

An illustration of a woman with long, wavy red hair, seen in profile from the waist up. She is wearing a light blue, sleeveless dress with a green floral pattern. She is looking out of a window with dark brown shutters. Her right hand is raised, touching the shutters. The background outside the window is a bright green. To the right of the window, there is a red wall with a dark brown floral pattern. The title 'GREEN WATER GREEN SKY' is written in green capital letters on white rectangular banners. The author's name 'Mavis Gallant' is written in green capital letters on a white rectangular banner at the bottom.

Green Water Green Sky:

Green Water, Green Sky Mavis Gallant, 1983 A Fairly Good Time and Green Water, Green Sky Mavis

Gallant, 2016-04-26 AN NYRB CLASSICS ORIGINAL Mavis Gallant's novels are as memorable as her renowned short stories. Full of wit and psychological poignancy, A Fairly Good Time here with Green Water Green Sky encapsulates Gallant's unparalleled skill as a storyteller. Shirley Perrigny, née Norrington, then briefly Higgins, the heroine of A Fairly Good Time is an original. Derided by the Parisians she lives among and chided by her fellow Canadians, this young widow recently remarried to a French journalist named Philippe is fond of quoting Jane Austen and Kingsley Amis and of using her myopia as a defense against social aggression. As the fixed points in Shirley's life begin to recede, Philippe, having apparently though not definitively left her, freewheeling makeshift and self-abnegating ways come to seem an aspect of devotion to her fellow man. Could this unreliable protagonist be the unwitting heroine of her own story? Green Water Green Sky Gallant's first novel is a darker tale of the fractured family life of Bonnie McCarthy, an American divorcee and her daughter Flor. Uprooted and unmoored, mother and daughter live like itinerants in Venice, Cannes, and Paris, glamorous and dependent. With little hope of escape, Flor attempts to flee this untidy life and the false notes of her mother. A Fairly Good Time and Green Water, Green Sky Mavis Gallant, 2016-04-26 AN NYRB CLASSICS ORIGINAL

Sampson, 2016-05-12 The Found Voice Writers Beginnings uses the means of literary biography and criticism to do something rarely attempted: to understand how a key creative period establishes the authoritative voice of a unique artist. The essays, which explore this hidden process of the writer writing, focus on some of the major writers of recent times: V. S. Naipaul, J. M. Coetzee, Alice Munro, William Trevor, and Mavis Gallant. The focus of investigation is a single work by each author, and many of them identify the book in which this turning point was reached. The writers have a somewhat different sense of what the voice is: a true voice, the voice in the mind, the writing voice, etc. Yet all of them accept the phrase "finding a voice" as a decisive and necessary process towards a unique style and vision their raison d'être as artists These essays allow each one to define his or her sense of the process of writing and their style is exploratory Nevertheless certain patterns emerge of migration and cultural displacement of linguistic self consciousness of memory and a reimagining of the first home of absorbing and rejecting mentors and models Crucially the essays rely not just on what led up to the moment of creation but on a sense of the career that emerged from it Most of the writers have written retrospectively in memoirs interviews or essays about the pivotal work and its foundational significance They are the best witnesses to the process although their silence or their commentary is understood in terms of the many strands of the narrative that each essay presents Mavis Gallant on her work - I wanted to live in Paris. I wanted to write fiction. And I wanted to live on it and in it ,

Learning to Look Lesley Diana Clement,2000 In Learning to Look Lesley Clement traces the evolution of Mavis Gallant's visually evocative style through five decades of her short fictional works Gallant explores the boundaries between visible and invisible worlds as the lines shapes and colours suggested by her allusions analogies and structures challenge us as readers Figuring Grief Karen E. Smythe,1992-11-09 The title Figuring Grief refers to the narrative process whereby mourning is depicted In her textual analysis Smythe explores various connections between representation and consolation Drawing on genre and narratological theory she outlines the development of the fiction elegy as a sub genre and suggests that the modernist writings of Woolf and Joyce are paradigmatic examples of the form She then uses these paradigms as suggestive reading models for the interpretation of works by Gallant Munro and other contemporary fiction elegists Figuring Grief offers new readings of specific works and suggests that new ways of reading are both demanded and rewarded by a poetics of elegy

