Assessing Students with Special Needs to Produce Quality Outcomes Carol A. Layton, Robin Hartman Lock, 2008 Assessing Students with Special Needs to Produce Quality Outcomes promotes outcome based evaluation to guide the Multidisciplinary Team MDT in selecting appropriate Individualized Education Program IEP goals classroom modifications and accommodations as well as optimal instructional strategies It advances the development of assessment based IEPs to enable the MDT to pinpoint and address specific needs to improve student outcomes Obtaining data from a variety of perspectives and settings improves the opportunity for identifying overall competencies and needs in preparation for higher functioning in all settings Assessing Students with Special Needs to Produce Quality Outcomes presents an integrated look at a variety of assessment methods in an easy to read book FEATURES Recommends student centered strength based assessment techniques by providing reality based stories to aid the reader in understanding how the tools of formal informal and authentic assessment merge to provide a more complete understanding of the student Provides special features for linking IEP development and daily instruction to highlight the fundamental relationship between assessment and the IEP Emphasizes the growing role of technology in the assessment process as identified by IDEA 2004 to utilize assistive technology in evaluation and instruction Includes innovative research based techniques not extensively explored in other assessment textbooks Explains the impact of cultural diversity on assessment issues and provides specific recommendations for addressing nondiscriminatory culturally sensitive evaluation to prepare the reader to meet the needs of a diverse society Proposes authentic strategies to increase parent teacher and student participation in the IEP process as mandated by IDEA 2004 Handbook of Response to Intervention and Multi-Tiered Systems of Support Paige C. Pullen, Michael J. Kennedy, 2018-10-04 Of the many issues facing special education and general education today it is difficult to imagine one more important or timely than response to intervention RTI Almost overnight RTI has become standard practice across the nation Unfortunately RTI remains ill defined falls far short of its evidence based practice goal is almost invariably misused and often results in more harm than good Nevertheless as a conceptual framework RTI has great potential for ensuring that students with disabilities receive appropriate evidence based instruction The mission of this handbook is to present a comprehensive and integrated discussion of response to intervention RTI and its relation to multi tiered systems of support MTSS in both special education and general education Although the two terms are currently used interchangeably distinct differences exist between them Therefore chapters are dedicated to distinguishing the two concepts RTI and MTSS and describing each one s unique role in both general and special education In addition the authors recommend a third term Multi Tiered Instruction to differentiate the practices related to the purpose of the specific intervention Enhancing Instructional Problem Solving John C. Begeny, Ann C. Schulte, Kent Johnson, 2012-05-25 This book presents a schoolwide model of instructional support designed to make the most of available time resources and personnel one that is also fully compatible with other problem solving models such as response to intervention The authors provide a comprehensive and cohesive framework for linking assessment and intervention They show how to interweave evidence based instruction with targeted professional development and other components that support improved learning outcomes for all K 8 students Helpful tables describe dozens of research based assessments and interventions in reading writing and math In a large size format to facilitate photocopying the volume includes more than 20 reproducible worksheets and forms This book is in The Guilford Practical Intervention in the Schools Series edited by Sandra M Chafouleas ERS Focus on Curriculum-based Measurement Suzanne Clarke, 2009 Assessing Students with Special Needs John Venn, 2007 Known for its practical applied approach the fourth edition of John Venn s Assessing Student s with Special Needs continues to focus on how teachers can use assessment as a guide to instruction This noteworthy revision focuses on what teachers really need to know to include assessment in the curriculum Coverage includes all of the core information expected of an assessment text but the book goes far beyond the basics by addressing multicultural considerations technology and assessment high stakes testing and the reauthorization of IDEA The book clearly shows how assessment is more than giving a test to a child but is an essential tool for teachers as they help students achieve learn develop and grow Assessment of Exceptional Students Ronald L. Taylor, 2000 Assessment of Exceptional Students Fifth Edition offers a pragmatic approach that emphasizes how both informal and formal procedures fit into the overall assessment process Retaining the major features of previous editions this book details historical legal and philosophical issues as well as current concerns in the field It provides up to date coverage of assessment instruments techniques and procedures that are used with special education students and reviews observation criterion referenced testing curriculum based and portfolio assessment and other alternative procedures In addition to covering the areas of ability assessment achievement testing early childhood assessment and vocational assessment the book also provides readers with a complete chapter and case studies that examine the instruments and techniques for students with both mild and severe disabilities For anyone interested in assessing special education students
