Our Republic S. E. Forman, 2017-12-23. Excerpt from Our Republic: A Brief History of the American People. In the making of our Republic, the deeds of pioneers, farmers, inventors, teachers, captains of labor, captains of industry, have been quite as important as the deeds of warriors and statesmen. This history, therefore, is not one of the drum and trumpet kind, nor is it one in which the politician always holds the center of the stage. A large share of attention is given to the every-day life of the people, to the movement which carried American civilization westward and built up a Union of States to the growth of our industrial system to the great inventions which have contributed so largely to our competency in material things The treatment of topics bearing upon our economic development is unusually full for the reason that the economic factor in the history of a nation especially in the history of the American nation is a subject of transcendent importance There is much in Bagehot s saying The selling of figs the cobbling of shoes the manufacture of nails these are the essence of life While preparing the book the author received from the officers of the Library of Congress courtesies for which he is deeply indebted About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
