Telerheumatology Christine Peoples, 2022-07-14 This book details the practice of telerheumatology Telemedicine is defined as the delivery of healthcare and the exchange of healthcare information across distances Following telerheumatology is the delivery of rheumatology care through telemedicine There exists an increasing demand from patients caregivers and healthcare systems for access to academic specialists through telemedicine This has been the case for the past several years and the demand has only increased with the ongoing COVID 19 pandemic There is currently a lack of rheumatologists in rural areas and that is expected to spread to a general lack by 2025 Telerheumatology offers an excellent and timely solution to fill these gaps and provide care Telerheumatology care has been shown to be feasible and quite effective The current COVID 19 pandemic has thrust the concept of telemedicine into the spotlight However not all telerheumatology care is the same and there exists many nuances and differences when examining telerheumatology care across the United States and the world After comprehensively reviewing the origins of telerheumatology this work defines in detail the current practice of telerheumatology along with the specific impact of the COVID 19 pandemic and all applications of telerheumatology Expert authors also provide a detailed roadmap for providers to initiate sustain and grow a telerheumatology program The book concludes by covering future directions of telerheumatology including areas for expansion improvement and innovation After reading this work the editor and all the contributing authors hope that it will inspire provoke thought and discussion and lead to increased adaptation of providing telerheumatology care by rheumatologists and rheumatology providers
