dialogue with literature music and film which formed not only alternatives to totalitarian ideologies but also followed the loss and reappearance of belief in God Noble explains that by listening to the artists the churches and theologians can deal with questions about the nature of the world memory and ultimate fulfilment in a more nuanced way Then as partakers in the search undertaken by their secular and post secular contemporaries theologians can penetrate a new depth of meaning sending out shoots from the stump of Christian symbolism Drawing on the rich cultures of Central and East Europe and both western and eastern theological traditions this book presents a theological reading of contemporary culture which is important not just for post Communist countries but for all who are engaged in the debate on the boundaries between theology politics and arts
