Crimes of the Art World Thomas D. Bazley Ph.D., 2010-02-26 This book offers a revealing look at the full scope of criminal activity in the art world a category of crime that is far more pervasive than is generally realized Forgeries fakes fencing and felony theft all are pervasive problems in the world of art where the stakes are high the networks wide and the consequences profound In recent years suspicious acquisitions unreliable provenances and shady dealers have found their way into the headlines as museums and private collections have been confronted with everything from fake pieces to stolen antiquities to plain old theft and vandalism Crimes of the Art World captures the full scope of this staggeringly lucrative field of criminal conduct showing how its impact reaches well beyond the walls of the museum Filled with fascinating stories of crime and greed this revealing volume looks at case after case of thefts forgeries fakes and illicit trafficking as well as the political religious victimization of art white collar art crime and vandalism The book examines each type of crime in terms of frequency losses and characteristics of victims and criminals Concluding chapters focus on preventive measures art crime investigation and security issues

The Death of Authentic Primitive Art Shelly Errington, 2023-09-01 In this lucid witty and forceful book Shelly Errington argues that Primitive Art was invented as a new type of art object at the beginning of the twentieth century but that now at the century's end it has died a double but contradictory death Authenticity and primitivism both attacked by cultural critics have died as concepts At the same time the penetration of nation states the tourist industry and transnational corporations into regions that formerly produced these artifacts has severely reduced supplies of primitive art bringing about a second death Errington argues that the construction of the primitive in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and the kinds of objects chosen to exemplify it must be understood as a product of discourses of progress from the nineteenth century European narrative of technological progress to the twentieth century narrative of modernism to the late twentieth century narrative of the triumph of the free market In Part One she charts a provocative argument ranging through the worlds of museums art theorists mail order catalogs boutiques tourism and world events tracing a loosely historical account of the transformations of meanings of primitive art in this century In Part Two she explores an eclectic collection of public sites in Mexico and Indonesia a national museum of anthropology a cultural theme park an airport and a ninth century Buddhist monument newly refurbished to show how the idea of the primitive can be used in the interests of promoting nationalism and economic development Errington's dissection of discourses about progress and primitivism in the contemporary world is both a lively introduction to anthropological studies of art institutions and a dramatic new contribution to the growing field of cultural studies

New Feminist Art Criticism Katy Deepwell, 1995 This text reviews feminist art strategies as they emerged in the late 1980s and early 1990s in America and the UK It draws together the views of prominent practitioners critics academics and curators on a broad range of controversial issues The central focus of the book is feminism's engagement with psychoanalysis and post modernism and its aim of deconstructing the borders between art and craft and theory and practice Feminist politics in the art world are also investigated through discussion of the negotiations of feminist curators responses to feminist exhibitions issues surrounding pornography and the censorship of women's work and the role of feminist teaching on fine art and design degree courses The book covers a variety of art work including installation work painting textiles and photography

