Counterinsurgency and Mass Violence Bart Luttikhuis, A. Dirk Moses, 2018-10-24 Whether out of historical interest romantic identification with the colonized or as models for contemporary counter insurgency experts the mass violence of insurgency and counter insurgency in the post war decolonization of the European empires has long exerted an intense fascination In the main the dramas in French Algeria and British Kenya in the 1950s have dominated the scene overshadowing the equally violent events that unfolded in the Dutch Belgian and Portuguese empires Colonial counterinsurgency and mass violence is the first book in English to treat the intense conflict that occurred during the Indonesian revolution the decolonization struggle of the Dutch East Indies between 1945 and 1949 This case is particularly significant as the first episode of post war colonial violence indeed one with global reverberations International opinion was ranged against the Dutch and the nascent United Nations condemned its euphemistically termed police actions to reclaim the archipelago from Indonesian nationalists after defeat by the Japanese in 1942 As this book makes clear however intra Indonesian violence was no less prevalent as rival independence visions vied for control and villagers were caught between the fronts Taking a multi perspectival approach eighteen authors examine the origins of the conflict as well as its representational and memory dimensions Colonial counterinsurgency and mass violence will appeal to scholars of imperial history mass violence and memory studies alike This book is based on a special issue of the Journal of Genocide Research

Groen,1991      Collective Memory and the Dutch East Indies Paul Doolan,2025-10-01 Collective Memory and the Dutch East Indies Unremembering Decolonization examines the afterlife of decolonization in the collective memory of the Netherlands It offers a new perspective on the cultural history of representing the decolonization of the Dutch East Indies and maps out how a contested collective memory was shaped Taking a transdisciplinary approach and applying several theoretical frames from literary studies sociology cultural anthropology and film theory the author reveals how mediated memories contributed to a process of what he calls unremembering He analyses in detail a broad variety of sources including novels films documentaries radio interviews memoirs and historical studies to reveal how five decades of representing and remembering decolonization fed into an unremembering by which some key notions were silenced or ignored The author concludes that historians or the historical guild bear much responsibility for the unremembering of decolonization in Dutch collective memory      American Visions of the Netherlands East Indies/Indonesia Frances Gouda,2002 A revealing reassessment of the American government s position towards Indonesia s struggle for independence      Building Dutch Air Power in World War II Nicholas Michael Sambaluk,2025-01-17 During World War II the United States earned the nickname the arsenal of democracy due to its sheer productive output which included over 3 000 000 trucks and jeeps 86 000 tanks 6 750 naval platforms 300 000 aircraft of all types It was also the arsenal of democracy in a second sense as a large portion of that hardware was supplied to countries fighting fascism When Franklin D Roosevelt introduced the Lend Lease Act Allied countries of the antifascist coalition were supplied with aid hardware and food Beyond material aid the United States also hosted and trained over 20 000 foreign pilots and aircrew between 1941 and 1945 This book presents the history of one such training program where 532 Dutch pilots crew and other personnel were trained on United States soil over 21 months With the Japanese army intent on invading the Netherlands East Indies it was critical that the Dutch army strengthen their air power When resistance fell on the NEI island of Java and Australia became the new front line Dutch authorities were forced to relocate their training program to Jackson Mississippi where they christened the Royal Netherlands Military Flying School From there they trained on bases in over a dozen states representing a high point for the Dutch air force during a grueling time After their training the RNMFS participated in the liberation of NEI from Japanese occupation This history presents in full context the training of Dutch air personnel on U S soil under the Lend Lease Act their easy rapport with their American hosts and their efforts to establish the Netherlands as an integral part of the Allied cause      The U.S. Army and Irregular Warfare, 1775-2007 Richard G. Penders,2021-10-01 This is a history which deals with the end of the Dutch colonial rule the early independent Indonesia the West New Guinea question and the emergence of Papuan nationalism The book chiefly concentrates on Dutch policies and perspectives which have so far generally been ignored in existing English language publications Netherlands Indonesian relations between 1950 and 1958 are treated in depth with a description and analysis of the struggle for power between the early more Western attuned and economic rationalist cabinets on the support of which the fate of the vast Netherlands controlled export economy was dependent and the masses driven by Sukarno and the populist parties West New Guinea and Papua nationalism began as early as the 1920s and 1930s and by the early 1950s the Dutch had set about guiding the Papuans towards independence This policy had to be aborted however with the threat of an Indonesian invasion and the unwillingness of the US to provide armed support to Dutch forces As a result Australia too was reluctantly forced to abandon the Dutch Australia was forced to accept the inevitable It had actively encouraged the Netherlands to hold onto West New Guinea completed agreements on economic and social cooperation and conducted in depth studies about a possible Australia Dutch defence system against Indonesian aggression Without US military support however the situation became untenable This book will be required for those seeking to understand the genesis of the situation in West New Guinea today where Papuan nationalism is again in the ascendant following the recent dramatic events leading to the independence of East Timor Co published with Crawford House Publishing Decolonization and Conflict Martin

