Theological Method: A Guide for the Perplexed Paul L. Allen,2012-06-28 Theological Method A Guide for the Perplexed is a book that introduces the reader to the practice of doing theology. It provides a historical survey of key figures and concepts that bear on an understanding of difficult methodological issues in Christian theology. Beginning with a description of philosophical themes that affect the way theology is done today, it summarizes the various theological methods deployed by theologians and churches over two millennia of Christian thought. The book uncovers patterns in the theological task of relating biblical texts with beliefs and doctrines according to historically conditioned theological and cultural priorities. The book's highlights include a discussion of Augustine's epoch-making De doctrina Christiana. Also receiving close attention is the relationship between philosophy and theology during the Middle Ages, the meaning of sola scriptura for the Protestant Reformers, the methods of key interpreters of doctrine in the nineteenth century, and the theological priorities of the Radical Orthodoxy movement.

The God Who Saves David W. Congdon, 2016-09-08 Christian universalism has been explored in its biblical, philosophical, and historical dimensions. For the first time, The God Who Saves explores it in systematic theological perspective. In doing so, it also offers a fresh take on universal salvation, one that is postmetaphysical, existential, and hermeneutically critical. The result is a constructive account of soteriology that does justice to both the universal scope of divine grace and the historicity of human existence. In The God Who Saves, David W. Congdon orients theology systematically around the New Testament witness to the apocalyptic inbreaking of God's reign. The result is a consistently soteriocentric theology. Building on the insights of Rudolf Bultmann, Ernst Kasemann, Eberhard Jungel, and J. Louis Martyn, he interprets the saving act of God as the eschatological event that crucifies the old cosmos in Christ. Human beings participate in salvation through their unconscious existential cocrucifixion, in which each person is interrupted by God and placed outside of himself or herself. Both academically rigorous and pastorally sensitive, The God Who Saves opens up new possibilities for understanding not only what salvation is, but also who the God who brings about our salvation is. Here is an interdisciplinary exercise in dogmatic theology for the twenty-first century.

Luther's Lectures on Genesis and the Formation of Evangelical Identity John A. Maxfield, 2008-10-01 Martin Luther's lectures on Genesis, delivered at the University of Wittenberg during the last decade of his life and later published by his students, allow modern readers to view a sixteenth-century professor engaging his students with the text of scripture and using that text to form them spiritually. The lectures show how Luther attempted to form in his students a new identity, an Evangelical identity, enabling them to make sense of the rapidly changing society and church in which they were being prepared to serve primarily as pastors in the developing territorial churches of the Reformation. This study uses the text of the lectures to outline the contours of the new identity that Luther laid out through his exposition of Genesis. They include how Luther approached and taught his students to perceive the text of holy scripture, how that text unveiled for Luther the nature of Christian life in the world, and how Luther taught his students to view the past, the present, and the future of the church and the world through the book of Genesis. Whether in the published editions of the lectures, the historic Luther was actually misunderstood or was transformed in some way into the prophetic Luther of later memory the text reveals the Luther that his students heard and subsequent generations read

Transformed into the Same Image Paul Copan, Michael M. C. Reardon, 2024-10-15 Though the doctrine of theosis has been gaining interest among scholars for some time most have focused on Roman Catholic or Orthodox traditions In this constructive account of deification biblical scholars and theologians focus on the work of major Protestant thinkers and Protestant expressions of the doctrine Transfiguring a Theologia Crucis through James Cone Brach S.

