Mary and Martha

What does God want from us? How much do we need to do to earn His favor? The truth is, there's nothing we can or should do to please God. He looks us for who we are and wants to spend time with us and hear from us. Children might not be as "busy" or overwhelmed as adults but can still benefit from remembering that Jesus values our time and calls us to slow down and rest in Him.

Lesson Focus: In this lesson, students will hear the story of Martha and Mary, and learn from it the importance of taking time to spend with Jesus and listening for His voice. Though a seemingly short and simple passage, it communicates powerful truths that children can carry with them long-term.

Scripture Passage: Luke 10:38-42

Target Students: Elementary School, adaptable for 4-12th Grades

Materials Needed: Construction paper, decorative materials, paper plates, glue, food followers, scissors, Bible (all optional, depending which activities you choose to use—except for the Bible, you need that for sure). Object lesson props could include cleaning items or things used to do chores, paper.

Love/Gospel Theme: God created us to be "human beings", not "human doings"! In the eyes of Jesus, it does not matter how much we do for Him, but rather that we spend time with Him. We can do all sorts of activities for and with the church, but that does not win us salvation or "heavenly points" by any means. Jesus took care of the costs, and wants us to spend time with Him, listening to His voice and sitting in His presence. The story of these two sisters reminds us that the most important thing we can do is accept and embrace His genuine grace.
