Mark Lane Express, 1888 Damned to Fame James Knowlson, 2004 Damned to Fame is the brilliant and insightful portrait of Nobel Prize winning author Samuel Beckett mysterious and reclusive master of twentieth century literature Professor James Knowlson Beckett's chosen biographer and a leading authority on Beckett vividly re-creates Beckett's life from his birth in a rural suburb of Dublin in 1906 to his death in Paris in 1989 revealing the real man behind the literary giant. Scrupulously researched and filled with previously unknown information garnered from interviews with the author and his friends family and contemporaries Knowlson's unparalleled work is the definitive Beckett biography of our time.

Under the Cover Clayton Childress, 2019-03-19 Under the Cover follows the life trajectory of a single work of fiction from its initial inspiration to its reception by reviewers and readers. The subject is Jarrettsville a historical novel by Cornelia Nixon which was published in 2009 and based on an actual murder committed by an ancestor of Nixon's in the postbellum South. Clayton Childress takes you behind the scenes to examine how Jarrettsville was shepherded across three interdependent fields: authoring, publishing and reading, and how it was transformed by its journey. Along the way he covers all aspects of the life of a book including the author's creative process, the role of the literary agent, how editors decide which books to acquire, how publishers build lists and distinguish themselves from other publishers, how they sell a book to stores and publicize it, and how authors choose their next projects. Childress looks at how books get selected for the front tables in bookstores, why reviewers and readers can draw such different meanings from the same novel, and how book groups across the country make sense of a novel and what it means to them. Drawing on original survey data, in-depth interviews, and groundbreaking ethnographic fieldwork, Under the Cover reveals how decisions are made, inequalities are reproduced, and novels are built to travel in the creation, production, and consumption of culture. Catalogues of Sales Sotheby Parke Bernet & Co, 1981
