The Planning Moment Sarah Blacker, Emily Brownell, Anindita Nag, Martina Schlünder, Sarah Van Beurden, 2024-05-07 Empires and their aftermaths were massive planning institutions in the past two hundred years the natural and social sciences emerged at least in part as modes of knowledge production for imperial planning Yet these connections are frequently under emphasized in the history of science and its corollary fields The Planning Moment explores the myriad ways plans and planning practices pervade recent global history The book is built around twenty seven brief case studies that explore the centrality of planning in colonial and postcolonial environments relationships and contexts through a range of disciplines the history of science science and technology studies colonial and postcolonial studies urban studies and the history of knowledge If colonialism made certain landscapes populations and institutions legible while obscuring others The Planning Moment reveals the frequently disruptive and violent processes of erasure in imperial planning by examining how common sense was produced and how the intransigence of planning persists long after decolonization In recognizing the resistance and subversion that often met colonial plans the book makes visible a range of strategies and techniques by which planning was modified and reappropriated and by which decolonial futures might be imagined Contributors Itty Abraham Benjamin Allen Sarah Blacker Emily Brownell Lino Camprub John DiMoia Mona Fawaz Lilly Irani Chihyung Jeon Robert Kett Monika Kirloskar Steinbach Karen McAllister Laura Mitchell Gregg Mitman Aaron Moore Nada Moumtaz Tahani Nadim Anindita Nag Ra l Necochea L pez Tamar Novick Benjamin Peters Juno Salazar Parre as Martina Schl nder Sarah Van Beurden Helen Verran Ana Carolina Vimieiro Gomes Alexandra Widmer and Alden Young

The Architecture of Downtown Troy Diana S. Waite, 2019-09-01 Winner of the 2021 Antoinette Forrester Downing Book Award presented by the Society of Architectural Historians Winner of the 2020 Excellence in Historic Preservation Award presented by the Preservation League of New York State Located about 150 miles north of Manhattan on the east bank of the Hudson River the city of Troy New York was once an industrial giant It led the nation in iron production throughout much of the nineteenth century and its factories turned out bells and cast iron stoves that were sold the world over Its population was both enterprising and civic minded Along with Troy s economic success came the public commercial educational residential and religious buildings to prove it Stores banks churches firehouses and schools both modest and sophisticated sprouted up in the latest architectural styles creating a lively and fashionable downtown Row houses and brownstones for the middle class and the wealthy rivaled those in Brooklyn and Manhattan By the mid twentieth century however Troy had dwindled in both prominence and population Downtown stagnated leaving building facades and interiors untouched often for decades A late blooming urban renewal program demolished many blocks of buildings but preservationists fought back Today reinvestment is accelerating and Troy now boasts what the New York Times has called one of the most perfectly preserved nineteenth century downtowns in the United States This book tells the stories behind the many handsome and significant buildings in downtown Troy and how they were designed and constructed stories that have never been pulled together before For the first time in generations scores of Troy buildings are again linked with their architects some local but others from out of town the starchitects of their day and even from Europe In addition to numerous historic images the book also includes contemporary photographs by local photographer Gary Gold This book will inform delight and surprise readers thereby helping to build an educated constituency for the preservation of an important American city
