The Faces of Time Jean Blacker,2014-10-01 The twelfth century witnessed the sudden appearance and virtual disappearance of an important literary genre the Old French verse chronicle These poetic histories of the British kings which today are treated as fiction were written contemporaneously with Latin prose narratives which are regarded as historical accounts In this pathfinding study however Jean Blacker asserts that twelfth century authors and readers viewed both genres as factual history Blacker examines four Old French verse chronicles Gaimar s Estoire des Engleis c 1135 Wace s Roman de Brut c 1155 and Roman de Rou c 1160 1174 and Beno t de Sainte Maure s Chronique des Ducs de Normandie c 1174 1180 and four Latin narratives William of Malmesbury s Gesta Regum c 1118 1143 and Historia Novella c 1140 1143 Orderic Vitalis s Historia Ecclesiastica c 1118 1140 and Geoffrey of Monmouth s Historia Regum Britanniae c 1138 She compares their similarity in three areas the authors stated intentions their methods of characterization and narrative development and the possible influences of patronage and audience expectation on the presentation of characters and events This exploration reveals remarkable similarity among the texts including their idealization of historical and even legendary figures such as King Arthur It opens fruitful lines of inquiry into the role these writers played in the creation of the Anglo Norman regnum and suggests that the Old French verse chronicles filled political psychic and aesthetic needs unaddressed by Latin historical writing of the period *The Freemason and Masonic Illustrated.