Periodization in the Art Historiographies of Central and Eastern Europe Shona Kallestrup, Magdalena Kunińska, Mihnea Alexandru Mihail, Anna Adashinskaya, Cosmin Minea, 2022-06-07 This volume critically investigates how art historians writing about Central and Eastern Europe in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries engaged with periodization At the heart of much of their writing lay the ideological project of nation building Hence discourses around periodization such as the mythicizing of certain periods the invention of historical continuity and the assertion of national specificity contributed strongly to identity construction Central to the book's approach is a transnational exploration of how the art histories of the region not only interacted with established Western periodizations but also resonated and entangled with each other. In their efforts to develop more sympathetic frameworks that refined ignored or hybridized Western models they sought to overcome the centre-periphery paradigm which equated distance from the centre with temporal belatedness and artistic backwardness. The book thus demonstrates that the concept of periodization is far from neutral or strictly descriptive and that its use in art history needs to be reconsidered. Bringing together a broad range of scholars from different European institutions the volume offers a unique new perspective on Central and Eastern European art historiography. It will be of interest to scholars working in art history historiography and European studies. Acclaimed art historian Shifra Goldman here provides the first overview of the social history of modern and contemporary Latin American and Latino art. Long needed in the field of art history this collection of thirty-three essays focuses on Latin American artists throughout Mexico Central and South America the Caribbean and the United States. Goldman's extensive introduction provides an up-to-date chronology of modern Latin American art a history of social art history in the United States and synopses of recent theoretical and historical writings by major scholars from Mexico Cuba Brazil Peru Uruguay Chile and the United States. In her essays Goldman discusses a vast array of topics including the influence of the Mexican muralists on the American continent the political and artistic significance of poster art and printmaking in Cuba Puerto Rico and among Chicanos the role of women artists such as Guatemalan painter Isabel Ruiz and the increasingly important role of politics and multinational businesses in the art world of the 1970s and 1980s. She explores the reception of Latin American and Latino art in the United States focusing on major historical exhibits as well as on exhibits by artists such as Chilean Alfredo Jaar and Argentinian Leandro Katz Finally she examines the significance of nationalist and ethnic themes in Latin American and Latino art Written in a straightforward style equally accessible to specialists students and general audiences this book will become essential reading for anyone interested in understanding the importance of Latin American art and the complex dynamic shaping it      A Companion to Contemporary Art Since 1945 Amelia Jones,2009-02-09 A Companion to Contemporary Art is a major survey covering the major works and movements the most important theoretical developments and the historical social political and aesthetic issues in contemporary art since 1945 primarily in the Euro American context Collects 27 original essays by expert scholars describing the current state of scholarship in art history and visual studies and pointing to future directions in the field Contains dual chronological and thematic coverage of the major themes in the art of our time politics culture wars public space diaspora the artist identity politics the body and visual culture Offers synthetic analysis as well as new approaches to debates central to the visual arts since 1945 such as those addressing formalism the avant garde the role of the artist technology and art and the society of the spectacle      Art Market Research Tom McNulty,2013-12-27 This book is for art market researchers at all levels A brief overview of the global art market and its major stakeholders precedes an analysis of the various sales venues auction commercial gallery etc Library research skills are reviewed and advanced methods are explored in a chapter devoted to basic market research Because the monetary value of artwork cannot be established without reference to the aesthetic qualities and art historical significance of our subject works two substantial chapters detail the processes involved in researching and documenting the fine and decorative arts respectively and provide annotated bibliographies Methods for assigning values for art objects are explored and sources of price data both in print and online are identified and described in detail In recent years art historical scholarship increasingly has addressed issues related to the history of art and its markets a chapter on resources for the historian of the art market offers a wide range of sources Finally provenance and art law are discussed with particular reference to their relevance to dealers collectors artists and other art market stakeholders

Later Byzantine Painting Robert S. Nelson,2024-10-28 Written over nearly three decades the fifteen essays involve the three a s of the title art agency and appreciation The first refers to the general subject matter of the book Byzantine art chiefly painting of the twelfth through the fourteenth centuries the second to its often human like agency and the last to its historical reception Responding to different issues and perspectives that have animated art history and Byzantine studies in recent decades the essays have wide theoretical range from art historical formalism iconography archaeology and its manuscript equivalent codicology to statistics patronage narratology and the histories of science and collecting The series begins with art works themselves and with the imagery and iconography of church decoration and manuscript illumination shifts to the ways that objects act in the world and affect their beholders and concludes with more general appreciations of Byzantine art in case studies from the thirteenth century to the present      Junior High School Library Catalog ,1985

Dante and Byzantium E. D. Karampetsos, 2009      Announcement University of Michigan--Dearborn, 1975      Russian Orientalism in a global context Maria Taroutina, Allison Leigh, 2023-06-27 This volume features new research on Russia's historic relationship with Asia and the ways it was mediated and represented in the fine decorative and performing arts and architecture from the mid eighteenth century to the first two decades of Soviet rule It interrogates how Russia's perception of its position on the periphery of the west and its simultaneous self consciousness as a colonial power shaped its artistic cultural and national identity as a heterogeneous multi ethnic empire It also explores the extent to which cultural practitioners participated in the discursive matrices that advanced Russia's colonial machinery on the one hand and critiqued and challenged it on the other especially in territories that were themselves on the fault lines between the east and the west
