Histories And Practices Of Live Art:

Histories and Practices of Live Art Deirdre Heddon, Jennie Klein, 2012-12-07 In this dynamic collection a team of experts map the development of Live Art culturally thematically and historically Supported with examples from around the world the text engages with a number of key practices asking what these practices do and how they can be contextualised and understood The Live Art of Sociology Cath Lambert, 2018-01-12 The Live Art of Sociology attends to the importance of the live in contemporary social and political life Taking existing work in live sociology as a starting point this book considers some of its aspirations through unique empirical investigations Queer and feminist theory and methods are also employed in exploring the challenges of researching live experiences and temporalities With case study examples ranging from the work of live body artists to experiments in curating sociological research Lambert successfully demonstrates the diverse ways in which art can provide the aesthetic and affective conditions for social and political disruption By emphasising the political importance of how people knowledges materials emotions and senses are configured and reconfigured The Live Art of Sociology asserts a creative and vital role for sociology in not only representing but also generating social realities and political possibilities Putting aesthetics at the heart of contemporary sociology and making a strong case for a renewed sociological aesthetics this volume will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as postdoctoral researchers and academics interested in fields such as Sociology Cultural Studies Art and Visual Culture Gender and Sexuality Studies and Leisure Studies It will also be of interest to creative practitioners Live Art in the UK Maria Chatzichristodoulou, 2020-02-06 Since entering the performance lexicon in the 1970s the term Live Art has been used to describe a diverse but interrelated array of performance practices and approaches This volume offers a contextual and critical introduction to the scene of contemporary Live Art in Britain Focusing on key artists whose prolific body of work has been vital to the development of contemporary practice this collection studies the landscape of Live Art in the UK today and illuminates its origins as well as particular concerns and aesthetics The introduction to the volume situates Live Art in relation to other areas of artistic practice and explores the form as a British phenomenon It considers questions of cultural specificity financial and institutional support and social engagement by tracing the work and impact of key organizations on the UK scene the Live Art Development Agency SPILL Festival of Performance and Compass Live Art Across three sections leading scholars offer case studies exploring the practice of key artists Tim Etchells Marisa Carnesky Marcia Farquhar Franko B Martin O'Brien Oreet Ashery David Hoyle Jordan McKenzie and Cosey Fanni Tutti Off Sites Bertie Ferdman, 2018-07-30 Honorable Mention ATHE's 2018 Outstanding Book Award Contextualizing the techniques and methods of the incredibly rich and vital genre of site specific performance author Bertie Ferdman traces the evolution of that term Originally used for experimental staging practices and then later also for engaged situational events site specific is no longer sufficient for the genre's many contemporary variations Using the term off site Ferdman illustrates five distinct ways artists have challenged the disciplinary framework of site specific theatre blurring the traditional boundaries between the fictional and the real changing how the audience and actor interact with each other and whether they are physically together or apart fabricating sites from physically bound conceptually constructed or virtual spaces staging live situations in real nonreal and often mediated encounters and challenging our preconceived notions of time and space Tracing the genealogy of site based work through the twentieth and twenty first centuries Ferdman outlines the theoretical groundwork for her study in the introduction Individual chapters focus on distinct types of off sites the interdisciplinary discourse of disciplinary sites the spaces of audience engagement with spectator sites the dislocation of time for temporal sites and the historiographical spaces of mapping for urban sites Ferdman examines site based work being done in the Americas by contemporary companies and artists experimenting with new forms and practices for site driven theatre Key productions discussed include Private Moment by David Levine Geyser Land by Mary Ellen Strom and Ann Carlson Jim Findlay s Dream of the Red Chamber and Lola Arias Mi Vida Despu s

Interplay of Things Anthony B. Pinn, 2021-09-20 Drawing on literature along with the visual and performing arts Anthony B Pinn theorizes religion as a technology for interrogating human experiences understanding the ways in which things are always involved in processes of exchange and interplay

Critical Live Art Dominic Johnson, 2016-04-29 Live Art is a contested category not least because of the historical disciplinary and institutional ambiguities that the term often tends to conceal Live Art can be usefully defined as a peculiarly British variation on particular legacies of cultural experimentation a historically and culturally contingent translation of categories including body art performance art time based art and endurance art The recent social and cultural history of the UK has involved specific factors that have crucially influenced the development of Live Art since the late 1970s These have included issues in national cultural politics relating to sexuality gender disability technology and cultural policy In the past decade there has been a proliferation of festivals of Live Art in the UK and growing support for Live Art in major venues Nevertheless while specific artists have been afforded critical essays and monographs there is a relative absence of scholarly work on Live Art as a historically and culturally specific mode of artistic production Through essays by leading scholars and critical interviews with influential artists in the sector Critical Live Art addresses the historical and cultural specificity of contemporary experimental performance and explores the diversity of practices that are carried out programmed read or taught as Live Art This book is based on a special issue of Contemporary Theatre Review

The Phenomenology of Blood in Performance Art T. J. Bacon, Chelsea Coon, 2025-02-28 The Phenomenology of Blood in Performance Art is a major new publication that expands the philosophical contextualisation of blood its presence and absence across the practice of performance art from a phenomenological perspective Edited by T J Bacon she they and Chelsea Coon she her this book moves through an established canon of artists and beyond to ensure an inclusive representation of practices from a wider range of practitioners First hand interviews and conversations have been gathered from both canonical names as well as individuals who are prevalent in their communities and or respective subcultures but less represented within the frameworks of scholarly discourse Each offers the opportunity to examine their experiences creating artworks and in turn contributes to the context of phenomenological examination within this publication through complementary scholarly texts from leading thinkers who frame phenomenological application to both visual art and transdisciplinary context Featuring artists through new exclusive interviews and contributions including Marina Abramovi Jelili Atiku Ron Athey Franko B Niya B Marisa Carnesky Chelsea Coon Victor Martinez Diaz Rufus Elliot Ernst Fischer Louis Fleischauer Poppy Jackson Mirabelle Jones Andrei Molodkin Hermann Nitsch ORLAN Mike Parr Greta Sharp tjb and Paola Paz Yee and reference to many more Alongside new scholarly insight by leading phenomenological and interdisciplinary art scholars and philosophers including T J Bacon Chelsea Coon Stuart Grant Kelly Jordan Lynn Lu Roberta Mock Amber Musser and Raegan Truax Together they represent a significant exploration of intricate and dynamic responses to the cultural fabric of contemporary lived experiences across space and time through the medium of blood in performance art This incredible analysis of this performance art will be of huge interest to students and practitioners of live art performance art phenomenology and performance philosophy