Les Belles Étrangères Jane Koustas,2008-03-10 While translation history in Canada is well documented the history of the translation of Canadian fiction outside the nation remains obscure Les Belles étrangères examines the translation of Canadian English language fiction in France This book considers the history of this practice the reasons for the move away from Quebec translators as well as the process and perils involved in this detour Within a theoretical framework and drawing on primary sources this study considers the historical theoretical and concrete aspects of this practice through the study of the translations of authors such as Robertson Davies Carol Shields Margaret Atwood Michael Ondaatje Ann Marie MacDonald and Alistair MacLeod The book also includes a comprehensive bibliography of English language novels poetry and plays published and translated in France over the past 240 years

Mavis Gallant Marta Dvorak,2019-11-04 With a confidante's insights Marta Dvo k sets up an innovative connection between Mavis Gallant's dazzling writing and the whole spectrum of the arts She simultaneously engages with the feats of art making and the adventures of reading looking and listening Drawing on private correspondence and conversations with the Gallant she repositions as a late modernist Dvo k investigates the relationships between the Paris based master of the short story and visual and sound culture Through the filter of philosophical aesthetics she identifies the painterly cinematic and musical dynamics which light up Gallant's craft At the same time she opens a dialogue between Gallant and other international modernists and with those they were reading watching and listening to from the moving pictures which shaped Gallant's generation to the rhythm and dissonance of say Stravinsky and jazz which like the Cubist rupture with spatial perspective spearheaded modernity's aesthetics of breakage How does Gallant's work work Dvořák's hands on rhetorical analyses of Gallant's stories and lesser known recently reissued novels illuminate the superb stylist's language and vision via an emphasis on both image and rhythm Providing keys to Gallant's famous sleights of hand and tonal shifts the discussions reveal a fictional world as multidimensional as a Cubist picture or a symphony depending on whether we lean towards the eye or the ear Katalin Street Magda Szabo, 2017-09-12 FINALIST FOR THE 2017 PEN TRANSLATION PRIZE From the author of The Door selected as one of the New York Times 10 Best Books of 2015 this is a heartwrenching tale about a group of friends and lovers torn apart by the German occupation of Budapest during World War II In prewar Budapest three families live side by side on gracious Katalin Street their lives closely intertwined A game is played by the four children in which Blint the promising son of the Major invariably chooses Irén Elekes the headmaster's dutiful elder daughter over her younger sister the scatterbrained Blanka and little Henriette Held the daughter of the Jewish dentist Their lives are torn apart in 1944 by the German occupation which only the Elekes family survives intact The postwar regime relocates them to a cramped Soviet style apartment and they struggle to come to terms with social and political change personal loss and unstated feelings of guilt over the deportation of the Held parents and the death of little Henriette who had been left in their protection But the girl survives in a miasmal afterlife and reappears at key moments as a mute witness to the inescapable power of past events As in The Door and Iza's Ballad Magda Szabo conducts a clear eyed investigation into the ways in which we inflict suffering on those we love Katalin Street which won the 2007 Prix Cennelles for Best European novel is a poignant somber at times harrowing book but beautifully conceived and truly unforgettable

The Language of Color in China Jun Zhou, Gail Taylor, 2019-01-17 This is the first book to explore color history in Asia Color is a natural phenomenon and a fundamental element of the universe and offers a medium to communicate with others globally It is a language of signals such as traffic lights signs or symbols and an essential part of society Color attracts people's attention and transmits important information As such color language denotes all of the activities of human history and has been associated with changes in society economic development and dynasties replacing the old with the new The book brings together many elements of Chinese history with reference to the topic of color and has evolved from the authors respective interests in art and design teaching and research consultancy and publishing The topic will be of increasing importance in the future as a consequence of China's increasing influence in the sphere of global culture For practitioners of art and design the book will be a valuable resource for the general public interested in the development of Chinese aesthetics over the centuries it will provide a new perspective complementary to existing studies about art design and the history of the region Jupiter Williams S.I. Martin, 2011-05-05 London 1800

