The Way That Leads Among the Lost Angela Garcia, 2024-04-30 Based on over a decade of research a powerful moving work of narrative nonfiction that illuminates the little known world of the anexos of Mexico City the informal addiction treatment centers where mothers send their children to escape the violence of the drug war The Way That Leads Among the Lost reveals a hidden place where care and violence are impossible to separate the anexos of Mexico City The prizewinning anthropologist Angela Garcia takes us deep into the world of these small rooms informal treatment centers for alcoholism addiction and mental illness spread across Mexico City's tenements and reaching into the United States Run and inhabited by Mexico's most marginalized populations they are controversial for their illegality and their use of coercion Yet for many Mexican families desperate to keep their loved ones safe these rooms offer something of a refuge from what lies beyond them the intensifying violence surrounding the drug war This is the first book ever written on the anexos Garcia who spent a decade conducting anthropological fieldwork in Mexico City draws readers into their many dimensions casting light on the mothers and their children who are entangled in this hidden world Following the stories of its denizens she asks what these places are why they exist and what they reflect about Mexico and the wider world With extraordinary empathy and a sharp eye for detail Garcia attends to the lives that the anexos both sustain and erode wrestling with the question of why mothers turn to them as a site of refuge even as they reproduce violence Woven into these portraits is Garcia's own powerful story of family childhood homelessness and drugs a blend of ethnography and memoir converging on a set of fundamental questions about the many forms and meanings that violence love care family and hope may take Infused with profound ethnographic richness and moral urgency The Way That Leads Among the Lost is a stunning work of narrative nonfiction a book that will leave a deep mark on readers

We Are Made of Stories Leslie Umberger, 2022-10-04 A richly illustrated history of self-taught artists and how they changed American art Artists without formal training who learned from family community and personal journeys have long been a presence in American art But it wasn't until the 1980s with the help of trailblazing advocates that the collective force of their creative vision and bold self-definition permanently changed the mainstream art world In We Are Made of Stories Leslie Umberger traces the rise of self-taught artists in the twentieth century and examines how despite wide-ranging societal racial and gender-based obstacles they redefined who could be rightfully seen as an artist and revealed a much more diverse community of American makers Lavishly illustrated throughout We Are Made of Stories features more than one hundred drawings paintings and sculptures ranging from the narrative to the abstract by forty-three artists including James Castle Thornton Dial William Edmondson Howard Finster Bessie Harvey Dan

Miller Sister Gertrude Morgan the Philadelphia Wireman Nellie Mae Rowe Judith Scott and Bill Traylor The book centralizes the personal stories behind the art and explores enduring themes including self definition cultural heritage struggle and joy and inequity and achievement At the same time it offers a sweeping history of self taught artists the critical debates surrounding their art and how museums have gradually diversified their collections across lines of race gender class and ability Recasting American art history to embrace artists who have been excluded for too long We Are Made of Stories vividly captures the power of art to show us the world through the eyes of another Published in association with the Smithsonian American Art Museum Exhibition Schedule Smithsonian American Art Museum Washington DC July 1 2022 March 26 2023
