Discrepant Parallels Gillian Roberts,2015-05-01 The 49th parallel has long held a symbolic importance to Canadian cultural nationalists as a strong though permeable border But in contemporary Canadian culture the border has multiple meanings and imbalances of cultural power occur both across the Canada US border as well as within Canada Discrepant

Parallels examines divergent relationships to and investments in the Canada US border in a variety of media such as travel writing fiction poetry drama and television Tracing cultural production in Canada since the 1980s through the periods of FTA and NAFTA negotiations and into the current post 9 11 context Gillian Roberts grapples with the border s changing relevance to Canadian nationalist Indigenous African Canadian and Latin American perspectives Drawing on Kant and Derrida she theorizes the 49th parallel to account for the imbalance of cultural political and economic power between the two countries as well as the current challenges to dominant definitions of Canadianness Focusing on a border that is often overshadowed by the contentious US Mexico divide Discrepant Parallels analyzes the desire to establish Canadian American sameness and difference from a multitude of perspectives as well as its implications for how Canada is represented within and outside its national borders

Cult Film as a Guide to Life I.Q. Hunter, 2016-09-08 Cult Film as a Guide to Life investigates the world and experience of cult films from well loved classics to the worst movies ever made Including comprehensive studies of cult phenomena such as trash films exploitation versions cult adaptations and case studies of movies as different as Showgirls Room 237 and The Lord of the G Strings this lively provocative and original book shows why cult films may just be the perfect guide to making sense of the contemporary world Using his expertise in two fields I Q Hunter also explores the important overlap between cult film and adaptation studies He argues that adaptation studies could learn a great deal from cult and fan studies about the importance of audiences emotional investment not only in texts but also in the relationships between them and how such bonds of caring are structured over time The book s emergent theme is cult film as lived experience With reference mostly to American cinema Hunter explores how cultists with their powerful emotional investment in films care for them over time and across numerous intertexts in relationships of memory nostalgia and anticipation The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1929
