A War of Loves David Bennett, 2018-11-13 At 14 David Bennett came out to his parents. At 19 he encountered Jesus Christ. At that moment his life changed forever. As a young gay man David Bennett saw Christianity as an enemy to freedom for LGBTQI people and his early experiences with prejudice and homophobia led him to become a gay activist. But when Jesus came into his life in a highly unexpected way he was led down a path he never would have predicted or imagined. In A War of Loves David recounts his dramatic story from his early years exploring new age religions and French existentialism to his university experiences as an activist. Following supernatural encounters with God he embarked on a journey not only of seeking to reconcile his faith and sexuality but also of discovering the higher call of Jesus Christ. A War of Loves investigates what the Bible teaches about sexuality and demonstrates the profligate unqualified grace of God for all people. David describes the joy and intimacy he found in following Jesus Christ and how love has taken on a radically new and far richer meaning for him.

No Strings Attached Rachel Nafziger Hartzler, 2013-04-30 No Strings Attached is the story of a Mennonite congregation in Indiana that existed for eighty six years. The congregation began during the social and religious turmoil of the 1920s when some Mennonites in North America held to rigid doctrines and ethics implemented by central authority and others operated with a congregational polity and became more assimilated into secular culture. The struggle between these two different understandings of faithfulness was most passionately played out in northern Indiana. Placing the narrative of this congregation within the context of 500 years of Mennonite history illustrates the grace and the tension that has both beset and empowered a unique group of people who began as radical reformers. Although No Strings Attached refers to the women's headwear during the 1920s which had no strings it could also be the story of the pastor eating lunch on the peak of the steep roof of the church building. Reflecting on stories of these Mennonite people is an invitation to move into the future with courageous hope. Believing and behaving differently has not prevented Middlebury Mennonites from treating each other respectfully living in a community of love joy and peace and offering God's healing and hope to each other and to the world.
