Bauermeister Thomas Köster, 2020-04 Born in Frankfurt am Main in 1934 Mary Bauermeister is widely regarded as the mother of the Fluxus movement which had been developing since the 1950s but was galvanized by a series of gatherings Bauermeister held at her studio near Cologne starting in 1960 In the years that followed she became world renowned for her lens boxes and stone spirals while remaining closely associated with Fluxus Today Bauermeister's works are represented in major museums around the world including the Museum of Modern Art and the Guggenheim Museum in New York This magnificent volume offers a beautiful illustrated guided tour of Bauermeister's enchanting studio and garden where she created the works that made her name The artist meticulously designed the house and garden over a period of almost 50 years employing fantastic elements such as cottages towers circus wagons her own art works and the works of many other artists The photographer Thomas Köster documented Bauermeister's fairy tale property over the course of many years resulting in a unique and fascinating publication

A Book about Ray Ellen Levy, 2024-10-15 The first full career survey of the idiosyncratic life and work of Ray Johnson a collagist performance artist and pioneer of mail art Ray Johnson 1927-1995 a New York's most famous unknown artist was notorious for the elaborate games he played with the institutions of the art world soliciting their attention even as he rejected their invitations In A Book about Ray Ellen Levy offers a comprehensive study of the artist who turned the business of career making into a tongue in cheek performance tracing his artistic development from his arrival at Black Mountain College in 1945 to his death in 1995 Levy describes Johnson's practice as one that was constantly shifting whether in tone in its address to potential audiences or among three primary artistic modes collage performance and correspondence art A Book about Ray takes an elliptical path circling around rather than trying to arrest in flight the elusive artist and his purposefully ephemeral art By crafting the book in this way Levy evokes Ray Johnson's art in the moment of its making and draws readers into the artist's world while making them feel from the beginning that they somehow already know their way around that world In exploring Johnson's scene readers will also encounter the artists who influenced him like Joseph Cornell and Marcel Duchamp and his friends and peers like Jasper Johns Allan Kaprow Robert Rauschenberg and Andy Warhol The work of such figures will look forever different in light of Johnson's subversive take on their shared aesthetic Suitable for readers both new to Ray Johnson and those already familiar with his work A Book about Ray is a complete and vital portrait of an American original
