Masks In The Mirror Marranism In Jewish Experience:

Masks in the Mirror Norman Toby Simms, 2006 Sephardic Jews who voluntarily or forcibly converted to Catholicism in the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries to avoid persecution or expulsion were known as conversos or New Christians Some tried to live the double life of a Crypto Jew outwardly embracing Christianity while secretly maintaining Jewish practices Others were in a state that was neither Jewish nor Christian and as painful and humiliating as it was these Marranos a term for conversos that became abusive actually created a new kind of modern personality By tracing the usage of this disparaging term Masks in the Mirror also explores the nature of the historical circumstances as it becomes evident that anyone living under these circumstances constantly threatened and persecuted by the Inquisition and suspected of being heretics and untrustworthy by their Christian colleagues and neighbors could be driven to a state of madness Focusing on families and childrearing this book attempts to grasp the structures of feeling that created such madness which while debilitating could often be creative and exciting especially among poets playwrights and novelists It looks at the play of masks the secrecy and the illusion that Marranos experienced daily which some attempted to exorcise in their writings and it explores the possibility of applying the concept of Marranism generically

Jews in an Illusion of Paradise Norman Simms, 2018-01-23 These further six chapters of Jews in an Illusion of Paradise now focus on individual exemplary figures and clusters of poets dramatists critics journalists art historians Jews whose achievements were once celebrated but now are almost all but forgotten not because of changes in aesthetic taste or style but because of social political and other ideological issues The book continues to examine the clash between their conscious and unconscious self presentation as Jews in a culture that wilfully or inadvertently misunderstood or rejected this aspect of otherness the men and women represented from the mid nineteenth to the mid twentieth centuries Whereas the first volume concentrated on the themes images and rhetorical motifs of this awkward status of Jewish intellectuals and artists here the ambiguous personalities and repressed anxieties of the exemplary figures are stressed For millennia Jews were considered outside of normal history passive victims of persecution then suddenly with Emancipation they fell into history and out of their mythical place in the scheme of things Everything seemed to crumble into dust and ashes

Re-envisioning Jewish Identities Efraim Sicher, 2021-08-30 This innovative study shows how the imaginary constructions of self and Other are shaping identification with Jewishness in the twenty first century The texts and artworks discussed in this book test a diverse range of ways of identifying as Jews and with the Jewish people while engaging with postmodern and postcolonial discourses of hybridity and multiculturalism This book selects six key areas in which the boundaries of Jewish identities have been interrogated and renegotiated nation ethnicity gender sexuality religion and the Holocaust In each of these areas Sicher explores how major and emerging contemporary writers and artists re envision the meaning of their identities Such re envisioning may be literally visual or metaphorical in the search for expression of artistic self between the conventional paradigms of the past and new ways of thinking and Collaboration in Medieval Iberia Kim Bergqvist, Kurt Villads Jensen, Anthony John Lappin, 2020-06-12 Studies of conflict in medieval history and related disciplines have recently come to focus on wars feuds rebellions and other violent matters While those issues are present here to form a backdrop this volume brings other forms of conflict in this period to the fore With these assembled essays on conflict and collaboration in the Iberian Peninsula it provides an insight into key aspects of the historical experience of the Iberian kingdoms during the Middle Ages Ranging in focus from the fall of the Visigothic kingdom and the arrival of significant numbers of Berber settlers to the functioning of the Spanish Inquisition right at the end of the Middle Ages the articles gathered here look both at cross ethnic and interreligious meetings in hostility or fruitful cohabitation The book does not however forget intra communal relations and consideration is given to the mechanisms within religious and ethnic groupings by which conflict was channeled and occasionally collaboration could ensue Contemporary Jewish Writing Andrea Reiter, 2013-11-12 This book examines Jewish writers and intellectuals in Austria analyzing filmic and electronic media alongside more traditional publication formats over the last 25 years Beginning with the Waldheim affair and the rhetorical response by the three most prominent members of the survivor generation Leon Zelman Simon Wiesenthal and Bruno Kreisky author Andrea Reiter sets a complicated standard for who is Jewish and what constitutes a Jewish response She reformulates the concepts of religious and secular Jewish cultural expression cutting across gender and Holocaust studies The work proceeds to questions of enacting or performing identity especially Jewish identity in the Austrian setting looking at how these Jewish writers and filmmakers in Austria perform their Jewishness not only in their public appearances and engagements but also in their works By engaging with novels poems and films this volume challenges the dominant claim that Jewish culture in Central Europe is almost exclusively borne by non Jews and consumed by non Jewish audiences establishing a new counter discourse against resurging anti-Semitism in the media A Jewish Jesuit in the Eastern Mediterranean Robert Clines, 2019-10-17 Recounts a Jewish born Catholic priest's effort to prove he was Catholic to anyone who doubted him including himself Jewish Studies and the Gospel of St John Zev Garber, Kenneth L. Hanson, 2025-02-03 The present book projects a themed article collection relating to Jews and the Gospel of John Topics explore the Fourth Gospel in regard to the origins of Christian anti-Judaism antisemitism though other exegetical treatments from a Jewish frame of reference are presented By exploring this topic across time and place this collection aims to provide an historical context for understanding not only the Jewish Jesus but the specific framework in which Johannine Christianity was tied intrinsically to ancient Judaism while simultaneously distancing itself of Jewish thought and culture The implications for Jewish Christian dialogue are clear and it is hoped that the ensuing discussion will greatly enhance interfaith dialogue on the impact of sacred texts on different people groups in the modern era Swimming the Christian Atlantic (2 vols) Jonathan Schorsch, 2009-09-30 Scholarship on the formation of the Atlantic world through contributions from Europe Africa and the Americas has grown in recent decades The results offer new understandings of the transformations in ethnic and religious identity faced by peoples from all the surrounding continents Long used by scholars of Jewish studies records from the Spanish and Portuguese Inquisitions have become an important source for historians of Africans and Amerindians in the Iberian colonial orbit Using these and other materials this book explores race religion and politics among three newly and incompletely Christianized groups in the seventeenth century Judeoconversos Afroiberians and Amerindians This fresh cross cultural analysis brings these differing trajectories into dialogue Derrida's Marrano Passover Agata

