Killing in the Name of Identity Professor Vamik D Volkan, Vamik Volkan, 2014-07-01 OC Why do they hate us so OCO Vamik Volkan has the most compelling humane and universal response to the riddle of our time In this extraordinary and timely book Volkan explains better than anyone the relationship between large group identities and massive traumas and current events and ongoing conflicts around the world including those related to the horrific attacks of 9 11 In Killing in the Name of Identity Volkan has taken us further and deeper into the dark and vulnerable collective mind of ethnic religious cultural and national group conflict Through his eyes and words we find ourselves looking into and making contact with the universal elements present in humanity and in ourselves which converge in producing the conditions for great human tragedies No one understands nor writes about large group terror and violence in a more compassionate and profoundly instructive way Killing in the Name of Identity Vamik Volkan, 2014-07-01 Why do they hate us so Vamik Volkan has the most compelling humane and universal response to the riddle of our time In this extraordinary and timely book Volkan explains better than anyone the relationship between large group identities and massive traumas and current events and ongoing conflicts around the world including those related to the horrific attacks of 9 11 In Killing in the Name of Identity Volkan has taken us further and deeper into the dark and vulnerable collective mind of ethnic religious cultural and national group conflict Through his eyes and words we find ourselves looking into and making contact with the universal elements present in humanity and in ourselves which converge in producing the conditions for great human tragedies No one understands nor writes about large group terror and violence in a more compassionate and profoundly instructive way

Expanding the Edges of Narrative Inquiry Laura E. Reimer, Katerina Standish, Chuck Thiessen, 2019-11-29 This captivating book presents innovative answers to the question why storytelling Each chapter represents leading edge narrative research designs from Arthur V Mauro Institute for Peace and Justice in central Canada one of the world's leading academic programs for Peace and Conflict Studies PACS and a major contributor to PACS scholarship The authors are candid and offer inspiration for other scholars seeking groundbreaking ideas for their own research design while offering profound expansions to the current PACS literature The scholarship reflects a diversity of ideas passions approaches disciplinary roots and topic areas Each chapter explores different and critical issues in the field of PACS through various forms of storytelling while providing recent original research designs for the future development of the field and the education of its practitioners and academics This volume co edited by three of the early graduates of the program presents and explores a number of these issues across the broad spectrum of Peace and Conflict Studies Contributors to the book are recognized scholars and practitioners in their respective fields The book has a wide audience targeting those particularly interested in tackling and understanding old conflicts in new ways and for those seeking to learn at the growing edges of PACS at the undergraduate graduate and post graduate levels Nationalism and Intra-State Conflicts in the Postcolonial World Fonkem

Achankeng,2015-09-28 This book highlights the complexities of nationalism and the struggles of different groups left unaddressed within the nation states of a postcolonial world The central question is what happened to the worldly and radical visions of freedom liberty and equality that animated intellectual activists and policy makers from Woodrow Wilson in the 1920s This book analyzes the outcome of lumping disparate groups of people together under one nation state and holding them together against the knowledge of the incompatibility theory of plural states In a world of arbitrarily and colonially mapped sovereign states groups and nations with distinctive histories and cultures trapped within the borders of sovereign states want the freedom to decide their own destinies This book challenges deconstructs and decolonizes Western epistemologies related to postcolonial state formation and maintenance In examining the freedom concept that no human group ought to be determining the independence of other human groups this book constructs an alternative conceptualization of nations and peoples rights in the twenty first century in which radical hopes and global dreams are recognized as central to internal nationalism struggles Public Perception of International Crises Dmitry

Chernobrov,2019-06-24 Winner of the 2019 Edgar S Furniss Book Award from the Mershon Center for International Security How do people make sense of distant but disturbing international events Why are some representations more appealing than others What do they mean for the perceiver s own sense of self Going beyond conventional analysis of political perception and imagining at the level of accuracy this book reveals how self conceptions are unconsciously but centrally present in our judgments and representations of international crises Combining international relations and psychosocial studies Dmitry Chernobrov shows how the imagining of international politics is shaped by the need for positive and continuous societal self concepts The book captures evidence of self affirming political imagining in how the general public in the West and in Russia understood the Arab uprisings also known as the Arab Spring and makes an argument both about and beyond this particular case The book will appeal to those interested in international crises political psychology media and audiences perception and political imagining ontological security identity and emotion and collective memory Rethinking Peacebuilding Karin

Aggestam,Annika Björkdahl,2013 This book presents new theoretical and conceptual perspectives on the problematique of building just and durable peace Linking peace and justice has sparked lively debates about the dilemmas and trade offs in several contemporary peace processes Despite the fact that justice and peace are commonly referred to there is surprisingly little research and few conceptualizations of the interplay between the two This edited volume is the result of three years of collaborative research and draws upon insights from such disciplines as peace and conflict international law political science and international relations It contains policy relevant knowledge about effective peacebuilding strategies as well as an in depth analysis of the contemporary peace processes in the Middle East and the Western Balkans Using a variety of theoretical perspectives and empirical approaches the work makes an original contribution to the growing literature on peacebuilding This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding peace and conflict studies Middle Eastern

