Marriage And Life After Death A Model Of Regenerative Inculturation:

Marriage and Life After Death Anthony Onyekwe, 2015-01-29 In Africa the emphasis on family marriage and offspring suggest that there is a kind of an unwritten ancestral law that imposes on every male the duty of begetting a son The reason is because the core of African soteriology is centered on offspring The predicament of the childless couples therefore stems from the desire for immortality and salvation that culminates in the admission of the dead into the ancestral world This quest for salvation and immortality constitute social emotional psychological and spiritual problems for Christian as well as non Christian childless couples

Public Righteousness Abimbola A. Adelokun, 2023-05-25 Public Righteousness The Performative Ethics of Human Flourishing is driven by the idea that part of what manifests as a disorderly display of virtue in public culture is underlined by the desire to see a more righteous society and an expression of the will to enact such an ideal world into reality This book re structures the ferment of such public displays and fashions an ethic that overturns the ostentatious signals of self righteousness and the fierce contest of animating visions This book engages the work of social ethicist Nimi Wariboko to explore an idea of public righteousness In place of smug superiority and phony pieties the performative ethics that inaugurate this public righteousness offer an intellectual and moral competence that establishes rectitude and culminates in human flourishing

Christianity and the Igbo Rites of Passage Charles Ok Onuh, 1992 Owing to their value and strategic importance in the people s mentality and culture this work proposes the Igbo Rites of Passage as a necessary parameter and a transmitting wave length for a firm rooting of the christian faith among the Igbos

Maurice Bloch, Jonathan Parry, 1982-12-30 It is a classical anthropological paradox that symbols of rebirth and fertility are frequently found in funerary rituals throughout the world The original essays collected here re examine this phenomenon through insights from China India New Guinea Latin America and Africa The contributors each a specialist in one of these areas have worked in close collaboration to produce a genuinely innovative theoretical approach to the study of the symbolism surrounding death an outline of which is provided in an important introduction by the editors The major concern of the volume is the way in which funerary rituals dramatically transform the image of life as a dialectic flux involving exchange and transaction marriage and procreation into an image of a still transcendental order in which oppositions such as those between self and other wife giver and wife taker Brahmin and untouchable birth and therefore death have been abolished This transformation often involves a general devaluation of biology and particularly of sexuality which is contrasted with a more spiritual and controlled source of life The role of women who are frequently associated with biological processes mourning and death pollution is often predominant in funerary rituals and in examining this book makes a further contribution to the understanding of the symbolism of gender The death rituals and the symbolism of rebirth are also analysed in the context of the political processes of the different societies considered and it is argued that social order and political organisation may be legitimated through an exploitation of the emotions and biology
