity It provides insight into how identity in non Western groups and contexts may both be informed by and may inform Western theoretical perspectives The English-speaking World ,1929 Going Down John St. Robert,2001 Exciting fiction full of doubles double dealing and double crossing Focuses on identical twin sisters one honest the other deceptive and prominent judge who drowns mysteriously Drug trafficking in Twin Cities Bahamas and Canada involved along with Mideast opium Cop and reporter uncle are heroes of international drug bust and help arrest slippery woman doctor who is an Olympic swimmer along with CEOs of large corporations Class Interruptions Robin Brooks,2021-12-20 As downward mobility continues to be an international issue Robin Brooks offers a timely intervention between the humanities and social sciences by examining how Black women s cultural production engages debates about the growth in income and wealth gaps in global society during the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries Using an interdisciplinary approach this innovative book employs major contemporary texts by both African American and Caribbean writers Toni Morrison Gloria Naylor Dawn Turner Olive Senior Oonya Kempadoo Merle Hodge and Diana McCaulay to demonstrate how neoliberalism within the broader framework of racial capitalism reframes structural inequalities as personal failures thus obscuring how to improve unjust conditions Through interviews with authors textual analyses of the fiction and a diagramming of cross class relationships Brooks offers compelling new insight on literary portrayals of class inequalities and division She expands the scope of how the Black women s literary tradition since the 1970s has been conceptualized by repositioning the importance of class and explores why the imagination matters as we think about novel ways to address long standing and simultaneously evolving issues In a New Land Nancy Foner,2005-08 According to the 2000 census more than 10% of U S residents were foreign born together with their American born children this group constitutes one fifth of the nation s population Zachary Macaulay 1768-1838 Rev Iain Whyte,2011-10-03 The first biography of Zachary Macaulay the engineer of the anti slavery movement in Britain He was never an orator or organiser of meetings but through careful research and publication of the facts providing the vital resources for the parliamentary and public campaign Education Across the African Diaspora Derron Wallace,Kassie Freeman,Ernest Morrell,Henry Levin,2023-12-05 This book examines the opportunities orientations and outcomes that shape education for Black people across time place and space throughout the African diaspora It bridges gaps in education studies and African diaspora studies noting the connections between these two formative fields as central to a fuller understanding of the history and futurity of African descendants around the world The chapters in this volume showcase the work of scholars across disciplinary boundaries national contexts and methodological expertise all of whom are deeply concerned with education for Black children young people and adults from critical perspectives Crucially this volume explores the social political psychic and material dimensions of education for Black people within the African diaspora as already part of a larger global phenomenon linking the national and the international the local and the global for a more comprehensive understanding of the past present and future of education for people of African descent around the world Education Across the African Diaspora will be a key resource for scholars and researchers of education studies African diaspora studies education history African studies black studies ethnic studies and sociology This book was originally published as a special issue of Peabody Journal of Education Cruising World ,1981-07 Cruising World ,1982-01 Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L.
