The Story of Babar Jean De Brunhoff, 1960 The story of Babar the little elephant

The Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation Peter France, 2000 Translation has been a crucial process in world culture over the past two millennia and more In the English speaking cultures many of the most important texts are translations from Homer to Beckett the Bible to Freud Although recent years have seen a boom in translation studies there has been no comprehensive yet convenient guide to this essential element of literature in English Written by eminent scholars from many countries the Oxford Guide to Literature in English Translation meets this need and will be essential reading for all students of English and comparative literature It highlights the place of translation in our culture encouraging awareness of the issues raised making the translator more visible Concentrating on major writers and works it covers translations out of many languages from Greek to Korean from Swahili to Russian For some works e g Virgil's Aeneid which have been much translated the discussion is historical and critical showing how translation has evolved over the centuries and bringing out the differences between versions Elsewhere with less familiar literatures the Guide examines the extent to which translation has done justice to the range of work available The Guide is divided into two parts Part I contains substantial essays on theoretical questions a pioneering outline of the history of translation into English and discussions of the problems raised by specific types of text e g poetry oral literature The second much longer part consists of entries grouped by language of origin some are devoted to individual texts e g the Thousand and One Nights or writers e g Ibsen Proust but the majority offer a critical overview of a genre e g Chinese poetry Spanish Golden Age drama or of a national literature e g Hungarian Scottish Gaelic There is a selective bibliography for each entry and an index of authors and translators

The Modernist Bestiary Timothy Mathews, Sarah Kay, 2020-07-08 The Modernist Bestiary centres on Le Bestiaire ou Cortège d'Orphée 1911 a multimedia collaborative work by French Polish poet Guillaume Apollinaire and French artist Raoul Dufy and its homonym The Bestiary or Procession of Orpheus 1979 by British artist Graham Sutherland Rather than reconstructing the lineage of these two compositions the book uncovers the aesthetic and intellectual processes involved that operate in different times places and media The Apollinaire and Dufy Bestiary is an open ended collaboration a feature that Sutherland develops in his re-visiting and this book shows how these neglected works are caught up in many faceted networks of traditions and genres These include Orphic poetry from the past contemporary musical settings and bestiary writing from its origins to the present The nature of productive dialogue between thought and art and the refracted light they throw on each other are explored in each of the pieces in the book and the aesthetic experience emerges as generative rather than reductive or complacent The contributors encounters with these works take the form of poetry and essays all moving freely between different disciplines and practices humanistic and posthumanist critical dimensions as well as different animals and art forms They draw on disciplines ranging from music art history translation Classical poetry and French poetry and are nurtured by approaches including phenomenology cultural studies sound studies and critical animal studies Collectively the book shows that the aesthetic encounter by nature affective is by nature also interdisciplinary and motivating and that it spurs the critical in addressing the complex issues of humananimality

The Music of Francis Poulenc (1899-1963) Carl B. Schmidt, 1995-10-19
 The name of Francis Poulenc 1899 1963 was first brought to prominence in the 1920s as a member of Les Six a group of young French composers encouraged by Satie and Cocteau His subsequent fame spread well beyond France and he is coming to be regarded as one of this century s most significant composers His compositions are heard constantly in concert halls the world over and numerous recordings including complete sets of songs and piano music have been released Books articles and more than a dozen doctoral dissertations have discussed his music Carl Schmidt s catalogue of Poulenc s works represents the first comprehensive attempt to list an oeuvre which numbers approximately 185 compositions written from his teenage years until his death at the age of 63 The Catalogue indentifies a number of unpublished works and adds a small group of compositions to his musical canon for the first time Each work whether complete or unfinished published or unpublished is described fully Catalogue entries list and describe all known printed editions including reprints and manuscript copies of each work In addition they provide detailed compositional histories based on numerous letters documents and press accounts many of which have not been published previously Russian interest in Poulenc s music manifested in press runs exceeding one million copies is also revealed for the first time

Er entwickelte ein Regelwerk für Musikbibliotheken und Rundfunkarchive zur inhaltsbezogenen Katalogisierung von Noten und Tonträgern.

The World Encyclopedia of Cartoons Richard Marschall, 1980. Prepared by 22 authors and editors from a dozen different countries, a comprehensive and unique reference source on the world of cartoons. It is the indispensable companion volume to Maurice Horn's The world encyclopedia of comics. Covered here both broadly and in depth is the whole field of cartooning: arts, animation, syndicated panels, humor, editorial, sports, caricature. All aspects of cartooning are examined and evaluated: historic, aesthetic, social, cultural, and commercial. There are more than 1200 alphabetical and cross-referenced entries on cartoons and cartoonists with special emphasis on styles, themes, cultural contributions, and influences on other artists. On the cartoons themselves in their various forms, the entries include brief histories, summaries of theme and plot, evaluations of the work and its particular historical perspective, as well as its adaptation to other media.
