

The background of the cover is a collage of four distinct historical artifacts. In the top left, a portion of an antique clock mechanism is visible, featuring a large circular frame and various gears. To its right is a tiered, conical metal vessel, possibly a ceremonial urn or incense burner, with a fluted top. The bottom left shows a section of a stone inscription with Latin text, including the words 'Died Sept' and 'Aged'. On the right side, there is a bronze bull-shaped vessel, likely a cinerary urn, with a curved spout and a decorative finial on its back.