Jupiter is young black living at the African Academy in Clapham with other boys from wealthy Sierra Leonean families His life is a mixture of privilege and dispossession as he copes with the cruelty of his teachers the rivalries and tensions among his schoolmates a sense of duty towards his younger brother Robert and guilt over the death of another brother in Africa Throughout Jupiter strives to maintain his dignity his Christian faith and pride in his roots But beyond the relative ease of Clapham lies another London where poor black communities struggle for survival along the squalid reaches of the Thames A world where Jupiter s education and background mean nothing and skin colour alone determines fate Into this world his younger brother Robert vanishes and Jupiter is obliged to follow

Compulsory Games Robert Aickman, 2018-05-08 The best and most interesting stories by Robert Aickman a master of the supernatural tale the uncanny and the truly weird Robert Aickman s self described strange stories are confoundingly and uniquely his own These superbly written tales terrify not with standard thrills and gore but through a radical overturning of the laws of nature and everyday life His territory of the strange of the void behind the face of order is a surreal region that grotesquely mimics the quotidian Is that river the Thames or is it even a river What does it mean when a prospective lover removes one dress and then another and then another Does a herd of cows in a peaceful churchyard contain the souls of jilted women preparing to trample a cruel lover to death Published for the first time under one cover the stories in this collection offer an unequaled introduction to a profoundly original modern master of the uncanny

Inhuman Land Jozef Czapski, 2018-12-18 A classic work of reportage about the Katy Massacre during World War II by a soldier who narrowly escaped the atrocity himself In 1941 when Germany turned against the USSR tens of thousands of Poles men women and children who were starving sickly and impoverished were released from Soviet prison camps and allowed to join the Polish Army being formed in the south of Russia One of the survivors who made the difficult winter journey was the painter and reserve officer J zef Czapski General Anders the army s commander in chief assigned Czapski the task of receiving the Poles arriving for military training gathering accounts of what their fates had been organizing education culture and news for the soldiers and most important investigating the disappearance of thousands of missing Polish officers Blocked at every level by the Soviet authorities Czapski was unaware that in April 1940 many officers had been shot dead in Katyn forest a crime for which Soviet Russia never accepted responsibility Czapski s account of the years following his release from the camp and the formation of the Polish Army and its arduous trek through Central Asia and the Middle East to fight on the Italian front offers a stark depiction of Stalin s Russia at war and of the suffering stoicism and bravery of his fellow Poles A work of clear observation and deep compassion Inhuman Land is one of the twentieth century s indispensable acts of literary witness

Peach Blossom Paradise Ge Fei, 2020-12-08 An enthralling story of revolution idealism and a savage struggle for utopia by one of China s greatest living novelists In 1898 reformist intellectuals in China persuaded the young emperor that it was time to transform his sclerotic empire into a prosperous modern state The Hundred Days Reform that followed was a moment of unprecedented change and extraordinary hope brought to an abrupt end by a bloody military coup Dashed expectations would contribute to the revolutionary turn that Chinese history would soon take leading in time to the deaths of millions Peach Blossom Paradise set at the time of the reform is the story of Xiumi the daughter of a wealthy landowner and former government official who falls prey to insanity and disappears Days later a man with a gold cicada in his pocket turns up at his estate and is inexplicably welcomed as a relative This mysterious man has a great vision of reforging China as an egalitarian utopia and he will stop at nothing to make it real It is his own plans however which come to nothing and his little sister Xiumi is left to take up arms against a Confucian world in which women are chattel Her campaign for change and her struggle to seize control over her own body are continually threatened by the violent whims of men who claim to be building paradise

Blood Dark Louis Guilloux, 2017-10-17 Set during World War I this monumental philosophical novel about human despair inspired Albert Camus own writing and prefigured the greater existential movement Blood Dark tells the story of a brilliant philosopher trapped in a provincial town and of his spiraling descent into self destruction Cripure as his students call him the name a mocking contraction of Critique of Pure Reason despises his colleagues despairs of his charges and is at odds with his family The year is 1917 and the slaughter of the First World War goes on and on with French soldiers not only dying in droves but also beginning to rise up in protest Still haunted by the memory of the wife who left him long ago Cripure turns his fury and scathing wit on everyone around him Before he knows it a trivial dispute with a complacently patriotic colleague has embroiled him in a duel

