Loving Someone Else's Child:

How to Love Someone Else's Child Vicksay Baby Moten-Richardson, 2021-03-11 All I ever wanted was to be a mother At the age of four when someone would ask me what I wanted to be I would say I want God to delay his coming so that I can live to be twenty five years old get married and have children But on that dreadful day in January of 1994 my doctor told me that my chances of becoming a mother were very slim due to several female problems I hung my head in my chest and cried There will always be a hole in my heart and questions in my mind about what my child would have looked like Would he or she be like me talk like me or even stand like me God s will in my life is more important than mine and since then I have learned to trust him with all my heart Along the way I have been blessed to be called mom by some very extraordinary children Along the way I have been blessed to be called mom by some very loving and generous children Along the way I have been blessed to adopt two extremely special children Along the way I have been blessed by these children more than words can express But most of all I have been blessed to have LOVED SOMEONE ELSE S CHILD Loving Someone compassion that the broken child she sought to save is somehow reviving her Someone Else s Child is a deeply moving story of guilt and forgiveness despair and hope and the intricacies of love and responsibility In rich and unforgettable prose Nancy Woodruff masterfully explores the fraying loyalties that can turn our world upside down in the face of tragedy Filling the Quiver: Is Adoption God's Will for My Family? have ranked higher but because I was graduating a year earlier it caused my ranking to be calculated differently from the students who had attended high school for four years I received three four year scholarships to the University of Arizona I completed a twenty four month computerized accounting program in eighteen months while raising four extremely sickly and one very difficult foster child and while running a full time day care from my home I took twenty four classes in those eighteen months and received twenty three As and one B Of course I give God the glory because He is the only one who gives us strength I was a straight A student Since I was in first grade I have always assisted children with learning disabilities However the one thing that I am proudest of was that I married a virgin Inside I was this sad and disappointed little girl that I thought no one would love or care for And one more thing that I am proud of is that with the only two men I have been intimate with in my whole sixty four years of life I took my wedding vows first But that same person whom I just told about filed bankruptcy several times moved over fifty times and lost over fifteen cars and over forty jobs all because of pride disobedience to God and letting people speak negativity into my life It is very difficult to share your weakness with the world and those whom you love and know But it is more liberating to know that my story is going to help many people especially women not to make the mistakes I have made
