Greekscapes Journeys With An Artist:

Greekscapes Journeys With an Artist Pamela Jane Rogers,2013-11-03 Rose is an artist yet she lacks self confidence She was sidetracked too often when she was young and still makes decisions that interfere with a creative life now that she is older After twelve years of marriage she is still trying to have a baby by doing everything possible including the impossible thought try not to think about it Throwing herself into interior design gives her a feeling of accomplishment but it is yet another compromise There are moments of clarity that verge on the enlightenment she seeks but soon her doubts return Only her painting implores her to look inside and free up her emotional stalemate and that persistence soon leads her to a brilliant painting mentor Rose has wanted to paint in Provence since her earliest memories and finally she has the chance But the winds of change are blowing her to another destination Greece what can I paint there She soon finds the answer and an epiphany in an olive grove gives her the gift that could change her life But can she really survive as an artist She is tried to meet the challenges of a traditional lifestyle of marriage and children but how can she continue when her creative nature continues to lead her in another direction She must first give birth to her Self by taking a hard look at the subtle and not so subtle influences both sad and happy that have altered the course of her life Only then will she be able to overcome the major fear that she is denied since learning the truth of her own family history She finally embarks on her journey with the longing for creative fulfillment as her only companion Greece's vibrant colors are the perfect match for the lightness of spirit she needs to nurture in herself As the country and the people emerge with warmth and humor Rose is at last free to embrace her mature years as an artist and a single woman Isn't she

Greekscapes Pamela Rogers,2015-05-13 I am an artist although it took me many years to find the creative life I had always yearned to live After a twelve year marriage trying in vain to have a child my depressed state of mind was beginning to take its toll Only my paintings implored me to look inside and free up my emotional stalemate What I found was not always pleasant yet my persistence led to a brilliant painting mentor and then by a twist of fate to Greece What can I paint here I asked myself I soon found the answer and a bizarre epiphany in an olive grove gave me the knowledge I needed to change my life But to leave everything move to another country and face possible failure It s probably tempting the Fates for a middle aged woman on her own with minimal resources to believe she can still realize her dreams and yet it s certainly worth a try