History is Our Mother: Three Libretti Alice Goodman, 2017-07-18 The first appearance of Alice Goodman s two internationally renowned and controversial libretti alongside one of her masterful translations An NYRB Classics Original Nixon in China and The Death of Klinghoffer played a crucial role in bringing opera back to life as a contemporary art form and they have been popular and in the case of Klinghoffer highly controversial ever since they were first staged by the director Peter Sellars in the eighties and nineties Both operas were conceived from the start as collaborations between composer and writer and their power is due as much to the dazzlingly constructed and deeply felt libretti of the poet Alice Goodman as they are to John Adams s music Nixon in China is a story at once heroic comic and unnerving of men and women making history and of their different conceptions of what history is and what it means to makes it Klinghoffer by contrast has at its center the tragedy of an innocent man condemned at the cost of his life to play a part in history History Is Our Mother which takes its title from a line sung by the title character in Nixon in China brings Goodman s two libretti together for the first time in book form Included alongside Goodman s no less inspired translation of Emanuel Schikaneder s famous libretto to The Magic Flute these vivid dramas of character and searching meditations on fate are here revealed as among the most original ambitious and accomplished poetic achievements of our time

In a Lonely Place Dorothy B. Hughes, 2017-08-15 A classic California noir with a feminist twist this prescient 1947 novel exposed misogyny in post World War II American society making it far ahead of its time Los Angeles in the late 1940s is a city of promise and prosperity but not for former fighter pilot Dix Steele To his mind nothing has come close to matching that feeling of power and exhilaration and freedom that came with loneliness in the sky He prowls the foggy city night bus stops and stretches of darkened beaches and movie houses just emptying out seeking solitary young women His funds are running out and his frustrations are growing Where is the good life he was promised Why does he always get a raw deal Then he hooks up with his old Air Corps buddy Brub now working for the LAPD who just happens to be on the trail of the strangler who's been terrorizing the women of the city for months Written with controlled elegance Dorothy B Hughes's tense novel is at once an early indictment of a truly toxic masculinity and a twisty page turner with a surprisingly feminist resolution A classic of golden age noir In a Lonely Place also inspired Nicholas Ray's 1950 film of the same name starring Humphrey Bogart

Difficult Women David Plante, 2017-09-26 David Plante's dazzling portraits of three influential women in the literary world now back in print for the first time in decades Difficult Women presents portraits of three extraordinary complicated and yes difficult women while also raising intriguing and in their own way difficult questions about the character and motivations of the keenly and often cruelly observant portraitist himself The book begins with David Plante's portrait of Jean Rhys in her old age when the publication of The Wide Sargasso Sea after years of silence that had made Rhys's great novels of the 1920s and 30s as good as unknown had at last gained genuine recognition for her Rhys however can hardly be said to be enjoying her new fame A terminal alcoholic she curses and staggers and rants like King Lear on the heath in the hotel room that she has made her home while Plante looks impassively on Sonia Orwell is his second subject a suave exploiter and hapless victim of her beauty and social prowess while the unflappable brilliant and impossibly opinionated Germaine Greer sails through the final pages ever ready to set the world and any erring companion right

The Open Road Jean Giono, 2021-10-12 A nomad and a swindler embark on an eccentric road trip in this picaresque philosophical novel by the author of The Man Who Planted Trees The south of France 1950 A solitary vagabond walks through the villages towns valleys and foothills of the region between northern Provence and the Alps He picks up work along the way and spends the winter as the custodian of a walnut oil mill He also picks up a problematic companion a cardsharp and con man whom he calls the Artist The action moves from place to place and episode to episode in truly picaresque fashion Everything is told in the first person present tense by the vagabond narrator who goes unnamed He himself is a curious combination of qualities poetic resentful cynical compassionate flirtatious and self absorbed While The Open Road can be read as loosely strung entertainment interspersed with caustic reflections it can also be interpreted as a projection of the relationship of author art and audience But it is ultimately an exploration of the tensions and boundaries between affection and commitment and of the competing needs for solitude independence and human bonds As always in Jean Giono the language is rich in natural imagery and as ruggedly idiomatic as it is lyrical