Jennings, 2023-10-18 Brach S Jennings unites thematic investigations into hermeneutics and material dogmatics related to fundamental theology with a concern for contemporary situations of global oppression in order to propose a new theologia crucis through James H Cone's Black Theology of Liberation Jennings's study connects a theology of wisdom sapientia with political prophetic theology for the three publics of academy society and church today Mission Shaped by Promise

Jukka A. Kääriäinen, 2012-10-03 Utilizing resources from Martin Luther and the Lutheran tradition this study offers an understanding of the gospel as promise as key to addressing the challenge of relating the missio Dei to a generous constructive approach toward the religious other In its construction of a Lutheran missiology it retrieves and reappropriates four resources from the Lutheran tradition the gospel as promise the law gospel distinction a theology of grace as promise of mercy fulfilled and a theology of the cross utilizing the hiddenness of God The law of God as accusing yet webbing humanity to its Creator the gospel as the comforting promise of mercy and the hiddenness of God as mystifying form the overarching framework within which the Lutheran missiology presented here seeks to engage the religious other by dialectically relating gospel proclamation and dialogue Such a view of mission shaped by promise offers the paradox of God being both revealed and hidden in the cross as a distinctive contribution to an interreligious dialogue centered on the ambiguity and hiddenness of God Sacrifice and Community

Matthew Levering, 2008-04-15 This book explores the character of the Eucharist as communion in and through sacrifice It will stimulate discussion because of its controversial critique of the dominant paradigm for Eucharistic theology its reclamation of St Thomas Aquinas's theology of the Eucharist and its response to Pope John Paul II's Ecclesia de Eucharistia Argues that the Eucharist cannot be separated from sacrifice and rediscovers the biblical connections between sacrifice and communion Timed to coincide with the Year of the Eucharist proclaimed by Pope John Paul II Reclaims the riches of St Thomas Aquinas's theology of the Eucharist which had recently been reduced to a metaphysical defence of transubstantiation Luther for Everyone

Hans Schwarz, 2024 Martin Luther is among those most influential and well known people ever to live But who was he and what did he want What significance does he have for the world beyond the church When these questions are posed it becomes apparent that Martin Luther's theology confession and understanding of the world are little known outside of the Protestantism Yet Luther's numerous publications and teaching tenure at the University of Wittenberg extended far beyond Germany and far beyond Lutheranism His translation of the Bible led to a revolution in publishing language and media He nurtured the sciences promoted an education system for boys girls and even the poor He decisively shaped our understanding sharpened our social conscience and even influenced the renewal of the Catholic Church Luther in short is for everyone In this book renowned scholar and theologian Hans Schwarz traces these many connections and influences between Luther's world and our own The result is a compelling account of Luther that can instruct both contemporary Lutherans and the broader public in the life and legacy of one of the makers of the modern world

The Priesthood of All Believers and the Missio Dei Henry Joseph Voss, 2016-10-25 The priesthood of all believers is a pillar undergirding Protestant ecclesiology Yet the doctrine has often been used to serve diverse agendas This book examines the doctrine's canonical catholic and contextual dimensions It first identifies the priesthood of all believers as a canonical doctrine based upon the royal priesthood of Christ and closely related to the believer's eschatological temple service and offering of spiritual sacrifices chapters 1-3 It secondly describes its catholic development by examining three paradigmatic shifts shifts especially associated with Christendom chapters 4-6 and a suppression of the doctrine's missional component Finally the book argues that a Christian doctrine of the priesthood of all believers should be developed with a Christocentric Trinitarian understanding of the missio Dei This suggests there are especially appropriate ways for the royal priesthood to relate to the Father to the Son and to the Holy Spirit A canonically and catholically informed priesthood of all believers leads contextually to particular ecclesial practices These seven practices are 1 Baptism as public ordination to the royal priesthood 2 Prayer 3 Lectio Divina 4 Ministry 5 Church Discipline 6 Proclamation and 7 the Lord's Supper as the renewal of the royal priesthood

Anti-cultic Theology in Christian Biblical Interpretation Valerie A. Stein, 2007 Anti-Cultic Theology in Christian Biblical Interpretation challenges the widely held view that Isaiah 66:1-4 is a prophetic indictment against temple worship Through critical analysis of representative interpretations from the Patristic Era the writings of Martin Luther and Modern Biblical Scholarship the book reveals the anti-cultic interpretation of these verses to be theologically motivated The author argues instead that Isaiah 66 contrasts divine and human nature rather than cultic and spiritual worship This work contributes to the subject of Jewish-Christian relations in a unique way grounding the discussion of anti-Jewish interpretation of the Hebrew Bible in the analysis of a particular passage

