Non-Binding Norms in International Humanitarian Law Emily Crawford,2021-12-23 This monograph examines and analyses the phenomenon of non binding instruments also known as soft law in the law of armed conflict or international humanitarian law In the past 30 years there have been several non binding instruments created designed as either best practice guidelines or re statements of applicable law These instruments are not treaties but they nevertheless put themselves forward as authoritative statements of what the law is and in some instances what the law should be Soft law instruments can be dynamic prompt and responsive measures to address pressing issues in armed conflicts By drawing on the skill of a small group of experts these instruments can be debated and drafted in a timelier manner than if these issues were to be left to the international community of 194 States to resolve Furthermore because these instruments do not have to be sent for debate to an international conference of States it means that the provisions are not subject to the usual revisions reservations and dilutions that come with attempting to reach consensus However there are potential and actual problems with these instruments and the processes that bring them to fruition and how they are received in practice by States and other stakeholders This volume looks at the benefits and drawbacks for States and non State actors with regards to soft law whether they are effective additions to the law of armed conflict analysing the development through the lens of theories of legitimacy and legality in international law Poseidon's Progress Iver P. Cooper,2024-05-21 Nautical travel and shipboard living have evolved to be both safer and more comfortable for passengers and crewmembers While some of these improvements have come about through sheer trial and error others are the result of a careful analysis of problems followed by finding and implementing scientific solutions This book with a unique problem solution format examines the challenges of life at sea and how they have been ameliorated It covers topics such as ventilation healthy food and drink sleeping quarters sanitation facilities internal and external lighting seaworthiness and survival of maritime disasters man overboard shipwreck fire and contagious disease The text traces the history of the various attempts to address the difficulties of life on the water from a scientific engineering and legal perspective How to Write about the Media Today Raúl Damacio Tovares,Alla V.

Tovares,2010-03-02 A comprehensive and practical guide to writing a successful media paper or report from selecting a topic to submitting the final draft How to Write about the Media Today is the first book to offer students and media practitioners a comprehensive approach for researching and preparing a report paper or presentation on some aspect of today s mass communication How to Write about the Media Today begins with a discussion of different types of media outlets from traditional newspapers and television to the Internet as well as an overview of contemporary directions in media studies This is followed by a series of step by step strategies for selecting topics conducting research and writing cogently and engagingly about media related events and issues Because each chapter stands on its own this resource can be read sequentially or consulted topic by topic as needed Managing Cultural World Heritage UNESCO,2013-12-31 Practical
