Marx For Our Times Adventures And Misadventures Of A Critique:

Marx for Our Times Daniel Bensaïd, 2002 Without denying the contradictory character of Marx's thought Daniel Bensaïd sets out to demonstrate that it was not a philosophy of the end of history an empirical sociology of classes or a positive science of economics positing an inexorable progress towards an ineluctable communism Instead Marx's critique of political economy encompassed three great critiques of the scientific and political canons of its age of historical reason sociological rationality and scientific positivism which make the thinker from the nineteenth century fully relevant to the twenty first century of global capitalism Indeed we find here a post postmodern Marx able to inhabit a contemporary world replete with contingency emergency and contradictory temporalities Published in France on the eve of the strikes of 1995 that signalled a profound revolt against la pensée unique Marx for Our Times is an invitation to rediscover our foremost contemporary Karl Marx

Dialectical Passions Gail Day, 2010-12-22 Representing a new generation of theorists reaffirming the radical dimensions of art Gail Day launches a bold critique of late twentieth century art theory and its often reductive analysis of cultural objects Exploring core debates in discourses on art from the New Left to theories of critical postmodernism and beyond Day counters the belief that recent tendencies in art fail to be adequately critical She also challenges the political inertia that results from these conclusions Day organizes her defense around critics who have engaged substantively with emancipatory thought and social process T J Clark Manfredo Tafuri Fredric Jameson Benjamin H D Buchloh and Hal Foster among others She maps the tension between radical dialectics and left nihilism and assesses the interpretation and internalization of negation in art theory Chapters confront the claim that exchange and equivalence have subsumed the use value of cultural objects and with it critical distance and interrogate the proposition of completed nihilism and the metropolis put forward in the politics of Italian operaismo Day covers the debates on symbol and allegory waged within the context of 1980s art and their relation to the writings of Walter Benjamin and Paul de Man She also examines common conceptions of mediation totality negation and the politics of anticipation A necessary unsettling of received wisdoms Dialectical Passions recasts emancipatory reflection in aesthetics art and architecture

Mute Compulsion Søren Mau, 2023-01-31 Despite insoluble contradictions intense volatility and fierce resistance the crisis ridden capitalism of the 21st century lingers on To understand capital's paradoxical expansion and entrenchment amidst crisis and unrest Mute Compulsion offers a novel theory of the historically unique forms of abstract and impersonal power set in motion by the subjection of social life to the profit imperative Building on a critical reconstruction of Karl Marx's unfinished critique of political economy and a wide range of contemporary Marxist theory philosopher Søren Mau sets out to explain how the logic of capital tightens its stranglehold on the life of society by constantly remoulding the material conditions of social reproduction In the course of doing so Mau intervenes in classical and contemporary debates about the value form crisis theory biopolitics social reproduction humanism logistics agriculture metabolism the body competition technology and relative surplus populations

Groove: An Aesthetic of Measured Time Mark Abel, 2014-09-18 What is the relationship between music and time How does musical rhythm express our social experience of time In Groove An Aesthetic of Measured

Time Mark Abel explains the rise to prominence in Western music of a new way of organising rhythm groove He provides a historical account of its emergence around the turn of the twentieth century and analyses the musical components which make it work Tracing the influence of key philosophical arguments about the nature of time on musical aesthetics Mark Abel draws on materialist interpretations of art and culture to challenge those like Adorno who criticise popular music's metrical regularity He concludes that groove does not simply reflect the temporality of contemporary society but by incorporating abstract time into its very structure is capable of effecting a critique of it

Friedrich Engels and the Dialectics of Nature

Kangal,2020-01-27 Reading different or controversial intentions into Marx and Engels works has been a common but somewhat unquestioned practice in the history of Marxist scholarship Engels Dialectics of Nature a torso for some and a great book for others is a case in point The entire Engels debate separates into two opposite views Engels the contaminator of Marx's new materialism vs Engels the self educated genius of dialectical materialism What Engels unlike Marx has not enjoyed so far is a critical reading that considers the relationship between different layers of this standard text authorial textual editorial and interpretational Informed by a historical hermeneutic this book questions the elements that structure the debate on the Dialectics of Nature It analyzes different political and philosophical functions attached to Engels text and relocates the meaning of the term dialectics into a more precise context Arguing that Engels dialectics is less complete than we usually think it is but that he achieved more than most scholars would like to admit this book fully documents and critically analyzes Engels intentions and concerns in the Dialectics of Nature the process of writing and its reception and edition history in order to reconstruct the solved and unsolved philosophical problems in this unfinished work