Rival Kurdish Movements in Turkey Mustafa Gürbüz, 2025-10-01

This book explores the conditions that encourage non violent civic engagement in emerging civil societies G rb z examines the radical transformations over the past decade in the politics of Turkey s Kurdish minority On the eve of the new millennium the Turkish state was still openly denying the existence of Kurds calling them mountain Turks and Kurdish populated cities were ruled under martial law Kurdish politics in Turkey was dominated by a revolutionary movement the PKK which engaged in violent clashes with the state Less than a decade later the PKK s rebellion had all but ended and Kurdish political and civic movements of numerous stripes had emerged The Turkish state even introduced an official Kurdish language TV channel How did this rapid change occur G rb z proposes that contending social movements has transformed the politics of the region ushering in an era of post conflict political and cultural competition Why They Die

Daniel Rothbart, Karina Korostelina, 2011-06-09 When civilians are perceived as the enemy atrocities and violence result beyond the battlefield

Radical Pathways Kumar K. Ramakrishna, 2009-03-20 This book explores two of the most crucial areas of the war on terror 1 why some Muslims turn to violent jihad and 2 that process in the world s most populous Muslim nation Indonesia The recent history of terrorism in Indonesia has brought this country into the world spotlight the Bali night club bombing by Islamists in 2002 was one of the worst terrorist attacks in history The recent violence following the executions of three of the Bali bombers together with a number of thwarted bomb plots demonstrate the continuing danger posed by radicalized violent Islamists in the country Written by one of Southeast Asias leading counter terrorism experts Radical Pathways offers innovative new perspectives on the sources of violent Muslim radicalization and what should be done to counter it

Humanizing Evil Ronald C Naso, Jon Mills, 2015-12-14 Psychoanalysis has traditionally had difficulty in accounting for the existence of evil Freud saw it as a direct expression of unconscious forces whereas more recent theorists have examined the links between early traumatic experiences and later evil behaviour Humanizing Evil Psychoanalytic Philosophical and Clinical Perspectives explores the controversies surrounding definitions of evil and examines its various forms from the destructive forces contained within the normal mind to the most horrific expressions observed in contemporary life Ronald Naso and Jon Mills bring together an international group of experts to explore how more subtle factors can play a part such as conformity pressures or the morally destabilizing effects of anonymity and show how analysts can understand and work with such factors in clinical practice Each chapter is unified by the view that evil is intrinsically linked to human freedom regardless of the gap experienced by perpetrators between their intentions and consequences While some forms of evil follow seamlessly from psychopathology others call this relationship into question Rape murder serial killing and psychopathy show very clear links to psychopathology and character whereas the horrors of war religious fundamentalism and political extremism resist such reductionism Humanizing Evil is unique in the diversity of perspectives it brings to bear on the problem of evil It will be essential reading for psychoanalysts psychotherapists philosophers and

Jungians Because it is an integrative depth psychological effort it will interest general readers as well as scholars from a variety of disciplines including the humanities philosophy religion mental health criminal justice political science sociology and interdisciplinary studies Ronald Naso Ph D ABPP is psychoanalyst and clinical psychologist in independent practice in Stamford CT The author of numerous papers on psychoanalytic topics he is an associate editor of Contemporary Psychoanalytic Studies and contributing editor of Division Review and Journal of Psychology and Clinical Psychiatry His book Hypocrisy Unmasked Dissociation Shame and the Ethics of Inauthenticity was published by Aronson in 2010 Jon Mills Psy D Ph D ABPP is a philosopher psychoanalyst and clinical psychologist He is Professor of Psychology Psychoanalysis at Adler Graduate Professional School Toronto A 2006 2011 and 2013 Gradiva Award winner he is Editor of two book series in psychoanalysis on the Editorial Board for Psychoanalytic Psychology and is the author and or editor of thirteen books including his most recent works Underworlds Philosophies of the Unconscious from Psychoanalysis to Metaphysics and Conundrums A Critique of Contemporary Psychoanalysis which won the Goethe Award for best book in 2013

The Oxford Handbook of Identities in Organizations Andrew D. Brown,2020-01-09 Conceived as the meanings that individuals attach to their selves a substantial stockpile of theory related to identities accumulated across the arts social sciences and humanities over many decades continues to nourish contemporary research on self identities in organizations In times which are more reflexive narcissistic and fluid the identities of participants in organizations are increasingly less fixed and less certain making identity issues both more salient and more interesting Particular attention has been given to processes of identity construction often styled identity work Research has focused on how why and when such processes occur and their implications for organizing and individual group and organizational outcomes This has resulted in a burgeoning stream of research from discursive dramaturgical symbolic socio cognitive and psychodynamic perspectives that most often casts individuals efforts to fabricate identities as intentional relational and consequential Seemingly intractable debates centred on the nature of identities their relative stability or fluidity whether they are best regarded as coherent or fractured positive or not and how they are fabricated within relations of power combined with other conceptual issues continue to invigorate the field However these debates have also led to some scepticism regarding the future potential of identities research Yet as the chapters in this Handbook demonstrate there are considerable grounds for optimism that identity as root metaphor nexus concept and means to bridge levels of analysis has significant potential to generate multiple compelling streams of theorizing in organization and management studies