Christology as Critique Knut Alfsvag, 2018-09-24 If the origin of the world is not a part of the world what are the implications for our understanding of ourselves the world and its origin In antiquity both gentile and Christian authors agreed that the significance of this question could only be maintained by accepting the unbridgeable difference between the world and God Not even Christology as the most ambitious attempt at developing a model for divine-human communication was allowed to undermine the principle of absolute divine difference This changed with the modern emphasis on univocity and measurability as the defining aspects of knowledge From the point of view of a philosophy of absolute difference this appears as an arbitrary loss of perspective By focusing on four authors Cusanus Luther Hamann and Kierkegaard who have explored how the Christian and paradoxical understanding of Christ as eternal God and true human subverts the modern emphasis on unambiguity and definability the present investigation makes an attempt to retrieve what has been lost Classical Christology as interpreted by these authors thus appears as an indispensable tool for receiving and appreciating the gift of the world in a way that is not unduly limited by anthropocentric prejudice

Simul Robert Kolb, Torbjörn Johansson, Daniel Johansson, Christopher B. Brown, Günter Frank, Bruce Gordon, Barbara Mahlmann-Bauer, Tarald Rasmussen, Violet Soen, Zsombor Tóth, Günther Wassilowsky, Siegrid Westphal, 2021-06-07 This volume introduces an important concept which hitherto has not gotten the recognition it deserves The concept simul the idea of a both and in theology is primarily associated with the Lutheran understanding of justification The formula simul iustus et peccator is a shorthand for the nucleus and heart of the Reformation But the concept which implies a tension or even a paradox appears to play a significant role in other areas of theological reflection This volume highlights a number of areas in which this idea historically has played an important role as well as its potential in the contemporary conversation The aim of the work is to provide an informed and readable introduction to the simul concept in various areas of systematical theology and Biblical exegesis

Christ at the Crux Paul Cumin, 2014-06-20 How can Christian theology confess God as both other than the world and also related to it in a way that compromises neither of these Most modern thought has offered a simple reply it cannot Christ at the Crux analyzes one element of the roots of this denial and charts a route toward rapprochement The Christologies of eight theologians offer various attempts to relate the Creator and the creature in Christ Irenaeus of Lyon Cyril of Alexandria John Philoponus Martin Luther John Calvin John Zizioulas Robert Jenson and Colin Gunton Within the patristic era the question is grounded in theology about the incarnation with the Reformers the focus is on the mediation between creation and Creator and with the three modern theologians the breadth of the issue is completed with theology proper Together these eight offer a grand scale perspective on much of the christological possibilities for conceiving the relation between God and everything else In the end Paul Cumin shows how the doctrine of the Trinity appears to open new possibilities for Christology and in particular for the way theology about the Spirit enables a reimagining of those items of Christian thought most likely at the roots of our modern rejection of God as other

Being and Action Coram Deo Koert Verhagen, 2021-09-09 Koert Verhagen not only provides the first in depth treatment of how the doctrine of justification crucially frames Bonhoeffer's approach to questions surrounding human being and action he also addresses the ethical implications of retrieving this perspective for the Church today Drawing on his early academic theology and his later ethics of discipleship Verhagen argues that Bonhoeffer's emphasis on the social implications of justification leads to an understanding of human existence that is fundamentally relational Along the way he draws Bonhoeffer's thinking on this front into conversation with Luther German idealism the Nazi Weltanschauung and contemporary Pauline scholarship With an eye to the contemporary practical value of Bonhoeffer's theology Verhagen concludes by making the case that the retrieval of justification's social implications provides a critical corrective to ecclesial responses to white supremacy

influence of Martin Luther's theology on Dietrich Bonhoeffer with particular reference to justification ecclesiology the doctrine of the two kingdoms and political ethics
