The Other Side of the Report Card Maurice J. Elias, Joseph J. Ferrito, Dominic C. Mocer, 2015-12-14 To better serve the whole child look at the whole report card Although parents and teachers spend more time in conferences talking about behavior than they do about rubrics and test scores too many teachers are still guessing when it comes to using outdated behavior ratings and comments to describe the whole child With this book you ll take report cards to the next level integrating social emotional learning and character development into any grading system Resources include Guided exercises for analyzing existing report cards Suggested report card designs Tips on improving teacher parent communication Case studies Testimonials from teachers and students The Art of Focused Conversation for Schools, Third Edition Jo Nelson, 2013-08-20 Why don t kids learn Why can t students do higher order thinking Why do educators have endless staff meetings with few results How can parents and teachers communicate better The pressure upon educators to teach more to a wider range and number of students with decreasing resources and supports makes it urgent to find tools to answer such questions The Art of Focused Conversation for Schools demonstrates how the Focused Conversation method widely used in organizations and businesses can effectively be used in a K 12 educational setting Each section deals with interactions among students staff and parents and elaborates with over 100 sample conversations designed to make learning more meaningful prevent and solve problems and make communications in meetings more effective Appendices showcase integrated curriculum examples where conversations have been used in unique combinations and list sample questions for each level of the conversation method With a bibliography and index included and patterned after its highly successful predecessor The Art of Focused Conversation 100 Ways to Access Group Wisdom in the Workplace this book will be welcomed by parents students educators and school administrators everywhere The Institute of Cultural Affairs has over 40 years experience in more than 32 nations A unique facilitation research and training organization ICA Canada has provided participatory skills to many thousands of people worldwide Developing Standards-Based Report Cards Thomas R. Guskey, Jane M. Bailey, 2010 Providing a clear framework this volume helps school leaders align assessment and reporting practices with standards based education and develop more detailed reports of children s learning and progress How to Manage Your Kindergarten Classroom Rosalind Thomas, 1995 Contains information activities and examples for the kindergarten classroom teacher The “New” Epidemic- Grading Practices Andre’ Mathews, 2016-03-16 This book is a comprehensive view on the grading practices and policies in American public schools The content of the book identifies the lack of alignment amongst the Federal State and Local Districts and the need to adopt a unified policy Educational institutions are creating their own versions of grading systems that lack integrity flawed in design hinder many students from graduating and or achieving opportunities to become a more productive citizen after high school completion Section I The structure of the book begins with a systemic view of development by identifying the philosophical and theoretical aspects involved in the grading system Section II The authors work then transitions to the structure of the grading system addressing the mathematical aspects of calculating a students grade point average to the teachers validity of grades Section III This section identifies the parents role and need to understand the grade itself and its effect on the students overall outcome and class ranking Section IV The book ends with a strong analysis of the system parental rights examples of educational disasters and schools quest for new grading systems All in all this book takes a journey throughout the entire educational system identifying a need for change on all levels as it relates to the grading system The overall message emphasizes the parents need to be cognizant of the importance of being involved and properly motivating mentoring monitoring modeling and managing their childs educational careers All stakeholders should walk away with a sense of ownership to the problem and an understanding that the time for change is now The ethnic margin is widening and too many students are graduating unmarketable A grade is more than a number its a quality of life Promoting Literacy At-Ris Sharon Query,2020-03-12

About one quarter of the children under the age of six are living in poverty a factor that is highly relevant to school failure It has been estimated that one quarter of the adolescent population is at risk of academic failure and other problem behaviors with another quarter considered moderately at risk School failure and the almost inevitable unemployment or underemployment that follows were among the most serious of these problems This book examines the relationship between protective factors and academic achievement in elementary students Protective factors are individual or environmental safeguards that enhance a youngster s ability to resist stressful life events and promote resilience There are protective factors at work in every system individual family peer school and community Kindergarten Curriculum Guide and Resource Book British Columbia. Schools Department. Curriculum Development Branch,1984 Grade level k t Growing Mathematical Ideas in Kindergarten Linda Schulman Dacey,Rebeka Eston,1999 Grade level k t Multifaceted Assessment for Early Childhood Education Robert J. Wright,2010 Multifaceted Assessment in Early Childhood is ideal for those on upper division undergraduate courses and first level graduate courses in early childhood education assessment The book covers the various measures used in a range of assessment dimensions and includes valuable information regarding young children with special needs and English Language Learners which has rarely been touched upon in other textbooks The chapters are focused on student accessibility and include practical applications of key concepts Features and benefits Covers a range of assessment concepts including Formative uses feedback from learning to adapt teaching Summative i e tests quizzes Authentic focuses on complex deeper tasks Standardized STAR SAT Includes coverage of assessment for English language learners and children with special needs topics that are not provided enough coverage in other books including Wortham McAfee Puckett and Mindes Wright s writing style grabs and engages the reader in the topic Two of our reviewers who use Wortham specifically cited Wright s writing style as a reason they would adopt our book A McAfee reviewer is likely to switch for the same reason Developing Grading and Reporting Systems for Student Learning Thomas R. Guskey,Jane M.

Bailey,2024-07-24 Teachers parents students administrators and community members all agree that we need better grading and reporting systems Often these systems are inadequate because they are part of a tradition that can go unexamined and unquestioned for years Here is the first serious look at the issue written to provide all those involved especially teachers with a coherent and thoughtful framework Guskey and Bailey offer four pillars of successful grading and reporting systems Communication is the primary goal of grading and reporting Grading and reporting are integral parts of the instructional process Good reporting is based on good evidence Creating change in grading and reporting requires creating a multi faceted reporting system Written to help readers develop a deeper and more reflective understanding of the various aspects of the subject Thomas Guskey and Jane Bailey s work brings organization and clarity to a murky and disagreement filled topic Here is a practical and essential guide for teachers administrators or anyone concerned with understanding and implementing best practices in grading and reporting systems

Recent Perspectives on Early Childhood Education and Care in Canada Larry Prochner,2012-01-01 Early childhood education is critical for preparing children for success in formal school settings and as such is a major concern throughout the world This volume brings together ground breaking research in this area to help practitioners students policy makers curriculum designers and intervention program developers understand the latest ideas and advances in the field Recent Perspectives of Early Childhood Education and Care in Canada centres on three key themes The first provides a survey of historical social policy economic and provincial regulations and policies related to early childhood education and care The second focuses on issues related to children s learning curriculum and teachers The final theme addresses recent developments in government involvement in early childhood education and care that are unique to Canada The contributors to this volume demonstrate the pressing need that exists to further public discussion on early childhood education to help policymakers shape better decisions for Canadian families