Bearing Witness Stephanie N. Arel, 2023 Bearing Witness is a poignant account of the global movement to commemorate the dead at memorial museums Dr Stephanie Arel offers an insightful look into the professional lives of those who remember and an inspiring argument for tenderness when tending the wounds of mass trauma Alevis in Europe Tözün Issa, 2016-07-22 The Alevis are a significant minority in Turkey and now also in the countries of Western Europe Over the past century many of them have migrated from rural enclaves on the Anatolian plateau to the great cities of Istanbul and Ankara and from there to the countries of the European Union This book asks who are they How do they construct their identities now and in the past in Turkey and in Europe A range of scholars writing from sociological historical socio psychological and political perspectives present analysis and research that shows the Alevi communities grouping and regrouping defining and redefining sometimes as an ethnic minority sometimes as religious groups sometimes around a political philosophy contingently responding to circumstances of the Turkish Republic s political position and to the immigration policies of Western Europe Contributors consider Alevi roots and cultural practices in their villages of origin the changes in identity following the migration to the gecekondu shanty towns surrounding the cities of Turkey the changes consequent on their second diaspora to Germany the UK Sweden and other European countries and the implications of European citizenship for their identity This collection offers a new and significant contribution to the study of migration and minorities in the wider European context Agnon's Story Avner Falk, 2018-10-22 Agnon's Story is the first complete psychoanalytic biography of the Nobel Prize winning Hebrew writer S Y Agnon It investigates the hidden links between his stories and his biography Agnon was deeply ambivalent about the most important emotional objects of his life in particular

his father teacher his ailing depressive and symbiotic mother his emotionally fragile wife whom he named after her and his adopted home land of Israel Yet he maintained an incredible emotional resiliency and ability to sublimate his emotional pain into works of art This biography seeks to investigate the emotional character of his literary canon his ambivalence to his family and the underlying narcissistic grandiosity of his famous modesty Social Trauma - An Interdisciplinary

Extremists Massil Benbouriche, Martine Evans, 2019-07-15 Using France as a case study contributors from around the world explore the factors that create violent extremists including criminogenic needs violence supportive cognition religious beliefs identity uncertainty or fusion the quest for significance and social and political influences They present a multidisciplinary and evidenced based analysis of how and why violent extremism has reappeared as a contemporary issue and provide theoretical and practical approaches to responding to and when possible intervening using deradicalization programs deterrent and preventive legislations prison segregation and permanent monitoring Contesting Religious Identities Bob E.J.H. Becking, Anna-Marie J.A.C.M. Korte, Lucien van Liere, 2017-01-09 Religion is a hot topic on the public stages of secular societies not in its individualized liberal or orthodox form but rather as a public statement challenging the divide between the secular neutral space and the religious In this new challenging modus religion raises questions about identity power rationality subjectivity law and safety but above all religion questions contests and even blurs the borders between the public and the private These phenomena urge to rethink what are often considered to be clear differences between religions between the public and the private and between the religious and the secular In this volume scholars from a range of different disciplines map the different aspects of the dynamics of changing contesting and contested religious identities

Psychoanalytic Perspectives on a Turbulent World Halina Brunning, Mario Perini, 2018-05-08 This article is intended to contribute to our understanding of the December 2001 collapse of Enron The existing literature on Enron s demise falls largely into two broad areas involving either micro psychological explanations or macro accounts that emphasize the workplace and its environment this paper is an exploratory study that focuses on a new interpretation which links the two areas more closely together It is proposed that Enron s culture was influenced by both micro and macro factors an experience of unsuccessful paternal authority figures within the family history of Enron s leaders coupled with an experience of problematic government and regulatory regimes associated with the gas industry Drawing on concepts from psychoanalysis and its application to organizational dynamics it is argued that these micro and macro factors helped to generate an Oedipal mindset in Enron s leaders according to which external authority was seen to be weak and not worthy of respect and that this contributed to Enron s demise Implications for theory are examined Psychoanalysis, International Relations, and Diplomacy Vamik D. Volkan, 2018-05-15 The author has three goals in writing this book The first is to explore large group identity such as ethnic identity diplomacy political propaganda terrorism and the role of leaders in international affairs The second goal is to describe societal and political responses to trauma at the hands of the Other large group mourning and the appearance of the history of ancestors and its consequences The third goal is to expand theories of large group psychology in its own right and define concepts illustrating what happens when tens of thousands or millions of people share similar psychological journeys The author is a psychoanalyst who has been involved in unofficial diplomacy for thirty five years His interdisciplinary team has brought enemy representatives such as Israelis and Arabs Russians and Estonians Georgians and South Ossetians together for dialogue He has spent time in refugee camps and met many world leaders
