Fiction or Prophecy Angelo Thomas Crapanzano,2017-03-15 The idea for Fiction or Prophecy was born through a casual discussion with a neighbor in the author s family room The discussion was based on the news that one of the terrorists claimed that they were secretly developing a backpack nuclear bomb and planned on bombing ten of our largest city Our officials wrote it off as an idle threat and that they could never get ten nuclear backpacks into the country The neighbor questioned how they could say that when a million Mexicans cross our borders daily with backpacks of drugs weapons and personal items Having been in the scientific field and seeing how electronic technology had exploded during his life time the author had no doubt that it was a matter of time and that terrorist would not hesitate to use it He wonder what would happen if the terrorist was telling the truth This enticed the author to write a novel on this threat Is this novel purely fiction or is it a prediction of what was to come In the novel Mike met Sarah on the road to Chicago She was having auto trouble He stopped to help her Since he couldn t fix it he took her to an auto shop in next town Since her car couldn t be fixed in an acceptable time Mike offered to give her a ride to Chicago This delay saved their lives but also put them on the road of deadly danger
