itself One should not overlook the fact that almost all the peoples of East Asia have achieved not just economic development but indeed new nation building after hundreds of years of colonial submission It is my assertion in this book that even economists analyses of Asian development should pay attention to not only the logos but also the pathos of development in this last half of twentieth century Ever since I became the director of the Center for Southeast Asian Studies at Kyoto University in 1969 I have written extensively in English as well as in Japanese on the various problems arising in the Japanese and other Asian economies