The Antagonistic Principle Massimo Modonesi,2018-11-05 In this important contribution to political theory Massimo Modonesi develops the thesis that a Marxist theory of political action can be developed from the notion of antagonism defined as a distinctive feature of struggle and of the political experience of insubordination The author argues this central idea with close reference to the concept of class struggle He advances a theoretical proposal based on the triad subalternity antagonism autonomy as well as the uneven and combined character of the processes of political subjectification At the center of this triad the concept of antagonism stands out as a logical principle and the core of a Marxist theory of political action At the same time subalternism reappears frequently as the counter pole of antagonistic activation and autonomous practices and as the root of what Antonio Gramsci calls passive revolutions

The Magic of Concepts Rebecca E. Karl,2017-03-02 In The Magic of Concepts Rebecca E Karl interrogates the economic as concept and practice as it was construed historically in China in the 1930s and again in the 1980s and 1990s Separated by the Chinese Revolution and Mao's socialist experiments each era witnessed urgent discussions about how to think about economic concepts derived from capitalism in modern China Both eras were highly cosmopolitan and each faced its own global crisis in economic and historical philosophy in the 1930s capitalism's failures suggested that socialism offered a plausible solution while the abandonment of socialism five decades later provoked a rethinking of the relationship between history and the economic as social practice Interweaving a critical historiography of modern China with the work of the Marxist trained economist Wang Yanan Karl shows how magical concepts based on dehistoricized Eurocentric and capitalist conceptions of historical activity that purport to exist outside lived experiences have erased much of the critical import of China's twentieth century history In this volume Karl retrieves the economic to argue for a more nuanced and critical account of twentieth century Chinese and global historical practice

In the Marxian Workshops Sandro Mezzadra, 2018-09-16 Theorists have often returned to the work of Marx to interpret and better understand global developments and current political and economic crisis In the Marxian Workshops Producing Subjects combines an attempt to develop a specific reading of Marx with a set of interventions on high stakes topics in contemporary critical debates Sandro Mezzadra offers a close reading of Marx on the production of subjectivity as a crucial test for assessment of some of the most important Marxian concepts and of their potential for grasping the present from the point of view of radical transformation

Karl Marx, Historian of Social Times and Spaces George García-Quesada, 2021-10-25 Through a discussion with current perspectives in philosophy of history especially with a critical approach to Paul Ricœur's work and a rigorous reading of Karl Marx's oeuvre Karl Marx Historian of Social Times and Spaces proposes an interpretation of Marx's concept and method of historical knowledge In this sense the examination of Marx's concepts of social space and social time serve to highlight the possibilities of his work in terms of the explanation of the dynamics of complex multilinear development of human societies and of capitalism in particular Rage + Hope Peter McLaren, 2006 Textbook Left-Wing Melancholia Enzo Traverso, 2017-01-10 The fall of the Berlin Wall marked the end of the Cold War but also the rise of a melancholic vision of history as a series of losses For the political left the cause lost was communism and this trauma determined how leftists wrote the next chapter in their political struggle and how they have thought about their past since Throughout the twentieth century argues Left Wing Melancholia from classical Marxism to psychoanalysis to the advent of critical theory a culture of defeat and its emotional overlay of melancholy have characterized the leftist understanding of the political in history and in theoretical critique Drawing on a vast and diverse archive in theory testimony and image and on such thinkers as Karl Marx Walter Benjamin Theodor W Adorno and others the intellectual historian Enzo Traverso explores the varying nature of left melancholy as it has manifested in a feeling of guilt for not sufficiently challenging authority in a fear of surrendering in disarray and resignation in mourning the human costs of the past and in a sense of failure for not realizing utopian aspirations Yet hidden within this melancholic tradition are the resources for a renewed challenge to prevailing regimes of historicity a passion that has the power to reignite the dialectic of revolutionary thought Infrapolitics Alberto Moreiras, 2021-10-05 The personal is not political even if politics marks it and in many cases determines it Infrapolitics seeks to understand conditions of existence that are not reducible to political life and that exceed any definition of world bound to political determinations It seeks to mobilize an exteriority without which politics could only be business or administration that is oppression It demands a change in seeing and an everyday practice that subtracts from political totalization in the name of a new production of desire of a new emancipation and of a conception of experience that can breach the general captivation of life In this book Alberto Moreiras describes a form of thought aiming to provide content for a form of life and to offer a new theoretical practice for concrete existence The book provides a genealogy of the notion of infrapolitics and places it within contemporary philosophical reflection examining its deployment in the wake of postphenomenology and deconstruction Lacanian analysis the principle of anarchy and an egalitarian symbolization of social life In doing so Moreiras elaborates Infrapolitics as both a general critique of the political apparatus and as an imperative horizon for existential self understanding The Routledge Companion to William Morris Florence S.