Bielik-Robson,2022-12-15 In this first ever monograph on Jacques Derrida s Toledo confession where he portrayed himself as sort of a Marrano of the French Catholic culture Agata Bielik Robson shows Derrida s marranismo to be a literary experiment of auto fiction She looks at all possible aspects of Derrida s Marrano identification in order to demonstrate that it ultimately constitutes a trope of non identitarian evasion that permeates all his works just as Marranos cannot be characterized as either Jewish or Christian so is Derrida s universal Marranism an invitation to think philosophically politically and last but not least metaphysically without rigid categories of identity and belonging By concentrating on Derrida s deliberate choice of marranismo Bielik Robson shows that it penetrates deep into the very core of his late thinking constantly drawing on the literary works of Kafka Celan Joyce Cixous and Val ry and throws a new light on his early works most of all Of Grammatology Dissemination and Diff rance She also offers a completely new interpretation of many of Derrida s works only seemingly non related to the Marrano issue like Glas Given Time Counterfeit Money Death Penalty Seminar and Specters of Marx In these new readings this book demonstrates that the Marrano Derrida is not a marginal auto biographical figure overshadowed by Derrida the Philosopher it is one and the same thinker who discovered marranismo as a literary trope of openness offering up a new genre of philosophical story telling which centers around Derrida s Marrano auto fable A Tale Blazed Through

Heaven Oliver James Noble Wood,2014 A Tale Blazed Through Heaven examines developments in the representation of the classical tale of Mars Venus and Vulcan in the literature and painting of the Golden Age of Spain c 1526 1681 Anchored in close analysis of individual primary texts the five chapters that comprise this study assess how poets and painters breathed new life into the tale inherited from Homer Ovid and others examining some of the ways in which the story of Mars Venus and Vulcan was disguised developed expanded mocked combined with or played off against different subjects or otherwise modified in order to pique the interest of successive generations of readers and viewers Each chapter discusses what particular changes and shifts in emphasis reveal about the tale itself specific renderings the aims and intentions of individual poets and painters and the wider context of the literary and visual culture of Early Modern Spain Discussing a range of poems by both canonical Garcilaso de la Vega Luis de Gongora Lope de Vega etc and less well known writers Juan de la Cueva Alonso de Castillo Solorzano Salvador Jacinto Polo de Medina etc and culminating in detailed examination of select mythological works by Philip IV s court painter Diego Velazquez this book sheds light on questions relating to aspects of classical reception in the Renaissance the rise of specific poetic styles epic mock epic burlesque etc the interplay between the sister arts of poetry and painting and the continual process of imitation and invention that was one of the defining features of the Spanish Golden Age

The Evolution of Chinese Filiality Deborah Lynn Porter, 2022-03-10 This unique book brings a fresh interdisciplinary approach to the analysis of ancient Chinese history creating a historical model for the emergence of cultural mainstays by applying recent dramatic findings in the fields of neuroscience and cultural evolution The centrality in Chinese culture of a deep reverence for the lives of preceding generations filial piety is conventionally attributed to Confucius 551 479 B C who viewed hierarchical family relations as foundational for social order Here Porter argues that Confucian conceptions of filiality themselves evolved from a systemized set of behaviors and thoughts a mental structure which descended from a specific Neolithic mindset and that this psychological structure was contoured by particular emotional conditions experienced by China's earliest farmers Using case study analysis from Neolithic sky observers to the dynastic cultures of the Shang and Western Zhou the book shows how filial piety evolved as a structure of feeling a legacy of a cultural predisposition toward particular moods and emotions that were inherited from the ancestral past Porter also brings new urgency to the topic of ecological grief linking the distress central to the evolution of the filial structure to its catalyst in an environmental crisis With a blended multidisciplinary approach combining social neuroscience cultural evolution cognitive archaeology and historical analysis this book is ideal for students and researchers in neuropsychology religion and Chinese culture and history

La Lettre Sépharade ,2005 Marranos on the Moradas Norman Toby Simms,2009 Simms redefines the study of two often misunderstood religious groups the Marranos who claim descent from the persecuted Spanish Jews forced to convert to Catholicism yet who practiced Jewish rituals secretly and the Penitentes a Catholic group accused of violent acts of self flagellation and other forms of masochism