Thomas, Gareth Curless, 2017-06-15 Insurgency based irregular warfare typifies armed conflict in the post Cold War age For some years now western and other governments have struggled to contend with ideologically driven guerrilla movements religiously inspired militias and systematic targeting of civilian populations Numerous conflicts of this type are rooted in experiences of empire breakdown Yet few multi empire studies of decolonisation s violence exist Decolonization and Conflict brings together expertise on a variety of different cases to offer new perspectives on the colonial conflicts that engulfed Europe s empires after 1945 The contributors analyse multiple forms of colonial counter insurgency from the military engagement of anti colonial movements to the forced removal of civilian populations and the application of new doctrines of psychological warfare Contributors to the collection also show how insurgencies their propaganda and methods of action were inherently transnational and inter connected The resulting study is a vital contribution to our understanding of contested decolonization It emphasises the global connections at work and reveals the contemporary resonances of both anti colonial insurgencies and the means devised to counter them It is essential reading for students and scholars of empire decolonization and asymmetric warfare International Cold War Military Records and History William W. The Long Shadow of World War II Matthias Strohn, 2021-08-31 2020 marks 75 years since the end of World War II yet even as the war slips from living memory its legacies continue to influence current political and military thinking. This anthology will analyze these legacies for a number of countries and regions including China, Russia, the United States, the Near East, and Germany illustrating in detail how World War II is not merely a historical event but a defining moment for current military and political thinking around the globe. This book will therefore be of interest for those interested in history but also political and military decision makers and followers of current political and military affairs.

Netherlands Annual Review of Military Studies 2015 Jörg Noll, Daan van den Wollenberg, Frans Osinga, Georg Frerks, Irene van Kemenade, 2015-07-27 This book seeks to bridge the gap between academic political and military thinking concerning the success and failure of peacekeeping operations and their termination. Exit strategies have recently gained attention in political, military, academic, and public debates due to the Western engagement in international and intrastate conflicts since the end of the Cold War. Yet many of those debates took place separately. This volume, which is predominantly a joint product of academics and the military of the Faculty of Military Sciences of the Netherlands Defence Academy, shows new venues by bridging the putative political-military divide. Drawing on theory, empirics, and personal experiences, the authors address exits at political, strategic, operational, and tactical levels of current and past military missions and interventions ranging from decolonisation wars to Afghanistan and Iraq. Although some of those conflicts are still ongoing, valid inferences can be drawn. An important one is that exit forms a problem for those who leave and for those who stay. While political and military objectives might not have been reached and many of those involved have the feeling that the job is still not yet done, the termination of the entire mission or transitions at operational level necessitate both departures and handovers, takeovers, and are thereby characterised by discontinuities and continuities at the same time. It is these dynamics between unfulfilled end states and end dates that in the end lead to the dilemma of leaving. All the editors except van den Wollenberg are affiliated with the Faculty of Military Sciences of the Netherlands Defence Academy in Breda, the Netherlands. Jörg Noll is Associate Professor of International Conflict Studies, First Lieutenant Air Commodore, Frans Osinga is Professor of Military Operational Art and Sciences, Georg Frerks is Professor International Security Studies, and Irene van Kemenade runs the Research Office of the Faculty. Daan van den Wollenberg is Commander of a mechanized artillery platoon of the Netherlands armed forces.

Zaalberg, Bart Luttikhuis, 2022-07-15 In Empire's Violent End Thijs Brocades Zaalberg and Bart Luttikhuis along with expert contributors present comparative research focused specifically on excessive violence in Indonesia Algeria Vietnam Malaysia Kenya and other areas during the wars of decolonization In the last two decades there have been heated public and scholarly debates in France the United Kingdom and the Netherlands on the violent end of empire Nevertheless the broader comparative investigations into colonial counterinsurgency tend to leave atrocities such as torture execution and rape in the margins The editors describe how such comparisons mostly focus on the differences by engaging in guilt ranking Moreover the dramas that have unfolded in Algeria and Kenya tend to overshadow similar violent events in Indonesia the very first nation to declare independence directly after World War II Empire s Violent End is the first book to place the Dutch Indonesian case at the heart of a comparison with focused thematic analysis on a diverse range of topics to demonstrate that despite variation in scale combat intensity and international dynamics there were more similarities than differences in the ways colonial powers used extreme forms of violence By delving into the causes and nature of the abuse Brocades Zaalberg and Luttikhuis conclude that all cases involved some form of institutionalized impunity which enabled the type of situation in which the forces in the service of the colonial rulers were able to use extreme violence
