In Translation □ Reflections, Refractions, Transformations Paul St-Pierre, Prafulla C. Kar, 2007-05-16 With contributions by researchers from India Europe North America and the Caribbean In Translation Reflections refractions transformations touches on questions of method and on topics including copyright cultural hybridity globalization identity construction and minority languages which are important for the disciplinary development of translation studies but also of interest to other fields as well most notably comparative literature cultural studies and world literature The volume provides a forum for new voices to be heard alongside those of well established scholars and for current concerns to express themselves often focusing on practices in areas of the world other than Europe or North America which have until now tended to dominate the field Acknowledging difference and celebrating it the contributions conceive of translation as a process which reconstitutes and transforms which brings renewal and growth an interaction in a new context a new reading a new writing

English and British Fiction, 1750-1820 Peter Garside, Karen Elisabeth O'Brien, 2015 This series presents a comprehensive global and up to date history of English language prose fiction and written by a international team of scholars dust jacket Scale, Crisis, and the Modern Novel Aaron Rosenberg, 2023-11-09 At the turn of the twentieth century novelists faced an unprecedented crisis of scale While exponential increases in industrial production resource extraction and technological complexity accelerated daily life growing concerns about deep time evolution globalization and extinction destabilised scale's value as a measure of reality Here Aaron Rosenberg examines how four novelists moved radically beyond novelistic realism repurposing the genres romance melodrama gothic and epic it had ostensibly superseded He demonstrates how H G Wells Thomas Hardy Joseph Conrad and Virginia Woolf engaged with climatic and ecological crises that persist today requiring us to navigate multiple temporal and spatial scales simultaneously The volume shows that problems of scale constrain our responses to crisis by shaping the linguistic aesthetic and narrative structures through which we imagine it This title is part of the Flip it Open Programme and may also be available Open Access Check our website Cambridge Core for details

Uncommon Contexts: Encounters between

Science and Literature, 1800-1914 Ben Marsden, Hazel Hutchinson, Ralph O'Connor, 2016-09-12 Britain in the long nineteenth century developed an increasing interest in science of all kinds Whilst poets and novelists took inspiration from technical and scientific innovations those directly engaged in these new disciplines relied on literary techniques to communicate their discoveries to a wider audience The essays in this collection uncover this symbiotic relationship between literature and science at the same time bridging the disciplinary gulf between the history of science and literary studies Specific case studies include the engineering language used by Isambard Kingdom Brunel the role of physiology in the development of the sensation novel and how mass communication made people lonely

Formation of Periodical Authorship in 1920s

Korea Jae-Yon Lee, 2023-06-06 Formation of Periodical Authorship in 1920s Korea argues that Korean authors who entered the literary scene during modern literature's formative years were the subject mediated by periodicals However it has been difficult to substantiate this statement because periodicals including magazines were open to different groups of writers various social literary religious and cultural discourses and dissimilar genres The multi level interactions between terms knowledge and writing styles in circulation unfolded at a larger scale at some times and at other times in such an ordinary manner that one can hardly identify and synthesize them to make any sense Employing not only conventional close reading but also modes of distant reading developing out of cultural analytics Lee investigates the specific ways in which patterns of social semantic and stylistic interactions in Korea's major magazines configured three kinds of authorship namely the narcissistic author the prophetic critic and the everyday reviewer He rereads artist stories leftist social discourses religious cosmology and joint reviews through quantitative analyses and offers an engaging account on the importance of repetitions in creating literary originality This book extends periodical studies through cultural analytics and opens up a new horizon for the next generation of literary scholars seeking innovative experiments in a digital age

Cartographies of Culture

Damian Walford Davies, 2012-06-15 Cartographies of Culture New Geographies of Welsh Writing in English offers a pioneering new examination of the links between maps and imaginative writing Concerned to draw literary studies and geography into a fruitful dialogue the book offers a genuinely interdisciplinary study of literary texts in relation to the spatialities of culture Taking the anglophone literature of Wales as its main data field the book offers a boldly imaginative and stringently theorised analysis of five literary maps What emerges is nothing less than a new way of reading literature through and as maps

The Oxford Critical and Cultural History of Modernist Magazines Peter Brooker, Andrew

Thacker, 2009-03-26 The first full study of the role of little magazines and their contribution to the making of artistic modernism A major scholarly achievement of immense value to teachers researchers and students interested in the material culture of the first half of the 20th century and the relation of the arts to social modernity

East Meets West

Reiko Aiura, J. U. Jacobs, 2014-06-30 The 13th International Conference on the Literature of Region and Nation held at Biwako in Shiga Prefecture Japan in the summer of 2010 fully maintained the tradition established in this long running conference series of bringing together scholars from many countries and many fields of specialisation Although the conferences have taken place in widely scattered locations this was the first to be held in an Asian country and the opportunity this presented of focusing on the cultural links between East and West was taken up enthusiastically by the participants Several of the papers explore aspects sometimes unexpected of the cultural cross fertilisation between Japan or the Orient in general and the national literatures of the West Others concentrate on iconic figures from regions of the English speaking world with strongly developed individual literary traditions All the papers have been peer reviewed and extensively revised in order to maximise their impact in the written word The collection demonstrates the stimulating effect of cross cultural interaction in the field of literary studies of East and West

What Is a World? Pheng Cheah, 2015-12-17 In What Is a World Pheng Cheah a leading theorist of cosmopolitanism offers the first critical consideration of world literature's cosmopolitan vocation Addressing the failure of recent theories of world literature to inquire about the meaning of world Cheah articulates a normative theory of literature's world making power by creatively synthesizing four philosophical accounts of the world as a temporal process idealism Marxist materialism phenomenology and deconstruction Literature opens worlds he provocatively suggests because it is a force of receptivity Cheah compellingly argues for postcolonial literature's exemplarity as world literature through readings of narrative fiction by Michelle Cliff Amitav Ghosh Nuruddin Farah Ninotchka Rosca and Timothy Mo that show how these texts open up new possibilities for remaking the world by negotiating with the inhuman force that gives time and deploying alternative temporalities to resist capitalist globalization

Counterblasting Canada Gregory Betts, Paul Hjartarson, Kristine Smitka, 2016-07-07 In 1914 Wyndham Lewis and Ezra Pound the founders of vorticism undertook an unprecedented analysis of the present its technologies communication politics and architecture The essays in Counterblasting Canada trace the influence of vorticism on Marshall McLuhan and Canadian Modernism Building on the initial accomplishment of the magazine Blast McLuhan's subsequent Counterblast and the network of artistic and intellectual relationships that flourished in Canadian vorticism the contributors offer groundbreaking examinations of postwar Canadian literary culture particularly the legacies of Sheila and Wilfred Watson Intended primarily for scholars of literature and communications Counterblasting Canada explores a crucial and long overlooked strand in Canadian cultural and literary history Contributors Gregory Betts Adam Hammond Paul Hjartarson Dean Irvine Elena Lamberti Philip Monk Linda M Morra Kristine Smitka Leon Surette Paul Tiessen Adam Welch Darren Wershler
