By reading Scripture, reflecting on its deeper meanings and incorporating it into our daily life, we can grow not only in our understanding of God's word but also in our relationship with God.

The Good News Of The Holy Spirit Kevin Perrotta, Gerald Darring, 2010-06 This Bible study for teens. Acts: The Good News of the Holy Spirit is an excellent way to introduce young adults to how the Church began. Like the early Jewish followers of Jesus, the Spirit leads us also into drama and conflict. God challenges us to change. He challenges us to move beyond a simplistic childhood understanding of him and develop a mature adult faith. He wishes us to serve him in new ways and summons us to go beyond our limited expectations of how much we might love, how selflessly we might serve, what suffering we might endure. He wishes us to experience his powerful help as we grow up. He wishes to work through us to make Jesus known. He wishes us to have an influence on the people around us. In all these respects, reading Acts leads us to question our lives and open our hearts to a new cooperation with the Spirit of God. Designed as a guided discovery, Six Weeks with the Bible for Catholic Teens introduces high school students to different books of the Bible by integrating the biblical text with insightful questions to help youth discern what Scripture means for their lives today. The series provides students with a clear explanation of Biblical text, opportunities for prayer, and a means to enter into conversation with God.

Luke Kevin Perrotta, Gerald Darring, 2010-06 The book of Luke has been described as one of the most beautiful books ever written, and Luke, The Good News of God's Mercy, brings this beauty to life for teens as they study the life of Jesus and what Jesus can mean for their lives. Luke's Gospel deals with the issue of being open to God's work through Jesus. Luke shows us that God has made salvation available through Jesus' birth, life, death, and resurrection. In many ways, God's action through Jesus was unexpected, even for the Jewish people of the time. The salvation Jesus brings goes far beyond what people were looking for. It also makes demands on those who accept it. So we meet people in Luke's Gospel who are astonished by Jesus. They are struggling to understand what Jesus was offering them and how they should respond. In the Gospel of Luke, we make contact with a will other than our own God shows that he is not a spectator god who made a DVD of the universe billions of years ago and now sits back to watch God has a loving plan God makes things happen It is this active involved God who comes to Mary and tells her about his plan for her in Luke's Gospel As we begin reading the Gospel of Luke are we prepared to meet this God Designed as a guided discovery Six Weeks with the Bible for Catholic Teens introduces high school students to books of the Bible by integrating the biblical text with insightful questions to help youth discern what Scripture means for their lives today The series provides students with a clear explanation of Biblical text opportunities for prayer and a means to enter into conversation with God

Jesus, Man of Prayer Kevin Perrotta, 2009-07-20 Jesus and prayer two topics that are inextricably linked together In Jesus Man of Prayer we learn about what it means to pray and how to do it by studying the way Jesus prayed Gain a greater understanding of Jesus and prayer as you work your way through this helpful and practical Bible study A Guided Discovery of the Bible The Bible invites us to explore God's word and reflect on how we might respond to it To do this we need guidance and the right tools for discovery The Six Weeks with the Bible series of Bible discussion guides offers both in a concise six week format Whether focusing on a specific biblical book or exploring a theme that runs throughout the Bible these practical guides in this series provide meaningful insights that explain Scripture while helping readers make connections to their own lives Each guide is faithful to Church teaching and is guided by sound biblical scholarship presents the insights of Church fathers and saints includes questions for discussion and reflection delivers information in a reader friendly format gives suggestions for prayer that help readers respond to God's word appeals to beginners as well as to advanced students of the Bible By reading Scripture reflecting on its deeper meanings and incorporating it into our daily life we can grow not only in our understanding of God's word but also in our relationship with God

Genesis 1-11 Kevin Perrotta, 2010-06 Genesis 1-11 God Makes a Start is an excellent Bible study resource for teens wanting a better understanding of how and why God created the world and why the earliest events of the Bible should matter to us today The stories of Adam and Eve of their sons Cain and Abel of the people who provoked the flood and those who built the tower of Babel all of these stories display our human tendency to overstep our limits as creatures to take control of our lives apart from God to treat one another unjustly The Genesis accounts tell us that our unhappiness stems from our failure to trust and obey our creator Against this background Jesus life and death emerge as a deliberate reversal of the deep rooted human tendency to distrust and disobey God Designed as a guided discovery Six Weeks with the Bible for Catholic Teens introduces high school students to books of the Bible by integrating the biblical text with insightful questions to help youth discern what Scripture means for their lives today The series provides students with a clear explanation of Biblical text opportunities for prayer and a means to enter into conversation with God

1 and 2 Thessalonians Paul Thigpen, 2010-06 1 and 2 Thessalonians takes a close look at Paul's advice to an early community of believers but the message of 1 and 2 Thessalonians can help all of us live out the Christian life today A Guided Discovery of the Bible The Bible invites us to
